Pursuant to L.R. 7-1, Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") and Defendants SFS, Inc. and Red Cedar Services, Inc. (collectively, "Tribal Defendants") hereby stipulate to stay all proceedings and deadlines in this case as to the Tribal Defendants. In support of this stipulation, the FTC and the Tribal Defendants state as follows:

- 1. FTC counsel and the Tribal Defendants have reached possible resolution of this matter against the Tribal Defendants, which would resolve the current proceedings against them via proposed stipulated orders for permanent injunctive relief.
- 2. The FTC is an independent federal agency. All settlements recommended by FTC counsel must be voted on by the full Commission. The process may take several weeks or more. If the Commission approves the proposed stipulated orders for permanent injunction, the FTC will submit a motion and the proposed orders to the Court for approval.
- 3. Any continued proceedings as to the Tribal Defendants while the Commission is conducting its approval process would, therefore, constitute a waste of judicial time and resources, as well as those of the undersigned parties.
 - 4. This stipulation and the relief requested apply only to the Tribal Defendants.

1	WHEREFORE, the FTC, SFS, Inc., and Red Cedar Services, Inc. jointly request an indefinite
