Carton et al ⋈. B&B Equities Group, LLC et al

hearing on the motion. Wesley Smith, Esq. appeared on behalf of the Plaintiffs, and Marek P. Bute, Esq. appeared on behalf of Aviva. For the reasons set forth herein, this Court finds that the motion should be granted.

No party has objected to the motion for determination of good faith settlement, and Plaintiffs have responded in support of the motion. The Court has reviewed the confidential settlement agreement and release in camera. The confidential settlement agreement and release contains standard terms and conditions of agreements of this nature. Aviva denies any liability and asserts it has good faith defenses, but wishes to avoid litigation expenses. The settlement agreement and release specifically represents that the agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties and that there are no additional agreements and the confidential settlement amount is fair and reasonable. Nothing in the Court's review of the settlement agreement indicates that it was entered into for any improper purpose or to tortuously injure the interests of non-settling parties. Based on the foregoing, the Court finds as follows:

IT IS ORDERED that:

- 1. The Motion for Determination of Good Faith Settlement (Dkt. No. 303) filed by Defendant Aviva is GRANTED.
- 2. The Court's determination that the settlement is entered into in good faith affords the settling parties the protections and rights of Nev.Rev.Stat. § 17.245.

Dated this 6th day of January, 2015.

Honorable Robert C. Jones United States District Judge
