UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Jamal Damon Hendrix, Plaintiff
v.
Elizabeth Neighbors et al.,
Defendants

Case No.: 2:13-cv-01527-JAD-CWH
Amended Order Issuing *Subpoena Duces Tecum

This prisoner-civil-rights action arises out of Eighth Amendment sanitation and excessive-force violations that plaintiff Jamal Damon Hendrix alleges he suffered while a pretrial detainee at the Clark County Detention Center (“CCDC”).<sup>1</sup> Only four defendants have been successfully served.<sup>2</sup> Having reviewed the record and relevant law, the Court issues the following subpoena duces tecum on the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department (“Metro”) at its CCDC location and on the Nevada Department of Health and Human Services at its Lake’s Crossing Center.<sup>3</sup>

Plaintiff is proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis. On January 21, 2014, the court entered <sup>1</sup> See Doc. 8 at 12 (screening order allowing three Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment claims to proceed). The Court liberally construes all pro-se motions and pleadings. See Bernhardt v. L.A. Cnty., 339 F.3d 920, 925 (9th Cir. 2003).

<sup>3</sup> Lake’s Crossing Center is a facility that provides forensic mental health services in a maximum-security facility. It is part of the Nevada Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Public and Behavioral Health. See Doc. 8 at 3 n.2.

1 an order screening Hendrix’s complaint as required by 28 U.S.C. § 1915A.<sup>4</sup> The court directed
2 service on defendants Bissett, Johal, Henson, Durante, Behrens, Neighbors, O’Barr, Snowden,
3 Binko, Wooden, Coker, and Hem and ordered that summonses for the defendants be delivered to the 4 United States Marshals Service (“USMS”) for service.<sup>5</sup> Hendrix was allowed 30 days to provide the
5 USMS with USM-285 forms for service.<sup>6</sup> Within 20 days of receiving copies of the USM-285
6 forms from the USMS that showed whether service was accomplished, Hendrix was required to file
7 a notice with the Court stating which defendants were successfully served and which defendants
8 were unsuccessfully served.<sup>7</sup> If he wished to attempt service again on any unserved defendants, he
9 was directed to file a motion that identified the unserved defendant(s) and specified a more detailed
10 name and/or address for the defendant, or specified if another service method should be attempted.<sup>8</sup>

11 On May 19, 2014, the USMS returned four summonses as successfully executed.<sup>9</sup> These
12 were all for defendants who work at Lake’s Crossing Center.<sup>10</sup> Two of the unexecuted summonses
13 were for John Doe #1 and John Doe #2 at Lake’s Crossing; these were returned unexecuted.<sup>11</sup> One
14 was for corrections officer Rohan; the screening order did not order service of process as to him.<sup>12</sup>
15 The remaining five unexecuted summonses were for Metro corrections officers at CCDC: O’Barr
16 (whose name appears on his summons as a member of CERT, the correctional emergency response
17 team), Snowden (also a CERT officer), Wooden (a CERT sergeant), Hem, and Coker (also a

1 sergeant).<sup>13</sup> These summonses were returned with notes indicating that Metro would not accept
2 them and that Metro required “summons from the court with proper identifiers.”<sup>14</sup> There is no
3 indication that Metro made any effort to comply with the summons and identify these defendants.
4 Instead, it appears that Metro chose to not even attempt compliance with court-ordered service
5 because none of the CCDC defendants was identified in the wholly unspecified manner that Metro
6 apparently prefers.

7 On May 27, 2014, Hendrix filed notices of the defendants who were successfully served and
8 those who were not.<sup>15</sup> The Court liberally construes his notices as compliance with its screening-
9 order instructions regarding notice of the statute of service on the defendants. This Order examines 10 the stall in service on the six Metro employees alleged to work at the CCDC.

11 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c)(2)(A) authorizes the court to issue a subpoena duces
12 tecum for production of documents or information.<sup>16</sup> One of the rule’s purposes is “to facilitate 13 access outside the deposition procedure provided by Rule 30 to documents and other information in 14 the possession of persons who are not parties.”<sup>17</sup> “The non-party witness is subject to the same
15 scope of discovery under this rule as that person would be as a party to whom a request is addressed
16 pursuant to Rule 34.”<sup>18</sup> Based upon this authority and on the foregoing facts, the Court orders that:

- 17 1. The Clerk of Court shall issue a subpoena duces tecum to the custodian of records at 18 CCDC directing the custodian to provide the first and last names and last-known
19 addresses of the corrections officers identified in plaintiff’s complaint as: O’Barr, advisory committee’s note) (internal quotation marks omitted).

25 produce documents and tangible things or to permit an inspection.”).

1 Snowden, Wooden, Hem, and Coker.

2 2. The Clerk of Court shall deliver the subpoena duces tecum, the summons, complaint,
3 and a copy of this order to the USMS.

4 3. The USMS shall serve a subpoena duces tecum and a copy of this order on the 5 custodian of records at CCDC.

6 4. The custodian of records shall respond to the subpoena duces tecum within 14 days
7 of receipt. The custodian shall provide its response to the USMS, and the USMS
8 shall file these six defendants' first and last names and last-known addresses under 9 seal.

10 5. Within 20 days after receiving the information from CCDC, the USMS shall use the 11 information provided by CCDC to attempt to serve the summons and complaint on 12 defendants O'Barr, Snowden, Wooden, Hem, and Coker. The USMS shall provide 13 Clark with Forms USM-285 (listing the five defendants' first and last names, and not 14 listing their addresses) indicating whether service was effected.

15 6. Hendrix shall file the USM-285 forms within ten days after receiving them from the 16 USMS.

17 7. If the USMS is unable to serve these defendants, and Hendrix wishes to have service
18 again attempted, he must file a motion with the court specifying a more detailed name 19 and/or address for each defendant, or whether some other manner of service should 20 be attempted. Under Rule 4(m) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, service must 21 be accomplished within 120 days from the date this order is entered.
