30(b)(6) witnesses;

f. Supplemental Interrogatories and Requests for Production;

g. Requests for Admissions.

2. Discovery remaining to be completed:

a. Completion of depositions of party representatives and fact witnesses

3. The reason discovery has not been completed:

Both parties have filed motions for summary judgment, and each party believes this case can be resolved in its favor as a matter of law. However, the parties have continued with discovery efforts, and numerous depositions have been noticed. Due to the number of depositions, the travel schedule of counsel, and the potential that some depositions may be conducted outside of Nevada, scheduling the depositions may prove difficult. As such, the parties request additional time to complete these depositions.

4. Proposed schedule for completing remaining discovery:

Discovery cut-off:

December 29, 2014

Last day to file dispositive motions:

January 28, 2015 (30 days after discovery cut-off)

Last day to file pre-trial order and FED. R. CIV. P. 26(a)(3) disclosures:

January 28, 2015, or 30 days after decision on any dispositive motions filed after the close of discovery
