

1 Sanctions and Contempt because Ms. England has been out of state on State Bar of Nevada
2 business since Thursday, June 6, and she did not return until Sunday, June 9, 2013. Upon her
3 return, and in addition to this opposition and other oppositions and a reply plaintiff's counsel are 4 preparing in this case, counsel are preparing for two separate depositions in another case.

5
6 Like Ms. England, Ms. Hill is a sole practitioner and had to attend to other pressing case
7 commitments in a few of her federal criminal cases over the last week and a half and she has been
8 unable to complete the opposition. Additionally, due to the nature of the motion, additional time
9 is necessary to properly and completely oppose the Motion for Sanctions and Contempt and a 10 modest ten day extension of the deadline is warranted.

11
12 At the request of Plaintiff's counsel, and as a professional courtesy among counsel, the 13 parties agree to allow the Plaintiff a ten (10) day extension of time to file her opposition to 14 Defendants Motion for Sanctions and Contempt. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court
15 grant this stipulation allowing the Plaintiff an additional ten days (10) from Monday, June 10,
16 2013 to and including Thursday, June 20, 2013. This modest extension would not unduly delay
17 or prejudice anyone in this matter and is warranted under the circumstances and based on the 18 current procedural posture of this case.

19
20 THEREFORE, THE PARTIES HERERBY STIPULATE AND AGREE that the time for 21 Plaintiff to file her opposition to Defendants Motion for Sanctions and Contempt be extended for 22 ten days from Monday, June 10, 2013 to and including Thursday, June 20, 2013.

23 Respectfully submitted: June 10, 2013.
