Subject: Caesars v. Marcel July and Octavius Tower LLC - Mediation and Discovery Responses

All,

With regard to mediation, we are contacting Judge Hagen, a former judge in the District of Nevada, to determine when he is available to mediate this case, and to find out what his fees are for mediation. Once I receive this information, I will forward for everyone's review a list of possible mediation dates, and Judge Hagen's fees.

In the meantime, we need to continue to move forward with our discovery efforts. As you know, Caesars provided Mr. July and Octavius Tower LLC an extension until Friday, October 28, 2011, to respond to Caesars's first document requests and interrogatories. To date, we have not received Mr. July's or Octavius Tower LLC's responses or documents. We therefore would like to schedule a phone conference to meet and confer about the failure to respond to Caesars' discovery. Please let me know your availability over the next few days to discuss these issues.

Hello, I'm Marcel July, the owner/operator of the trademarked name "Octavius Tower", which includes this Website, and an entertainment company which includes the "Octavius Tower" band. We also do equipment rental, show productions, light and laser shows and so on and so on. As some of you know, we have been in business since 1993 both in Europe and in the United States.

As I have posted on this Website, Caesars Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada was denied a trademark for the name "Octavius Tower" by the USPTO for "likelihood of confusion" and so they are now suing me an trying to steal my Federal Trade Marks. They have hired 2 law firms and 5 attorneys to attack me, and they call me a crook. This lawsuit and all these attorneys have to be costing Caesars hundreds of thousands of dollars. I cannot figure out why they would try to destroy me, hire so many attorneys, and spend so much money for a name that they only want to use for a new hotel tower they are building in Las Vegas. Caesars could name this tower anything else they want, for free.

During this whole process Caesars announced that they where going to issue public stock in the company, Caesars Entertainment <http://www.thestreet.com/story/10921599/caesars-entertainment-launches-another-ipo.html> to raise money to do, among other things, finish the Octavius Tower Hotel. When that did not work-out, they announced that they were going to borrow 450 million dollars from JP Morgan Chase Bank <http://www.lasvegassun.com/news/2011/feb/24/caesars-seeks-funding-unfinished-tower-new-strip-e/> and some other banks, with some of the loan proceeds being used to finish this tower. So I called JP Morgan Chase and spoke with Mr. Muchuca, one of their attorneys, and I informed them that Caesars was using my trademarked name without my authorization to secure this loan. As far as I know, the bank did nothing. Then when I found out that the loan was completed sometime in April of this year, I contacted Mr. Octavio, who is the bank's CEO's, Jamie Diamond's, right hand man. I told Mr. Octavio that I was the owner of the trademarks for "Octavius Tower" and that Caesars and I were in litigation over the name. He sounded surprised and asked me to email proof of what I was telling him. So I sent him copies of my trademarks from the USPTO, and copies of Caesars' denial from the USPTO, and my "Cease and Desist" letter. I sent to Caesars. And guess what? They have done nothing..... AGAIN! No one from the bank has called or sent me a letter..... NOTHING.

So after thinking about this for some time, I now think that I understand what's happening in this matter, and this is just my personal opinion, but I kept asking myself "why is Caesars trying so hard, and spending SO much money, to steal my trademarks?" They could call this new hotel tower anything they wanted because it's just one more tower on the Caesars Palace property site, so there has to be a very good reason why they are taking all of these actions against me to take my trademarked name "Octavius Tower". The only answer I could come up with is that they have already used MY legally trademarked name, "Octavius Tower", a name that they had no legal rights to use, in all of these official and legal documents, that this action on their part is tantamount to committing fraud. In addition, when I informed JP Morgan Chase of this problem, and they chose to do nothing, now it seems that JP Morgan Chase has also become complicit in this scheme. I wonder what the US regulators would have to say about all of this??

Now they are trying every trick in the book to trip me up or out-last me in Federal District Court in Las Vegas, and I am spending all of my precious time dealing with this BS. It seems that they will stop at nothing, including lying to the court, trash my name, or whatever it takes, to destroy me. They are asking the Judge to either revoke my trademarks, or declare that they have not infringed on my marks, or force me to sign a "co-existence agreement" with them, and if the Judge agrees with anyone of these options, then they are off the hook regarding the above mentioned documents being filed with the SEC and the banks. Pretty neat trick wouldn't you say?? And they do not give a damn what damage is done to me and my family or what the cost is.

I am doing this taped press release because none of the press outlets I have contacted will tell my side of the story. When Caesars filed their lawsuit, the press was all over it! There must be at least 85 stories about this case on the Internet with all of them repeating Caesars' allegations that I'm a crook and have committed fraud, but not one story about the fact that I have disproved every single one of Caesars' bullshit allegations now about the fact that we are senior to them by about 14 years. Maybe somebody from the mainstream press who is not afraid of Caesars will pick up this story of injustice and get it printed for every one to see? My email address and telephone numbers are at the bottom of the website if any of you press people want to contact me.
