18 WHEREAS, the Parties and other non-parties may, during the course of this litigation, 19 be required to disclose trade secrets and other confidential research, development, marketing, or 20 proprietary commercial information within the meaning of Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of 21 Civil Procedure; and

22 WHEREAS, the Parties have, through counsel, stipulated and agreed to entry of this 23 Protective Order pursuant to Rule 26(c) to prevent unnecessary disclosure or dissemination of 24 such confidential information;

25 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED that the following provisions of this Order shall govern 26 and control the disclosure, dissemination, and use of information in this litigation.

27 1. This Order shall govern the production, use, and disclosure of confidential 28 documents and information produced, used, or disclosed in connection with this litigation and 1 designated in accordance with this Order.

2           2. Any Party (hereinafter “Designating Party”) may designate information or 3 documents produced, used, or disclosed in connection with this litigation (“Discovery 4 Material”) as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” to 5 the other Parties and other persons involved in this litigation (collectively “Receiving Party”) by 6 stamping the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES 7 ONLY” on the documents or orally if recorded as part of a deposition or court record, pursuant 8 to the terms of this Order. In designating Discovery Material as “CONFIDENTIAL” or 9 “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY,” counsel for a Designating Party will 10 make such designation only as to that information that he or she in good faith believes to be 11 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” as defined in 12 Paragraphs 2.a. or 2.b. of this Order.

13           a. “CONFIDENTIAL” means trade secrets, other confidential, non-public and 14 proprietary technical information, including, research or development information, patent 15 applications, trademark applications, commercial, financial, budgeting and/or accounting 16 information, information about existing customers, marketing studies, performance and 17 projections, business strategies, decisions and/or negotiations, personnel compensation, 18 evaluations and other employment information, as well as confidential and proprietary 19 information about affiliates, parents, subsidiaries and third parties with whom the Parties to this 20 litigation have or have had business relationships which a Designating Party in good faith so 21 designates because of its view that the information or any information derived therefrom 22 contains or reflect trade secrets, or other confidential research, development, or commercial 23 information. The “CONFIDENTIAL” category shall be invoked by a Designating Party only 24 relative to documents or categories of documents that contain confidential information that 25 legitimately falls within the definition of protectable documents under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c).

26           b. “CONFIDENTIAL” information may be further restricted by an 27 “ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” designation. Designation of “CONFIDENTIAL” information
28 with the further restriction of “ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” shall be limited to information

1 and documents that contain or refer to trade secrets or other confidential or technical research, 2 development, business, or financial information that, if disclosed to a business competitor, may 3 tend to damage the Designating Party's competitive position.

4 3. The designation of Discovery Material in the form of documents, responses to 5 requests for admission and interrogatories, responses to subpoenas or other tangible materials 6 (including, without limitation, electronically stored information), other than depositions or other 7 pretrial testimony, as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY'S EYES 8 ONLY" shall be made by the Designating Party in the following manner:

9 a. Documents designated "CONFIDENTIAL" shall be so marked by conspicuously 10 affixing the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" on each page containing any confidential information 11 (or in the case of computer medium on the medium and its label and/or cover) to which the 12 designation applies. Such designated Discovery Material shall also be identified by Bates 13 number. To the extent practical, the "CONFIDENTIAL" legend shall be placed near the Bates 14 number;

15 b. Documents designated "CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY" 16 shall be so marked by conspicuously affixing the legend "CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY'S 17 EYES ONLY" on each page containing any counsel eyes only information (or in the case of 18 computer medium on the medium and its label and/or cover) to which the designation applies.
19 Such designated Discovery Material shall also be identified by Bates number. To the extent 20 practical, the "CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY" legend shall be placed near 21 the Bates number;

22 c. If a document has more than one designation, the more restrictive or higher 23 confidential designation applies.

24 d. As to those documents that are produced for examination for the purposes of 25 allowing opposing counsel to determine which of those documents opposing counsel desires 26 copies, those documents shall be treated as "CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY'S EYES 27 ONLY" pursuant to this Order, whether or not marked, until copies of the documents are 28 requested and produced, at which time the produced documents and information therein shall be

1 held pursuant to this Order based upon the designation, if any, marked upon the documents by 2 the Designating Party.

3 e. Documents printed out from any electronic medium marked with 4 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” shall be marked 5 by the Party printing such documents with the same designation as the electronic medium from 6 which they are printed.

7 f. To the extent electronically stored information or other material cannot 8 physically be labeled “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES 9 ONLY,” the Parties will identify the material with sufficient specificity to put Parties and others 10 subject to this Order on notice as to the confidential nature or such material.

11 4. Information conveyed or discussed in testimony at a deposition or a court hearing 12 shall be subject to this Order provided it is designated “CONFIDENTIAL” or 13 “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” orally or in writing either at the time the 14 testimony is given or after receipt by the Parties of the transcript. During such time as any 15 information or documents designated “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- 16 ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” are disclosed in a deposition, any Party shall have the right to 17 exclude from attendance at the deposition any person who is not entitled to receive such 18 information or documents pursuant to this Order. Unless counsel for a Party states otherwise on 19 the record, the entire deposition transcript for each deponent in this litigation and the 20 information contained therein is to be treated as “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY’S EYES 21 ONLY” for a period of time not to exceed 30 days after the Party receives a copy of the 22 deposition transcript, during which time the Party may designate, in writing, specific portions of 23 the transcript “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” as 24 appropriate. If the Party fails to designate in writing any portions of the transcript as 25 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” within the 30-day 26 period, the other Parties shall be permitted to use the transcript and the information contained 27 therein with no restrictions of confidentiality subject to the provisions of paragraph 5 below.

28 5. Subject to the provisions of Paragraphs 2 and 3, the failure to designate

1 information or documents as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S 2 EYES ONLY” in accordance with this Order and the failure to object to such a designation shall 3 not preclude a Party at a later time from subsequently designating or objecting to the designation
4 of such information or documents as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- 5 ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY.” The Parties understand and acknowledge that failure of a Party 6 to designate information or documents as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- 7 ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” relieves the Receiving Party of obligations of confidentiality 8 until such a designation is made, except as otherwise provided herein. If any Discovery
9 Material is appropriately designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – 10 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” after the Discovery Material was initially produced, the 11 Receiving Party, on timely notification of the designation, must make reasonable efforts to 12 assure that the Discovery Material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.
13 Within five (5) days of receipt of the substitute copies of Discovery Material, the Receiving 14 Party shall return the previously undesignated Discovery Material and all copies thereof.

15           6.       A Party that objects to the designation of any document or information as 16 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” shall provide 17 written notice of the objection to the Designating Party. The notice shall state with specificity 18 the document objected to and the basis for the objection. A Party that elects to initiate a 19 challenge to a Designating Party’s confidentiality designation must do so in good faith and must 20 begin the process by conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of 21 communication are not sufficient) with Counsel for the Designating Party. In conferring, the 22 challenging Party must explain the basis for such challenging Party’s belief that the 23 confidentiality designation was not proper, must give the Designating Party an opportunity to 24 review the designated Discovery Material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in 25 designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. If the dispute cannot be 26 resolved, the challenging Party may move the Court requesting that the document(s) in question 27 be re-designated. If such motion is brought by the challenging Party, the Designating Party shall 28 bear the burden of establishing the confidentiality of the document(s) in question. No Party shall

1 be under any obligation to object to any designation of confidentiality at the time such 2 designation is made, or any time thereafter. No Party shall, by failure to object, be found to have 3 acquiesced or agreed to such designation or be barred from objecting to such a designation at 4 any time thereafter.

5 7. Other than by the Designating Party, any information or document designated as 6 “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be used solely in connection with this litigation and shall not be used 7 in any other manner by a Receiving Party. Any such designated information or documents shall 8 not be disclosed to anyone other than:

- 9 a. the Court and court personnel;
- 10 b. court reporters taking testimony in these actions and their necessary 11 stenographic, videographic, and clerical personnel;
- 12 c. the counsel and law firms representing the Parties in this litigation and such 13 counsel’s employees, and third-party copy or document management vendors;
- 14 d. the directors and officers of each Party and no more than a total of seven (7) 15 employees of each Party, who shall, prior to receiving such designated information or 16 documents, be furnished with a copy of this Order and shall execute a Declaration in the form of 17 Exhibit A attached hereto, confirming that he/she has read and understands the provisions of this 18 Order and agrees to be bound hereby (“Designated Employees”);
- 19 e. testifying experts, investigators, consulting experts, advisors, jury consultants,
20 and mock jury members that are not presently employees of a Party, provided, however, that 21 before any such person is shown or receives any information or document designated as 22 “CONFIDENTIAL,” he or she must execute a Declaration in the form of Exhibit A attached 23 hereto;
- 24 f. persons testifying in depositions or court proceedings (including, without 25 limitation, persons preparing to testify in such depositions or court proceedings) to the extent the 26 “CONFIDENTIAL” document or information was authored by, addressed to, or received by the 27 person or Party testifying; and
- 28 g. such other persons as the Parties may designate in writing by stipulation or orally

1 agree upon on the record at a deposition in this litigation, provided, however, that before such 2 person is shown or receives any information or document designated as “CONFIDENTIAL,” he 3 or she must (1) execute a Declaration in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto or (2) agree 4 orally on the record at a deposition in these actions to be bound by the terms of this Order, and 5 further provided that any documents designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” shall not be left in the 6 possession of the person subject to this subparagraph “g”, except as may be required by Fed. R.
7 Civ. P. 30 or unless the person otherwise qualifies for access to such documents pursuant to this 8 Order.

9 8. Information designated “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” 10 shall be used solely in connection with this litigation and production of such information shall 11 be limited to:

- 12 a. the Court and court personnel;
- 13 b. court reporters taking testimony in these actions and their necessary 14 stenographic, videographic, and clerical personnel;
- 15 c. the counsel and law firms representing the Parties in this litigation and such 16 counsel’s employees, and third-party copy or document management vendors;
- 17 d. testifying experts, investigators, consulting experts, advisors, jury consultants,
18 and mock jury members that are not presently employees of a Party, provided, however, that 19 before any such person is shown or receives any information or document designated as 20 “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY,” he or she must execute a Declaration in 21 the form of Exhibit A attached hereto;
- 22 e. persons testifying in depositions or court proceedings (including, without 23 limitation, persons preparing to testify in such depositions or court proceedings) to the extent the 24 “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” document or information was authored 25 by, addressed to, or received by the person or Party testifying; and
- 26 f. such other persons as the Parties may designate in writing by stipulation or orally 27 agree upon on the record at a deposition in these actions, provided, however, that before such 28 person is shown or receives any information or document designated as “CONFIDENTIAL --

1 ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY" he or she must (1) execute a Declaration in the form of Exhibit 2 A attached hereto or (2) agree orally on the record at a deposition in these actions to be bound 3 by the terms of this Order, and further provided that any documents designated as 4 "CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY" shall not be left in the possession of the 5 person subject to this subparagraph "f", except as may be required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 30 or 6 unless the person otherwise qualifies for access to such documents pursuant to this Order.

7 9. This Order shall apply equally to documents and information produced by non-8 Parties to this litigation pursuant to subpoena or other disclosure. A non-Party may designate 9 documents or information it produces as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL -- 10 ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY" pursuant to this Order. A non-Party that makes original 11 documents or information available for inspection and review need not designate such 12 documents or materials for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which 13 documents or material such inspecting Party would like copied and produced. During the 14 inspection and before the designation, all of the documents or material made available for 15 inspection shall be deemed "CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY." After the 16 inspecting Party has identified the documents or materials such inspecting Party wants copied 17 and produced, the non-Party shall determine which documents or materials, or portions thereof, 18 qualify for protection under this Order. Before producing the specified documents or materials, 19 the non-Party shall affix the appropriate legend ("CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL -- 20 ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY") on each page containing information or material that qualifies 21 for protection under this Order. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies 22 for protection, the non-Party shall also clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making 23 appropriate markings in the margins) and must specify, for each portion, the level of protection 24 being asserted (either "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY'S EYES 25 ONLY").

26 10. A Party seeking to file any paper or other matter in any civil case designated 27 CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY'S EYES ONLY" shall seek to file 28 the paper or other matter under seal, pursuant to the Court's Local Rules, unless the Designating

1 Party authorizes, in writing, that such paper or other matter does not have to be filed under seal.

2 11. Any person in possession of “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- 3 ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” information shall exercise reasonably appropriate care with 4 regard to the storage, custody or use of such “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- 5 ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” information in order to ensure that the confidential or highly 6 confidential nature of the same is maintained.

7 12. If information designated “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- 8 ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” is disclosed to anyone other than in a manner authorized by this 9 Order, the Party responsible for such disclosure must: (a) immediately bring all pertinent facts
10 relating to such disclosure to the attention of the Designating Party of the “CONFIDENTIAL” 11 or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” information; (b) retrieve such 12 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” information, or, 13 where the information is not retrievable, certify that, as far as the Party responsible for 14 disclosure is aware, such “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES 15 ONLY” information has been lost or destroyed and that no copies are within the possession, 16 custody, or control of unauthorized recipients of the information, documents, or materials; and 17 (c) prevent further disclosure.

18 13. Unless otherwise permitted herein, within sixty (60) days after the final 19 disposition of this litigation, including all appeals therefrom, all documents (originals and 20 copies) designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES 21 ONLY” and all excerpts therefrom in the possession, custody, or control of any Parties (other 22 than the Designating Party) and any experts, investigators, advisors, or consultants shall be 23 destroyed by the Receiving Party (or, upon written request, returned to the Designating Party at 24 the Designating Party’s expense). The attorneys of record for each Party shall be entitled to 25 retain all exhibits admitted into evidence at trial, pleadings, motion papers, discovery responses, 26 deposition transcripts and exhibits, legal memoranda, correspondence and work product. Upon 27 request, the Parties and their counsel shall separately provide written certification to the 28 Designating Party within sixty (60) days after the final disposition of this litigation that the 1 actions required by this paragraph have been completed.

2 14. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over the Parties for the purpose of ensuring 3 compliance with this Order and granting such amendments, modifications, and additions to this 4 Order and such other and further relief as may be necessary, and any Party may apply to the 5 Court at any time for an amendment, modification, or addition to this Order. This Order shall 6 survive the final disposition of the action, by judgment, dismissal, settlement, or otherwise.

7 15. A Party in receipt of documents or information designated as 8 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” hereunder who is 9 required to disclose the document or information pursuant to any law, regulation, order, or rule 10 of any governmental authority, shall give immediate advance notice within two (2) business 11 days, to the extent possible, or, if not possible, shall give notice as soon as possible thereafter, of 12 any such requested or actual disclosure in writing to the counsel of the other Parties to afford the 13 Parties the opportunity to seek legal protection from or otherwise limit the disclosure of such 14 information or documents.

15 16. Neither this Order nor any stipulation therefore, nor any disclosure or use of 16 information or documents, in whatever form, pursuant to this Order, shall be deemed an 17 admission, waiver, or agreement by any Party that any information or documents designated as 18 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEY’S EYES ONLY” hereunder is or is 19 not a trade secret or confidential information for purposes of determining the merits of any 20 claims any Party may have against one another or a third Party. Neither this Order nor any 21 stipulation resulting therefrom shall be deemed to expand the scope of discovery in these actions 22 beyond the limits otherwise prescribed by law, nor to enlarge the scope of discovery to matters 23 unrelated to these actions.

24 17. Inadvertent production of documents subject to work product immunity or the 25 attorney-client privilege or any other privilege or immunity shall not constitute a waiver of the 26 immunity or privilege; provided that the Designating Party notifies the Receiving Party in 27 writing via facsimile or email, with confirmation by first-class mail, of such inadvertent 28 production immediately upon learning of same. Such inadvertently produced documents, and all

1 copies thereof, shall be returned to the Designating Party upon request within five (5) business 2 days except that, if the Receiving Party intends to request that the Court order the production of 3 any such inadvertently produced documents, it may retain one copy of the document for such 4 purpose and if so, notify the Designating Party promptly. The Receiving Party must return such 5 inadvertently produced documents if the Receiving Party does not request such relief from the 6 Court within a reasonable time period not to exceed 20 days, unless the Parties are engaged in 7 good faith discussions regarding the documents or if the Court denies any such relief, whichever 8 is longer, and no use may be made of such documents thereafter. Nothing in this Order shall 9 prevent the Receiving Party from requesting that the Court order the production of any such 10 inadvertently produced documents. Nothing in this Order prevents any Party from petitioning 11 the Court for return of later discovered, inadvertently produced documents that are subject to 12 work product immunity or attorney-client privilege or any other privilege or immunity.

1 18. Nothing in the Order shall be construed to affect the admissibility of any 2 document, material, or information at any trial or hearing; any request for confidentiality, 3 closure, or sealing of any hearing or trial must be made to the judge then presiding over this 4 litigation. A Party intending to introduce confidential information or documentation at any 5 hearing or trial in this litigation will approach the bench for a ruling on how the information or 6 documentation is to be treated.
