12	6, 2016. Defendant filed a reply (ECF No. 326) on November 16, 2016.
13	Defendant requests an extension of the deadline set by this courtfor a joint pre-trial order,
14	previously set for November 7, 2016 to December 2, 2016. Plaintiff opposes any such extension as
15	untimely and unnecessarily dilatory.
16	Under Local Rule 26-4, a request for an extension that is filed less than 21 days before
17	expiration of the deadline must be supported by a showing of good cause. Defendant filed this

19	attended to medical matters that have kept her away from work several times during the last three
20	months, and that preparation of the joint pre-trial order has been very time-consuming. Additionally,
21	Defendant notes that Plaintiff's motion for reconsideration (ECF No. 317) of the court's order is still
22	before the court, and must be ruled upon before this matter may proceed to trial. Plaintiff argues that
23	Defendant has previously been given numerous extensions and so should not be allowed to delay this
24	case any further. However, as the requested extension is relatively modest, and there is currently no
25	pending trial date, the court finds that Plaintiff will not be prejudiced by the extension. Further,
