

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

* * *

HUMBERTO AMEZCUA and OCTAVIOS RENE VAZQUEZ
CORNEJO,

Plaintiffs,

v.

JORDAN TRANSPORT, INC.; LOU ANNE
BOON; GERARD BOON; and FEDEX
CUSTOM CRITICAL, INC.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:13-cv-01608-APG-CWH

ORDER REGARDING TRANSCRIPTS FOR APPEAL

(ECF No. 195)

12 The plaintiffs filed an appeal and designated various portions of the district court record.
13 The defendants responded by designating transcripts of the entire trial. The defendants contend
14 that the plaintiffs have failed to properly notify them as to what issues they intend to pursue on 15 appeal, thus making it impossible for the defendants to designate less than the entire transcript.
16 ECF No. 197. The plaintiffs subsequently filed their “Certificate Regarding Transcripts” (ECF
17 No. 195) under Ninth Circuit Rule 10-3.1(f). That rule states:

18 If appellee notifies appellant that additional portions of the transcript are required
19 pursuant to Circuit Rule 10-3.1(b), appellant shall make arrangements with the 20 court reporter to pay for these additional portions unless appellant certifies that they are unnecessary to the appeal and explains why not.

21 If such a certificate is filed in the district court, with copies to the court reporter
22 and this Court, the district court shall determine which party shall pay for which portions of the transcript. . . .

23 The plaintiffs’ Certificate does not explain why the additional transcripts requested by the 24 defendants are unnecessary to the appeal. The plaintiffs say only that they “have identified and 25 ordered all of the transcripts which are germane to the issues on appeal” ECF No. 195 at 1.
26 This conclusory statement does not offer the explanation required by Rule 10-3.1(f). Nor does it
27 allow the defendants or me to evaluate each side’s request for transcripts. Accordingly, because 28

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

the plaintiffs have not met their burden under the rule, I determine that the plaintiffs shall pay for the entire transcripts.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the plaintiffs shall pay for the entire transcripts.

DATED this 6th day of September, 2017.

ANDREW P. GORDON
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE