Case No.: 2:13-cv-00752-APG-PAL

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER
GOVERNING THE CONFIDENTIALITY OF
INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS

21 Plaintiff Allen Katynski ("Plaintiff") has filed an action in the above-captioned Court
22 against Defendants CertainTeed Gypsum Manufacturing, Inc. ("CGM") and Saint-Gobain 23 Corporation ("Saint-Gobain") (CGM and Saint-Gobain are sometimes referred to collectively 24 herein as "Defendants"), alleging: (1) wrongful termination; (2) breach of the implied covenant of 25 good faith and fair dealing; and (3) intentional infliction of emotional distress. Defendants deny 26 Plaintiff's claims and that he is entitled to any relief.

27 Plaintiff is expected to and has requested "Confidential," non-public information and 28 documents from Defendants, including, but not limited to, personnel files, investigative files,

1 work-related injuries, and other information and documents regarding certain of CGM's 2 employees, who are not, and are not expected to be, individual parties to this action. Plaintiff is 3 also expected to and has requested documents related to Defendants' business operations.
4 Defendants consider this information and documents to be private, confidential, proprietary, and/or 5 trade secret. Defendants are expected to and have requested information and documents relating to 6 Plaintiff's compensation and personal finances, employment history, education, and medical 7 treatment, which Plaintiff considers to be private and confidential.

8 Discovery in this case will require the production of documents, inspection of tangible 9 things, the answering of interrogatories and requests to admit, and the taking of oral and/or written 10 depositions, during which the aforementioned proprietary, confidential, trade secret, and/or private 11 information and documents of the parties will be exchanged and disclosed. To expedite the flow of 12 discovery without risk of automatic waiver of privilege or work product protection, facilitate the 13 prompt resolution of disputes over confidentiality, and protect adequately material entitled to be 14 kept confidential, the parties agree to limit the disclosure and use of proprietary, trade secret, 15 confidential, and private information and documents as stipulated to pursuant to this Protective 16 Order on the following terms:

17 I. DEFINITIONS

18 The following definitions shall apply to this Protective Order:

- 19 A. This "Action" shall refer to the above-captioned proceeding in the United States 20 District Court, District of Nevada, and any appeal thereof through final judgment.
- 21 B. "Producing Party" shall mean any person or entity producing documents, 22 information, or other materials in this Action, including any party to this Action or 23 any third-parties.
- 24 C. "Party" shall mean the Plaintiff and Defendants in this Action, and any other person 25 that may become a named-party to this Action.
- 26 D. "Confidential" information shall be defined as such documents, deposition 27 testimony, or other information disclosed during discovery in this Action which the 28 Producing Party or another party reasonably, and in good faith, contends contains

1 information that should be protected from disclosure pursuant to this Protective 2 Order. Any party may designate any information or documents as "Confidential" in 3 the reasonable exercise of such party's sole discretion; provided, however, by 4 agreeing to this Protective Order, no party waives the right to challenge any other 5 party's designation of any information or document as "Confidential."

6 E. "Attorneys' Eyes Only" information shall be defined as such documents, deposition 7 testimony, or other information disclosed during discovery in this Action that the 8 Producing Party or another party reasonably, and in good faith, contends contains 9 "Confidential" information of a nature requiring extraordinary protection and that 10 the Producing Party believes should not be in the physical possession of an 11 opposing party to this Action. Any party to this Action or any Producing Party may 12 designate such information and documents as "Attorneys' Eyes Only" in the 13 reasonable exercise of such party's sole discretion; provided, however, by agreeing 14 to this Protective Order, no party waives the right to challenge any other party's 15 designation of any information or documents as "Attorneys' Eyes Only."

16 F. "Legend" as used herein shall mean a stamp or similar insignia stating 17 "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only."

18 G. When reference is made in this Protective Order to any document or party, the 19 singular shall include the plural, and plural shall include the singular.

20 II. DESIGNATION OF INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS

21 A. When any documents or things produced under this Protective Order are designated 22 "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only," a Legend shall be affixed to the first 23 page and all pages containing information for which the Producing Party seeks 24 protection. When information produced in answer to an Interrogatory, or response 25 to a Request for Production or Request for Admission is designated as 26 "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only," the response or answer shall be preceded 27 with the appropriate designation.
28

1 B. Some documents being produced by both Plaintiff and Defendant may contain 2 social security numbers and dates of birth of CGM's current or former employees.
3 Without need of any designation, social security numbers and dates of birth will be 4 deemed to be "Confidential." The parties will make an effort to redact all social 5 security numbers prior to production. In the event a document is produced without 6 the redaction of a social security number, any party seeking to use the document 7 will redact the social security number before its use in a deposition, court 8 proceeding, or court filing.

9 C. The initial failure to designate information or documents as "Confidential" or 10 "Attorneys' Eyes Only" in accordance with this Protective Order shall not preclude 11 the Producing Party from, at a later date, designating any information or documents 12 as either "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only." The Producing Party may, by 13 written notice to counsel of record for the receiving party, designate previously 14 produced information or documents as "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only," 15 which it had inadvertently failed to designate. Upon receipt of such notice, the 16 receiving party shall promptly mark its copies of the information or documents so 17 designated, and shall thereafter, treat the information and documents as if it had 18 been designated "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" and shall restrict the 19 disclosure or use of the information or documents in accordance with this Protective 20 Order. If the information or documents have previously been disclosed to non-21 parties, the parties shall take reasonable steps to obtain all such previously disclosed 22 information or documents and advise the non-parties to treat the designated 23 materials in a manner that is consistent with this Protective Order and as though the 24 information and documents were originally so designated.

25 III. LIMITATIONS

26 A. This Protective Order shall govern only documents, information, and materials 27 generated or produced in response to any method of discovery conducted by any 28 party to this Action, and used in the prosecution and defense of this Action.

1 B. Persons obtaining access to “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information 2 under this Protective Order shall use the information only for the preparation of and 3 the trial in this Action. Persons shall not use such information for any other 4 purpose, including business, commercial, personal, administrative, or judicial 5 proceedings.

6 C. Nothing contained in this Protective Order shall require any party to treat as 7 “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” documents or information lawfully 8 obtained by means other than through discovery in this Action and under 9 circumstances that would lead a reasonable person to conclude that the documents 10 or information were not intended to be kept confidential by the recipient; provided, 11 however, that nothing in this Protective Order shall authorize any use of documents 12 or information which is otherwise impermissible.

13 IV. PERMISSIBLE DISCLOSURES/ACCESS

14 A. Except as set forth herein, “Confidential” information, and any facts or information 15 contained therein or derived therefrom, shall be disclosed only to the Court on the 16 condition that the Court enters an order similar to this Protective Order and/or to: (a) 17 the parties in this Action, including their agents, officers, directors, and employees, 18 but only to the extent that such disclosure is necessary for the conduct of litigation 19 in this Action; (b) outside counsel for the parties hereto and their agents, employees, 20 paralegals, or other secretarial and clerical employees, or agents; (c) experts, 21 independent contractors, consultants, or advisors who are employed or retained by, 22 or on behalf of, one or more of the parties to this Action, or their counsel to assist in 23 preparation of this Action for trial; (d) deponents and their counsel who have a need 24 to review this material during the course of, or in connection with, depositions taken 25 in or for this Action; (e) stenographic reporters who are involved in depositions, the 26 trial, or any hearings or proceedings before the Court in this Action; (f) people who 27 have previously received or created the document; and (g) witnesses in this Action 28 who need to review this material in connection with their testimony in this Action.

1 “Confidential” information may be disclosed to persons listed in this paragraph only 2 after such person has been shown a copy of this Protective Order and agrees to be 3 bound by the terms of this Protective Order in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 4 A. In the event an authorized person does not execute Exhibit A expressly agreeing 5 to be bound by the Protective Order, the parties and the Court will nevertheless 6 deem the authorized person to be so bound.

7 B. “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information, and any facts or information contained therein 8 or derived there from, shall be disclosed only to the Court on the condition that the 9 Court enters an order similar to this Protective Order and/or to: (a) litigation counsel 10 of record for the parties hereto and such counsel’s employees, paralegals or other 11 secretarial and clerical employees and clerical agents; (b) persons who prepared or 12 assisted in the preparation of such documents or material, or to whom the 13 documents or copies thereof were addressed or delivered, but only to the extent that 14 such disclosure is necessary for the conduct of litigation; (c) experts, independent 15 contractors, consultants, or advisors who are employed or retained by, or on behalf 16 of, one or more of the parties to this Action or their counsel to assist in preparation 17 of this Action for trial; and (d) stenographic reporters who are involved in 18 depositions, the trial, or any hearings or proceeding before the Court in this Action.
19 “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information may be disclosed to the authorized persons 20 listed in this paragraph only after such persons have been shown a copy of this 21 Protective Order and agree to be bound by the terms of this Protective Order in the 22 form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

23 V. DECLASSIFICATION

24 Unless and until otherwise ordered by the Court, or otherwise agreed by the parties, all 25 documents and other discovery materials designated “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” 26 shall be treated as such under this Protective Order. In the event that any party objects to the 27 designation of any document, the objecting party may seek modification of the designation or the 28 disclosure of the redacted information in accordance with the following procedure:

A. At any time, the receiving party of any document or information designated “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” may notify the Producing Party, in writing, that the receiving party does not concur in the designation or redaction. The parties shall attempt to resolve such challenges informally. In the event that such attempts are not successful, the designating party may file a motion seeking to uphold the designation, and the Court shall make an independent determination as to whether or not any given document or information is “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” and/or properly redacted based upon facts then existing, and in so doing, the Court shall not be bound by any party’s designation; provided, however, that such documents or discovery material shall be deemed “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” unless and until the Court rules otherwise. The party or entity making the designation must show that there is good cause for the document or information to have such protection.

~~B. In the event that any party files a motion to uphold a designation or redaction of information, the document or information shall be submitted to the Court for in camera inspection.~~

VI. DESIGNATED INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS IN DEPOSITIONS

A. In the case where “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information or documents are used or revealed during a deposition, designation of the transcript or any portion thereof, including the designated documents or other exhibits, as “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” may be made by a statement by a party, counsel, or the witness on the record, so that the stenographer transcribing the deposition can affix a Legend to the cover page and all appropriate pages of the transcript and to each copy thereof for dissemination to counsel and in compliance with this order.

B. A party or a witness may designate a deposition or trial transcript, or a portion thereof, disclosing, containing or referring to any “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information or documents as “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only”

1 by informing counsel for all other parties to this Action in writing within thirty (30) 2 days after receipt of the transcript as to the specific pages and lines deemed 3 confidential, and thereafter such pages and lines shall constitute "Confidential" or 4 "Attorneys' Eyes Only" information or documents pursuant to this Protective Order.
5 Upon receipt of such notice, any party in possession of copies of the transcript with 6 the designated pages and lines shall affix the appropriate Legend thereto. During 7 the 30-day interval following receipt of a transcript, the transcript shall be treated as 8 "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only."

9 VII. DESIGNATED INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS IN BRIEFS

10 In the event that any "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" document or information, or 11 information derived there from is included with, or the contents thereof are disclosed in any 12 documents filed with the Clerk of this Court or any other court, including, without limitation, any 13 pleadings, motion papers, briefs, or deposition transcripts, such documents shall be filed under seal 14 ~~in an envelope bearing the words. "Confidential" pursuant to Protective Order entered by the~~ 15 ~~Court on [date] 2013" or filed through the Court's e-filing system under seal and, subject to the~~ 16 ~~Court's convenience and needs, kept under seal by the Clerk until further order of the Court. The~~ 17 party who has designated such materials as "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" shall within 18 ~~10 business days thereafter~~ ^{14 days} submit a motion to the Court to sustain the sealed status of such 19 materials, a failure to do so constituting a waiver of such designated status.

20 VIII. DESIGNATED INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS IN THE RECORD OF 21 THE ACTION

22 "Confidential" and/or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" information or documents may be offered in 23 evidence at any hearing or the trial in this Action, provided that the parties have met, conferred, 24 and agreed in advance of the hearing and/or trial as to how the information or documents will be 25 used, including, by way of example, requesting that the Court designate that portion of the 26 transcript containing the parties' discussion of the "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" 27 information or documents as confidential and maintain it under seal, only to be produced to the 28 parties' at their request. If the parties cannot agree about how the information or documents will

1 be used during a hearing, before or at the time of the hearing, the party designating such 2 “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” status may move the Court for an order that the evidence
3 be received in camera or under other conditions to prevent unnecessary disclosure. If such motion 4 is made regarding evidence to be introduced at the time of trial, then the party designating such 5 “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” status shall notify opposing counsel and the Court of its 6 intent to make the motion sufficiently in advance of and outside the presence of the jury so that 7 counsel has the opportunity to object to the evidence and/or an opportunity to seek appropriate 8 protection from the Court outside the presence of the jury and before the information or documents
9 are offered into evidence in open court. The Court will then determine whether the proffered 10 evidence should continue to be treated as “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” and, if so, 11 what protection, if any, may be afforded to such information at the hearing.

12 IX. SUBPOENA BY COURT OR OTHER AGENCIES

13 If at any time any document or information protected by this Protective Order is 14 subpoenaed by any court, administrative, or legislative body, or is requested by any other person or 15 entity purporting to have authority to require the production of such information, the party to 16 whom the subpoena or other request is directed shall immediately give written notice thereof to 17 any party which has designated such information “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only.” The 18 party that received the subpoena shall object to production under Rule 45 of the Nevada Rules of 19 Civil Procedure or any similar rule protecting the production of “Confidential” documents in that 20 proceeding. After receipt of the notice specified under this paragraph, the designating party shall 21 be responsible for obtaining any order it believes necessary to prevent disclosure of documents 22 designated, and the party to whom the referenced subpoena or other request is directed shall 23 produce such document or information only upon an order issued by a judge of a court of 24 competent jurisdiction requiring such production.

25 X. CLIENT CONSULTATION

26 Nothing in this Protective Order shall prevent or otherwise restrict counsel from rendering 27 advice to their clients and, in the course thereof, relying generally on examination of stamped 28 “Confidential” and/or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information or documents; provided, however, that

1 in rendering such advice and otherwise communicating with such clients, counsel shall not make 2 specific disclosure of any items so designated except pursuant to the procedures in Paragraphs 3 IV(A) and IV(B) above.

4 XI. COPIES OF DESIGNATED INFORMATION

5 The attorneys of record are responsible for employing reasonable measures, consistent with 6 this Protective Order, to control duplication of, access to, and distribution of copies of 7 “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information. Parties shall not duplicate “Confidential”
8 or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information or documents except working copies and for filing in Court
9 under seal. All copies of any “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information or documents 10 shall be treated as provided in this Protective Order. Any party making, or causing to be made, 11 copies of any such documents shall make certain that each such copy bears the appropriate Legend 12 pursuant to the requirements of this Protective Order.

13 XII. NO WAIVER

14 A. No “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information or documents shall lose 15 such status under this Protective Order as the result of the use of such information 16 or documents in any hearing, trial, or other court proceeding in this Action, 17 provided that such use is consistent with the terms of this Protective Order. Counsel 18 to the parties in this Action shall confer at least five (5) days before any such 19 hearing, trial, or other court proceeding in order to work out any objections to the 20 use of any “Confidential” or Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information or documents in 21 such court proceeding and to make such amendments to this Protective Order which 22 the parties agree are necessary to assure the continued confidentiality of such 23 information.

24 B. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, all objections as to 25 admissibility in evidence of the discovery material subject to this Protective Order 26 are reserved and are not waived by any terms of this Protective Order. The use of 27 “Confidential” or “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” information and documents as evidence 28

1 at trial shall be subject to this Protective Order unless otherwise agreed to by the 2 parties or modified by the Court.

3 C. The inadvertent disclosure of "Confidential" or "Attorneys' Eyes Only" information 4 and documents shall not, under any circumstances, be deemed a waiver, in whole or 5 in part, of any party's claims of confidentiality.

6 D. The inadvertent production of any document or other information during discovery 7 in this Action shall be without prejudice to any claim that such material is 8 privileged, prohibited, or protected from disclosure as privileged or work product, 9 and no party shall be held to have waived any rights by reason of such inadvertent 10 production.

11 XIII. NON-TERMINATION

12 The termination of proceedings in this Action shall not relieve the parties from the 13 obligation of maintaining the confidentiality of all information and documents produced and 14 designated pursuant to this Protective Order, unless the parties otherwise agree, or the Court orders 15 or permits otherwise. Upon the final disposition of this Action, all information and documents, 16 including any summaries or abstracts of materials, however maintained, shall be kept completely 17 "Confidential." Counsel for either party may use the "Confidential" information and documents 18 only for the purpose of defending ethical charges or professional malpractice charges, and may not 19 use "Confidential" information or documents in any subsequent lawsuit.

20 XIV. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED MATERIALS

21 A. The inadvertent production of information that is subject to a claim of any privilege 22 or other protection as trial preparation material shall not constitute a waiver of any 23 privilege or protection, provided that the Producing Party notifies the receiving 24 party in writing of the inadvertent production as soon as practicable following the 25 Producing Party's discovery of the inadvertent production.

26 B. Following the Producing Party's written notice of the inadvertent production, the 27 receiving party shall promptly return, destroy, or delete from its databases all copies 28 of the specified information, and shall make all reasonable efforts to retrieve the

C. The receiving party shall not assert a claim or argument in this or any other court, or legal proceeding that the Producing Party's act of inadvertently producing the information constituted a waiver of the Producing Party's privilege or other protection over the information.

D. If there is a disagreement as to whether the specified information is privileged or subject to protection, the receiving party may present the information under seal to the Court for a determination. Until the court makes a determination of the privileged or protected status of the information, the receiving party shall not use in any way (including, but not limited to, using the information in depositions or at trial), nor disclose the information to other parties.
