 Date: N/A
 Time: N/A

CHRISTENSEN JAMES & MARTIN
 7440 WEST SAHARA AVE., LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89117
 PH: (702) 255-1718 § FAX: (702) 255-0871

16 Plaintiffs and the Defendants executing this Stipulated Protective Order (“Stipulating 17 Parties”), each acting by and through their respective counsel, do hereby stipulate and request the 18 Court’s entry of an order protecting the confidential nature of certain personnel and business 19 records, as well as other confidential information of the Stipulating Parties and certain non-20 parities subpoenaed to produce documents and/or deposition testimony, including but not limited
 21 to Carlos and Charlies Las Vegas, LLC, identified as: personnel, personal, medical and benefit
 22 information of current and former employees who are not parties to this litigation; proprietary 23 and/or other business information not generally known to the public or otherwise reasonably 24 ascertainable by a member of the public that would be of an economic or strategic value to 25 business competitors related to leasing arrangements and internal business operations, processes
 26 and procedures, labor/employee relations information, employee benefit contribution 27 information, employee compensation, payroll information; non-public filings and information
 28 provided to local, state and federal agencies; sensitive information implicating non-party privacy

1 rights and/or that may be protected by law, including social security numbers and dates of birth;
2 and other business information that a non-party subpoenaed to produce documents and/or 3 deposition testimony considers and identifies to the particular Stipulating Party seeking 4 production of such information in this case as constituting trade secrets, proprietary information, 5 confidential information, sensitive information and/or information not generally known to the 6 public or otherwise reasonably ascertainable by a member of the public that would be of an 7 economic or strategic value to business competitors (hereinafter “Confidential Materials”).

8 WHEREAS, the Confidential Materials sought and to be sought by the Stipulating Parties
9 in this action (the “Litigation”) may contain sensitive, confidential, financial, and/or private 10 information as set forth in the preceding paragraph; and

11 WHEREAS, the Stipulating Parties wish to proceed with seeking and/or producing 12 Confidential Materials in the course of discovery with suitable assurances of confidentiality to 13 the producing party, whether the producing party is a party to this case or a non-party.

14 NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises contained herein and 15 intending to be legally bound hereby, it is stipulated among the Stipulating Parties that the 16 above-referenced documents will be produced subject to the following provisions:

17 1. If a Stipulating Party produces to another Stipulating Party documents of their 18 own and/or documents secured from non-parties by means of a subpoena duces tecum or any 19 other means that contain Confidential Materials as defined above, that Stipulating Party may 20 designate a document, or a portion of it, as “Confidential” before producing that document to the 21 other party. Additionally, any non-party that produces documents to either Stipulating Party
22 pursuant to a subpoena duces tecum that contain Confidential Materials as defined above, may 23 designate a document, or a portion of it, as “Confidential” before producing it to the Stipulating
24 Party. Such designation shall be made by marking, stamping or typing the words “Confidential”
25 on the document at the time it is produced. Additionally, the Stipulating Parties or any non-26 parties subject to a deposition subpoena may designate deposition testimony as “Confidential” by 27 orally making this designation on the record either at the commencement of the deposition, at the 28

1 time the testimony is given, and/or before the end of that day's questioning. Following such 2 designation, the court reporter shall mark "Confidential" on the transcript or portion thereof
3 containing the "Confidential" testimony.

4 2. That the Confidential Materials, designated as discussed in Paragraph 1, be 5 utilized only for the purposes of the above-captioned matter and not be disclosed to any persons
6 other than the Stipulating Parties to this case, counsel of record for those Stipulating Parties,
7 attorneys, legal assistants, clerical personnel or experts employed by them, and/or other persons
8 to whom disclosure is necessary for purposes of this litigation;

9 3. Should any pleadings, briefs, memoranda, or filings reference and/or include as an 10 exhibit any portion of the Confidential Materials, said pleading, brief, memorandum, or filing
11 will, if practical, be redacted so as to exclude all sensitive information. The Stipulating Parties 12 agree to meet and confer with each other or with the non-party that has produced the 13 Confidential Materials in advance of any such filing to determine an appropriate method of 14 redaction. If an agreement as to redaction cannot be reached, the Confidential Materials will be 15 filed under seal, pursuant to the United States District Court District of Nevada's CM/ECF
16 system, with the Court to protect the integrity of said information;

17 a. In the event that one of the Stipulating Parties file document(s) containing 18 Confidential Materials under seal (hereinafter also, "sealed filing") as set forth in Paragraph 3
19 above, the Stipulating Parties agree that that they will file such Confidential Materials under seal
20 pursuant to LR 10-5(b) and will, pursuant to that rule, accompany the sealed filing with a motion
21 for leave to file the documents under seal (hereinafter "application to seal"). The Stipulating
22 Parties agree that after submitting a sealed filing that contains Confidential Materials produced
23 by a non-party, the Stipulating Party that filed the Confidential Materials will serve the non-party 24 by e-mail or hand delivery with a copy of the sealed filing along with any exhibits and the 25 application to seal. Thereafter, the non-party will have twenty-one (21) calendar days to file a 26 joinder to the application to seal to support the sealed filing remaining under seal, although the 27 Stipulating Parties and non-party may stipulate for or the non-party may move for an extension
28

1 of this deadline. Any application to seal and joinder thereto must meet the standards set forth in 2 Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1179-81 (9th Cir. 2006).

3 4. That upon completion of this case, either through settlement or after trial and any 4 related appeal, the Stipulating Parties shall either return to the producing party, or the non-party
5 from which the Confidential Materials originated, all originals and copies made of the above-
6 referenced Confidential Materials, whether originals or copies are held by the specific 7 Stipulating Party, their counsel, or their experts or witnesses that maybe testifying on that 8 Stipulating Party's behalf, or destroy all originals and copies; and

9 5. That any party to this case who, subsequent to the entry of this Stipulated 10 Protective Order, seeks copies of the Confidential Materials, shall be provided the above-
11 referenced documents only after such party agrees to be bound by the terms of this Stipulated 12 Protective Order by signing a copy and providing it to all other parties that have executed it.

13 6. Stipulating Parties agree that any non-party that produces Confidential Materials
14 subject to this protective order has standing to seek relief from the Court to ensure compliance 15 with requirements of this protective order.

16 7. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall be construed as an admission as 17 to the relevance, authenticity, foundation, or admissibility of any document, material, transcript, 18 or other information.

19 8. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall be deemed to preclude any party
20 from seeking and obtaining, on an appropriate showing, a modification of this Stipulated 21 Protective Order.
