R. 9 10 Civ. P."), which must be protected in order to preserve legitimate business or privacy interests. Accordingly, good cause exists for the entry of this Protective Order pursuant to Fed. R. The Parties further stipulate and agree, subject to the approval of the Court, that the terms and conditions of this Stipulated Protective Order shall govern the handling 14 15 of documents, depositions, pleadings, exhibits and all other information exchanged by the parties in this Civil Action, or provided by or obtained from non-parties in this Action. 16

DESIGNATION

3. Any Producing Party may designate Discovery Material as "CONFIDENTIAL" in accordance with this Stipulated Protective Order if such party in good faith believes that such Discovery Material contains CONFIDENTIAL information as defined in Paragraph 4. The burden of establishing that Discovery Material is CONFIDENTIAL as defined herein shall be on 6 the Producing Party. The designation of any Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL shall be deemed effective unless and until the Court orders otherwise or the Producing Party withdraws the designation.

4. As used herein, CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material refers to information that a 9 10 Producing Party claims to be proprietary business information or information relating to the personal records or information of individuals or entities that are not parties to the above 11 captioned matter. 12

USE

5. Discovery Material designated CONFIDENTIAL under this Stipulated Protective Order 14 15 may be used only for purposes of this litigation and any appeal therefrom, and shall not be used for any other purpose including, but not limited to, any business, proprietary, commercial, 16 governmental or other legal purpose, including in connection with any other litigation, arbitration 17 or claim. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order precludes a Producing Party from using or 18 19 disseminating its own CONFIDENTIAL information.

20 6. During the course of preparing for a deposition or trial, unless otherwise entitled to 21 access under this Protective Order, a fact deponent or witness may be shown CONFIDENTIAL 22 Discovery Material of another party or third party if, and only if, the Discovery Material reveals 23 on its face that the deponent or witness authored or received the Discovery Material in the 24 ordinary course of business and outside the context of this litigation. Nothing in this Paragraph 25 shall preclude a Producing Party from showing Discovery Material that it has produced to its own deponent or witness, regardless of whether the Producing Party has designated the 26 27 Discovery Material it produced as CONFIDENTIAL, and regardless of whether such deponent 28 or witness is an author or recipient of the Discovery Material.

1 7. During the course of a deposition or trial, unless otherwise entitled to access under this 2 Protective Order, a fact deponent or witness may be shown CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material of another party or third party, if and only if, the Discovery Material reveals on its face 3 that the deponent or witness authored or received the Discovery Material in the ordinary course 4 5 of business and outside the context of this litigation, or alternatively if foundation testimony or other Discovery Material establishes that the deponent or witness authored or received the 6 7 Discovery Material in the ordinary course of business and outside the context of this litigation, or until such person has executed the Declaration and Undertaking to Be Bound by Stipulated 8 9 Protective Order in the form attached as Exhibit A. A fact deponent or witness who is an officer, 10 director or employee of a Producing Party may be shown any CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material of the Producing Party of which he or she is an officer, director or employee. 11

8. All Discovery Material designated CONFIDENTIAL shall be protected from disclosure as specified herein, unless a party obtains an Order of the Court declaring that all or certain portions of such Discovery Material are not, in fact, protected.

9. Third parties may designate as CONFIDENTIAL transcripts of depositions of their witnesses and any documents or information they produce, whether voluntarily or by subpoena, to the same extent and in the same manner as parties to this Action, and any such Discovery Material shall be treated by parties to this Action in the same manner as materials and information so designated by a party. Third parties shall have the same rights and obligations under this Stipulated Protective Order as parties and may move the Court to enforce the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order.

1 executed acknowledgement and curriculum vitae or resume to object to such disclosure. In the 2 event of an objection to the proposed disclosure, the parties shall promptly confer in good faith to resolve the concerns giving rise to the objection. If the parties are unable to reach agreement 3 regarding such disclosure, the objecting party must notify the Court on an expedited basis, and in 4 5 no event later than fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt of the executed acknowledgement and curriculum vitae or resume. The burden shall be on the objecting party to demonstrate to the 6 7 Court why the proposed disclosure should not be made. CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material shall not be disclosed to such an individual pending the Court's resolution of the dispute. The 8 foregoing seven (7) and fifteen (15) calendar day periods may be extended by agreement of the 9 parties or by Order of the Court. 10

11 13. The recipient of any CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material that is provided under this 12 Stipulated Protective Order shall maintain such information in a secure and safe area and shall 13 exercise reasonable and proper care with respect to the storage, custody, use and/or 14 dissemination of such information.

INADVERTENT PRODUCTION/DESIGNATION

14. The inadvertent production of a document subject to attorney-client privilege or work 16 product immunity will not waive attorney-client privilege or work product immunity. In 17 addition, the fact that a document was inadvertently produced shall not be used in any manner as 18 19 evidence in support of any alleged waiver of attorney-client privilege or work product immunity. 20 If a party has inadvertently produced a document subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege or 21 work product immunity, upon request, the document and all copies thereof shall be returned 22 promptly, and in no event later than five (5) calendar days, after a request is made by the 23 Producing Party, as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)(B). Moreover, any notes or summaries, 24 other than those expressly permitted under this section, referring to or relating to any such 25 inadvertently produced document subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege or work product 26 immunity shall be destroyed. Nothing herein shall prevent the Receiving Party from preparing a 27 record for its own use containing the date, author, address(es) and other such information as is reasonably necessary to identify the document and generally describe its nature to the Court in 28

Gordon Silver Attorneys At Law Ninth Floor 3960 Howard Hughes Pkwy Las Vegas, Nevada 89169 (702) 796-5555

any motion to compel production of the document. Such a record of the identity and nature of a document may not be used for any purpose other than preparation of a motion to compel in this Action. After return of the document(s), the Receiving Party may challenge the Producing Party's claim(s) of attorney-client privilege or work product immunity by making a motion to the Court.

15. The inadvertent failure by a Producing Party to designate Discovery Material as 6 7 CONFIDENTIAL shall not be a waiver of such designation provided that the Producing Party promptly informs the Receiving Party that such Discovery Material is CONFIDENTIAL, and in 8 any event not more than five (5) business days from when the failure to designate first became 9 10 known to the Producing Party. The inadvertent failure by a party to designate Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL shall not preclude the filing of a motion at a later date seeking to 11 impose such designation or challenging the propriety thereof. The party receiving Discovery 12 13 Material that the Producing Party inadvertently failed to designate as CONFIDENTIAL shall not be in breach of this Order for any use made of such Discovery Material before the Receiving 14 15 Party is informed of the inadvertent failure to designate. Once the Receiving Party has been informed of the inadvertent failure to designate pursuant to this Paragraph, the Receiving Party 16 shall take reasonable steps to, at the Producing Party's option, either ensure that all copies of any 17 such Discovery Materials are returned promptly to the Producing Party or ensure that all copies 18 19 of any such Discovery Materials are marked with the proper designation and distributed only as 20 permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

21 16. In the event of disclosure of Discovery Material designated CONFIDENTIAL to any person not authorized to such access under this Stipulated Protective Order, the party responsible 22 23 for having made such disclosure, and each party with knowledge thereof, shall immediately inform counsel for the party whose Discovery Material has been disclosed of all known relevant 24 25 information concerning the nature and circumstances of the disclosure. The party responsible for 26 improperly disclosing such Discovery Material shall also promptly take all reasonable measures 27 to retrieve the improperly disclosed Discovery Material and to ensure that no further or greater 28 unauthorized disclosure and/or use thereof is made.

1	OBJECTIONS TO DESIGNATIONS
