complete his custodial sentence prior to the mediation and/or trial in the instant case.

3. The parties agree with waiting to see if Plaintiff Hyrum West is released in or around July 9, 2020 for one or more reasons, including: (1) client communications/availability, (2) change in client circumstances as to a non-custodial status, and/or (3) the relative ability to negotiate with the client thereto.
4. That Plaintiff Hyrum West also indicated that he did not want to be transported for one or more matters during the end stages of his custodial status, due to interruptions with one or more of the following: (1) schooling, (2) work assignments, and/or (3) parole hearing(s).
5. That the parties thus request that the July of 2020 trial date be continued so that the matter may be: (1) determined whether Plaintiff Hyrum West will be released on or around July 9, 2020, and (2) have a settlement conference after Plaintiff Hyrum West's anticipated July 9, 2020 release date, and before the current scheduled trial in the matter.
6. The parties thus request a ninety (90) day continuance of the trial date in relation thereto.
7. That Plaintiff Hyrum West is currently incarcerated, and does not object to the subject continuance. Further, Plaintiff Hyrum West specifically requests that the instant continuance be granted.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the pending Stipulation of the parties, and good cause appearing therefore, the Court finds that:

1. As of February of 2020, Plaintiff Hyrum West has an anticipated release date of July 9, 2020 from his custodial sentence. (See Nevada Department of Corrections Inmate Search, available at: <https://ofdsearch.doc.nv.gov/form.php> under search for “Hyrum West.”)

2. Plaintiff Hyrum West has indicated to his counsel that he wishes to be able to complete his custodial sentence prior to the mediation and/or trial in the instant case.

3. The parties agree with waiting to see if Plaintiff Hyrum West is released in or around July 9, 2020 for one or more reasons, including: (1) client communications/availability, (2) change in client circumstances as to a non-custodial status, and/or (3) the relative ability to negotiate with the client thereto.

4. The parties stipulated that the July of 2020 trial date be continued so that the matter may be: (1) determined whether Plaintiff Hyrum West will be released on or around July 9, 2020, and (2) have a settlement conference after Plaintiff Hyrum West’s anticipated July 9, 2020 release date, and before the current scheduled trial in the matter.

5. The parties thus requested a ninety (90) day continuance of the trial date in relation thereto.

6. Plaintiff Hyrum West is currently incarcerated, and does not object to the subject continuance.

7. The additional time requested herein is being sought in good faith not sought for purposes of delay, but merely to allow the parties adequate time to determine whether Plaintiff Hyrum West will be released in July of 2020, and potentially negotiate a resolution of the case in the interim.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The additional time requested by this stipulation is sought in good faith not sought for purposes of delay, but instead to allow the parties adequate time to determine Plaintiff Hyrum West's custodial status, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.

2. For all of the above-stated reasons, the ends of justice would best be served by an approximately ninety (90) day continuance of the calendar call and trial dates in the matter.

ORDER

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the calendar call, currently scheduled for July 7, 2020, be vacated and continued to October 13, 2020 at the hour of 8:45 a.m.; and the trial, currently scheduled for July 13, 2020, be vacated and continued to October 19, 2020, at the hour of 9:00 a.m. in Courtroom 6C.
