CASE NO.: 2:13-cv-616-MMD-PAL

PARTIES' PROPOSED SCHEDULING ORDER

24 On June 18, 2013 and July 10, 2013, counsel for Plaintiff and counsel for Defendants
 25 held telephone conferences pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) and Local Rule 26-1(d). The parties
 26 agree that, as an administrative record review case, the deadlines provided in Local Rule 26-1(e)
 27 are not appropriate, and an order should be issued under Local Rule 16-1(c)(1).
 28

1 After conferring, the parties jointly propose the following scheduling order for this case:

2 1. Federal defendants lodge and serve the administrative record by September 17, 2013.

3 Plaintiffs' Position:

4 Because the production of the administrative record is the essential first step to judicial
5 review of the claims in this case, and because Federal Defendants have proposed a date
6 (September 17, 2013) for production of the administrative record that is more than five months
7 after this suit was filed, Plaintiffs will oppose any motion to extend the date for lodging and
8 serving the administrative record set in the proposed scheduling order. Plaintiffs initially had 9 proposed a briefing schedule that would have required production of the administrative record by 10 August 9, 2013, four months after the suit was filed, with briefing to be completed by mid-
11 December. Plaintiffs agreed to the briefing schedule proposed below to accommodate the 12 schedules of counsel for Federal Defendants, and sought an agreement from Federal Defendants
13 that they would not request any extension of the date to produce the administrative record.

14 Federal Defendants' Position:

15 While the Federal Defendants anticipate filing the administrative record on September
16 17, 2013, if a motion to extend the filing date is filed, the Federal Defendants agree not to use the 17 briefing schedule as a basis to move the record date. In the event of such a motion, the Federal
18 Defendants further agree not to oppose a motion to extend the briefing schedule if Plaintiffs
19 require additional time to review the administrative record and file their opening brief.

20
21 2. Plaintiffs shall file their motion for summary judgment by December 6, 2013.

22 3. Federal Defendants (and intervenor if intervention is granted) shall file their response
23 and cross-motion for summary judgment by January 17, 2013.

24 4. Plaintiffs shall file their summary judgment reply by February 7, 2014.

25 5. Federal Defendants (and intervenor if intervention is granted) will file their summary
26 judgment reply by February 28, 2014.
