STIPULATED CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED ORDER

BAILEY ❖ KENNEDY
 8984 SPANISH RIDGE AVENUE
 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89148
 PHONE (702) 562-8820

1 WHEREAS Plaintiffs¹ and Defendants² have agreed that the documents and information they 2 exchange in discovery during this litigation may be confidential and/or proprietary in nature;

3 WHEREAS the parties have further agreed to the entry of an order pursuant to Federal Rule of 4 Civil Procedure 26(c) and Federal Rule of Evidence 502, governing the review, copying, dissemination 5 and filing of confidential and/or proprietary documents and information to be produced by any party and 6 its respective counsel or by any non-party in the course of discovery in this matter to the extent set forth 7 below; and the parties, by, between, and among their respective counsel, having stipulated and agreed to 8 the terms set forth herein, and good cause having been shown;

9 WHEREAS, the parties wish to provide for the confidential treatment of all such Confidential 10 Material (as defined below);

11 Subject to the Court’s approval, the parties hereby stipulate and agree to the following protective 12 order:

13 I. DEFINITIONS.

14 A. DESIGNATING PARTY. “Designating Party” shall mean any Party to this litigation or any 15 non-party producing Confidential Information in connection with this litigation.

16 B. RECEIVING PARTIES. “Receiving Parties” shall mean all Parties to this litigation or any 17 non-party receiving Confidential Information in connection with this litigation.

18 C. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. “Confidential Information” shall mean all documents 19 and testimony, and all information contained therein or derived therefrom, that is:

- 20 1. Produced for or disclosed to Receiving Parties; and 21 2. Considered by the Designating Party in good faith to constitute or to contain trade 22 secrets or other confidential, proprietary, financial, or otherwise sensitive information, whether 23 embodied in physical objects, documents or the factual knowledge of persons; and 24 _____

25 ¹ “Plaintiffs” refers to Ronald Grider, Sharon Pratt, and any subsequently added named-plaintiff or class member.

26 ² “Defendants” refers to Dollar Loan Center, LLC, DLC Empire, LLC, Clark County Collection 27 Service, and Cash 1, including without limitation, their respective predecessors in interest, parents, divisions, subsidiaries, affiliates, and any present or former directors, officers, executives, employees, 28 agents, attorneys, representatives or other persons acting or purporting to act on their behalf.

1 3. Identified by the Designating Party in the manner described below in Section II.

2 D. HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. “Highly Confidential Information” is 3 Confidential Information that a Party reasonably believes in good faith to constitute highly sensitive and 4 competitive information, the disclosure or production of which to persons other than those permitted 5 under Section II.A of this Order would cause competitive harm or injury to the Designating Party that 6 could not be avoided by any less restrictive means, including, without limitation, trade secrets or other 7 confidential research, development, commercial information, and proprietary economic models and 8 formulas.

9 II. DESIGNATION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

10 A. DESIGNATION. When the Designating Party produces, discloses or otherwise reveals 11 Confidential Information, including, without limitation, Highly Confidential Information, any such 12 discovery material(s) deemed to be confidential shall be clearly designated or marked as either
13 “CONFIDENTIAL—Subject to Court Order,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—Attorneys’ Eyes 14 Only,” and treated as confidential.

15 1. Stamping or affixing the legend “CONFIDENTIAL—Subject to Court Order,” or 16 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—Attorneys’ Eyes Only,” on the cover of any multi-page 17 document, material, item or thing shall signify that all pages or parts thereof are confidential, 18 unless otherwise indicated by the Designating Party.

19 2. In the case of deposition testimony, the designation shall be made by making an 20 oral statement to such effect on the record in the course of the deposition, or by written 21 notification to all parties within thirty (30) days following receipt of the transcript of such 22 deposition and the exhibits thereto (or later with leave of Court or by agreement among the 23 parties). Prior to the expiration of such thirty (30) day period (or until a designation is made by 24 counsel, if such a designation is made in a shorter period of time), all such documents shall be 25 treated as Confidential Information.

26 3. In the case of affidavits, declarations, statements, written responses to requests for 27 production of documents, and responses to interrogatories or requests for admission, the 28 appropriate Confidentiality Legend shall be placed on each page of any affidavit, declaration,

1 statement, set of written responses to requests for production of documents, or set of responses to 2 interrogatories or requests for admissions that contains information deemed by the Designating 3 Party to be Confidential Information.

4 4. If only a part or portions of the discovery material(s) warrant protection, the 5 Designating Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected part(s) or portion(s) and 6 clearly designate or mark the same as either “CONFIDENTIAL—Subject to Court Order,” or 7 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

8 5. If the document, material, item or thing is stored or recorded electronically, and a 9 legend cannot be stamped or affixed upon it, the Designating Party may designate or mark the 10 same as either “CONFIDENTIAL—Subject to Court Order,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—11 Attorneys’ Eyes Only,” by cover letter.

12 6. If any party reasonably believes that documents produced by third parties contain 13 Confidential Information, the party may notify, in writing, all other parties of the confidential 14 nature of these documents within a reasonable period of time after the production by such third 15 party.

16 B. TIME FOR MAKING DESIGNATION. Any such designation or marking shall take place 17 prior to production or disclosure by the Designating Party; provided, however, that in the event that any 18 document, material, item or thing that may contain Confidential Information is made available for 19 inspection by a Party, there will be no waiver of confidentiality by the inspecting of such document, 20 material, item or thing before it is copied and designated or marked as either “CONFIDENTIAL—21 Subject to Court Order,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—Attorneys’ Eyes Only,” and the inspecting 22 Party shall treat the inspected material(s) as confidential unless otherwise indicated by the Party 23 permitting inspection.

24 C. REPRESENTATION BY DESIGNATING PARTY. By designating or marking discovery 25 material(s) as containing Confidential Information and/or Highly Confidential Information, the 26 Designating Party is certifying to the Court that there is a good faith basis, both in law and in fact, for 27 the designation or marking within the meaning of F.R.C.P. 26(g).
28

1 D. WITHDRAWAL OF CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATION. A designation or marking of 2 “CONFIDENTIAL—Subject to Court Order,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—Attorneys’ Eyes
3 Only,” may subsequently be withdrawn by the Designating Party upon written notice to the Receiving 4 Parties and reproduction of the formerly designated documents without the Confidentiality Legend.

5 E. DISPUTE REGARDING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATION. If at any time, a party wishes 6 for any reason to dispute a designation of a document or discovery material as “CONFIDENTIAL—7 Subject to Court Order,” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—Attorneys’ Eyes Only,” and/or object to the 8 inclusion of Confidential Information in any pleading, motion, brief, memorandum or other paper filed 9 with the Court, such party (the “Disputing Party”) shall notify the Designating Party of such dispute in 10 writing.

11 1. The Disputing Party shall identify the exact Bates number of any document in 12 dispute, and setting forth the precise nature of the dispute with regard to each such document or 13 other discovery material.

14 2. The Designating Party shall have 14 business days to respond. If the Designating 15 Party refuses to remove the confidential designation, the parties must participate in a discovery 16 dispute conference at a mutually-agreeable date and time.

17 3. If the parties are thereafter unable to amicably resolve the dispute, the Disputing 18 Party may apply by motion to the Court for a ruling as to whether the designated material may, 19 in accordance with the Stipulated Order, properly be treated as confidential, provided such 20 motion is made within 30 days from the date on which the parties, after their good faith attempt, 21 were unable to resolve the dispute, or such other time period as the parties may agree. The 22 Designating Party shall have the burden of establishing that the disputed discovery material(s)
23 contain(s) Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Information, entitled to protection 24 under this Order.

25 F. DOCUMENTS AND DISCOVERY MATERIALS PREVIOUSLY DESIGNATED CONFIDENTIAL.
26 This Order shall apply to documents and discovery materials designated as Confidential Information or 27 Highly Confidential Information prior to the entry of this Order.
28

1 III. USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

2 A. USE GENERALLY. All Confidential Information shall be used by the Parties, or non-3 parties to whom Confidential Information is produced, disclosed or otherwise made available as 4 permitted by this Order, solely for the purposes of this litigation and for no other purpose without prior 5 written approval from the Court or the prior written consent of the Parties. Except as otherwise provided 6 in this Order, Confidential Information shall not be disclosed or revealed to anyone other than as 7 provided under Section II.A of this Order and shall be handled in the manner set forth herein until such 8 designation or marking is removed by the Designating Party or by order of the Court, as well as any 9 other court which may be handling appeals in this Case.

10 B. PROCEDURE. The Receiving Parties, or any person or non-party receiving or being given 11 access to Confidential Information, must proceed as follows:

- 12 1. Store and maintain such Confidential Information in a secure manner, within their 13 exclusive possession and control;
- 14 2. Take all measures reasonably necessary and appropriate to maintain the 15 confidentiality of such information; and
- 16 3. Not permit or participate in the unauthorized production, disclosure or use of such 17 information.

18 C. LIMITED PURPOSE. Confidential Information shall be utilized by the Receiving Parties
19 and its counsel only for purposes of this litigation and for no other purposes except that the Receiving 20 Parties, if necessary, may show Confidential Information to parties identified in Section II.A. Extracts, 21 summaries, copies, abstracts, or other documents derived in whole or in part from material designated as 22 Confidential Information shall also be treated as confidential in accordance with the provisions of this 23 Stipulated Order.

24 D. FILED DOCUMENTS. Any Party seeking to file with the Court a pleading, motion, or 25 other paper containing or disclosing such Confidential Information shall request leave to file the 26 information under seal. The documents and/or information shall be filed under seal and shall bear the 27 legend:

5 Any such filing of Confidential Information shall be done in a manner consistent with federal custom
6 and procedures regarding the filing of information under seal. Moreover, said Confidential Information 7 shall be kept under seal until further order of the Court; however, such Confidential Information shall be 8 available to the Court and counsel of record, and to all other persons entitled to receive Confidential 9 Information under the terms of this Stipulated Order. Upon failure of the filing or lodging party to 10 properly file Confidential Information under seal, any other party may do so after learning of the 11 defective filing or lodging. Notice of such action shall be given to all parties.

12 IV. ACCESS TO CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

13 A. PERSONS ALLOWED ACCESS TO CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. Any information, 14 documents, materials, items or things designated or marked as containing Confidential Information shall 15 not be used or shown, disclosed, revealed, disseminated, copied, or in any way communicated to any 16 person or entity for any purpose whatsoever; provided, however, that Confidential Information may be 17 disclosed, revealed or otherwise made available to the following recipients:

- 18 1. Personnel of the Parties actually engaged in assisting in the preparation of this 19 action for trial or other proceeding herein
- 20 2. Counsel for the parties to this action and their associated attorneys, paralegals, 21 and other professional personnel (including support staff) who are directly assisting such counsel 22 in the preparation of this action for trial or other proceeding herein, and are under the supervision 23 or control of such counsel;
- 24 3. Expert witnesses or consultants (and their associated personnel and staff) retained 25 by the parties or their counsel to furnish technical or expert services in connection with this 26 action or to give testimony with respect to the subject matter of this action at the trial of this 27 action or other proceeding herein;

- 1 4. Accountants, auditors or a non-party to whom a party is legally obligated or to
- 2 whom it has a pre-existing contractual obligation in the ordinary course of business to make
- 3 disclosure of Confidential Information;
- 4 5. The Court, court personnel, jurors, and alternate jurors;
- 5 6. An officer before whom a deposition is taken, including stenographic reporters
- 6 and any necessary secretarial, clerical, or other personnel of such officer;
- 7 7. Outside photocopying, graphic production services, or litigation support services;
- 8 8. Trial and deposition witnesses; and
- 9 9. Any other person or non-party as to whom the Parties to this Order agree in
- 10 writing may be given access to any discovery material(s) containing Confidential Information.

11 B. PERSONS ALLOWED ACCESS TO HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

12 Notwithstanding the foregoing, only recipients designated under sub-sections (2), (3), (5), (6), (7), and 13 (8) of Section V.A may receive or be given access to Highly Confidential Information, unless otherwise 14 ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, and the remaining provisions of 15 this Paragraph not inconsistent with this restriction shall apply with respect to disclosing, revealing or 16 otherwise making available Highly Confidential Information to such persons or non-parties. A Party 17 desiring to disclose or reveal any information, document, material, item or thing designated or marked as 18 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—Attorneys’ Eyes Only” to an expert, advisor or consultant shall first 19 obtain from the expert, advisor or consultant a signed copy of the Endorsement of Stipulation and 20 Protective Order, attached hereto as Exhibit A, and an identification of their current employment. A 21 copy of said undertaking and the identification of the expert, advisor or consultant and their current 22 employment shall be served upon counsel for the Designating Party. The Designating Party shall then 23 have five (5) business days to serve a written objection to disclosure or a request for further information.
24 Any written objection shall state with specificity the reason(s) for such objection. If counsel for the 25 Designating Party requests further information or objects within five business days, there shall be no
26 disclosure of Highly Confidential Information to such expert, advisor or consultant, except by agreement 27 of the Parties or by order of the Court. If a request for further information or an objection to disclosure 28 is made within the five day period, counsel for the Parties shall meet and confer to reach an agreement.

1 If an agreement is not reached and for good cause shown, the Party proposing the expert, advisor or 2 consultant may file a motion seeking permission to make the disclosure of Highly Confidential
3 Information. On any such motion, the Designating Party shall bear the burden of showing why 4 disclosure to the expert, advisor or consultant should be precluded.

5 C. ENDORSEMENT OF STIPULATION AND PROTECTIVE ORDER. All persons or entities 6 obtaining, receiving or being given access to Confidential Information in accordance with the terms and 7 conditions of this Order consent to the continuing jurisdiction of this Court for the purpose(s) of 8 enforcing this Order and/or remedying any violations thereof. Prior to receiving or being given access 9 to Confidential Information, any person or non-party falling with sub-sections (3), (4), or (9) of Section 10 IV.A, and any former officer, director, or employee of a Party, shall be given a copy of this Order and 11 shall execute a copy of the Endorsement of Stipulation and Protective Order, attached hereto as Exhibit 12 A. Counsel providing access to any person or non-party falling with sub-sections (3), (4), or (9) of 13 Section IV.A shall retain copies of the executed Endorsement of Stipulation and Protective Order(s) and 14 provide the same to counsel for the Designating Party upon request; provided, however, that a Party
15 need not provide to counsel for the Designating Party executed copies of the Endorsement of Stipulation
16 and Protective Order(s) for any expert(s), consultant(s) or advisor(s) retained in this Case, if at all 17 requested, until the close of discovery, and any expert(s), consultant(s) or advisor(s) retained by a Party 18 to testify in this Case shall attach a copy of the executed Endorsement of Stipulation and Protective 19 Order to his or her final report. Execution of Exhibit A by any such person or non-party operates as a 20 formal acknowledgement of the terms and conditions of this Order and is binding upon the person or 21 non-party in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Order.

22 D. NOTICE OF INTENT TO DISCLOSE. The Party intending to disclose or reveal certain 23 Confidential Information to any person or non-party falling with sub-sections (f) or (h) of this 24 Paragraph, and/or any former officer, director, or employee of a Party falling within sub-section (c) of 25 this Paragraph, shall provide the Designating Party, at least ten (10) business days prior to the intended 26 disclosure or revelation, with the following: (i) the identify of each such person or non-party; (ii) the 27 specific Confidential Information intended to be disclosed or revealed; (iii) the general purpose for 28 making the disclosure or revelation; (iv) the date which the disclosure or revelation is intended to be

1 made; and (v) a copy of an executed Endorsement of Stipulation and Protective Order. The Designating 2 Party may object in writing prior to the disclosure or revelation of such Confidential Information to any 3 person or non-party designated in sub-sections (f) or (h) of this Paragraph, and/or to any former officer, 4 director, or employee of a Party falling within sub-section (c) of this Paragraph; provided, however, that 5 the Designating Party shall be deemed to have consented to such disclosure or revelation if it fails to 6 object in writing before the date of the intended disclosure or revelation. If the objection cannot be 7 resolved informally between the Parties in accordance with the meet-and-confer process set forth in 8 Paragraph 12 of this Order, the Designating Party shall have ten (10) business days from the initial date 9 of the intended disclosure or revelation to move this Court for an order barring the individual from 10 receiving or being given access to the specific Confidential Information. No disclosure or revelation 11 will be made to the challenged individual until the objection is resolved either consensually between the 12 Parties or by order of the Court.

13 V. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF CONFIDENTIAL
14 INFORMATION WITHOUT A DESIGNATION.

15 A. In the event a Designating Party inadvertently produces documents or information that it 16 considers to be or to contain Confidential Information without having first designated the material as 17 such, the Designating Party may so designate it. Within thirty (30) days of learning of the inadvertent 18 production of such material (or later with leave of Court or by agreement among the parties), the 19 Designating Party must give written notice to all parties that it claims that the material is or contains 20 Confidential Information, in whole or in part. Upon such notice, the Designating Party shall provide all 21 parties who have received a copy of such materials with a replacement copy marked with the 22 Confidential Information designation. All parties receiving the replacement copy shall promptly destroy, 23 sequester, or return to the Designating Party the unmarked copy of the material.

24 VI. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS.

25 A. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Order shall not be construed:

26 1. To preclude a Party or its counsel of record from disclosing, designating or 27 making use of any document(s) or information which was lawfully in its possession prior to the 28 approval by the Court of this Order and/or production or disclosure by the Designating Party;

1 2. To apply to any document(s) or information that have been or become part of the 2 public domain by publication or otherwise and not due to any unauthorized act or omission on 3 the part of the Receiving Parties; or

4 3. To apply to any document(s) or information that, under law, have been declared 5 to be in the public domain.

6 B. Producing or receiving documents and other information in accordance with the 7 Stipulated Order or failing to object thereto, shall not:

8 1. Constitute a waiver by any person or party of any right to object to or seek a 9 further protective order with respect to any request for information in this or in any other action;

10 2. Operate as an admission by any party that any particular documents or other 11 information comprise or reflect trade secrets, proprietary information or any other type of 12 confidential information;

13 3. Prejudice or waive in any way the rights of the parties to object to the production 14 of documents they consider not subject to discovery for any reason other than the confidentiality 15 of the documents;

16 4. Prejudice or waive in any way the rights of any party to object to the authenticity, 17 relevancy, or admissibility into evidence of any document, testimony, or other evidence subject 18 to the Stipulated Order; or

19 5. Prejudice or waive in any way any claim or defense with respect to the 20 proceeding.

21 C. Nothing in this Stipulated Order shall prevent any party from using or disclosing its own 22 documents or information, or from using or disclosing any information it otherwise has received from 23 any source other than a Designating Party.

24 D. In the event that disclosure of any Confidential Information is sought from anyone who is 25 subject to this Stipulated Order pursuant to a lawful subpoena, demand by governmental authority or 26 other legal process, such person or entity shall, upon receipt of such request, notify the Designating 27 Party within seven (7) days of the request for disclosure. The Designating Party may then seek to 28 prevent disclosure by filing a motion for protective order or take other appropriate action and, if so, the

1 Confidential Information shall not be disclosed until the Designating Party has a reasonable opportunity 2 to file such motion or take such action.

3 E. This Stipulated Order may be modified or amended by agreement of all parties, subject to 4 approval by the Court, or by order of the Court for good cause shown.

5 F. This Stipulated Order shall not act as a shield for any person or entity to refuse to 6 disclose any information that it is, by law, rule, and/or court order, obligated to disclose.

7 G. This Stipulated Order shall not be interpreted in a manner that would violate any 8 applicable canons of ethics or codes of professional responsibility. Nothing in this Stipulated Order 9 shall prohibit or interfere with the ability of counsel for any party, or of experts specially retained for 10 this case, to represent any individual, corporation, or other entity adverse to any party of its affiliate(s) in 11 connection with any other matters.

12 H. In the event that any person or entity subject to this Stipulated Order violates or gives 13 reason to believe that he or she will violate this Stipulated Order, the aggrieved party shall be entitled to 14 petition the Court for an appropriate remedy.

15 VII. DURATION OF ORDER.

16 A. Absent prior written consent of all Parties, the terms and conditions of this Order shall 17 survive and remain in effect after the termination of this Case, including any appeals, except that:

18 1. There shall be no restriction on documents that are used as exhibits in Court 19 (unless such exhibits were filed under seal); and 20 2. A party may seek the written permission of the Designating Party or further order 21 of the Court with respect to dissolution or modification of this Stipulated Order.

22 B. This Order shall be binding upon the Parties, their counsel, successors, executors, 23 personal representatives, administrators, heirs, legal representatives, assigns, subsidiaries, divisions, 24 employees, agents, independent contractors, or other persons or entities over which the Parties have 25 control or which purport to act on the Parties' behalves.

26 C. The Court shall retain continuing jurisdiction to enforce this Order, make any such 27 amendment(s), modification(s) and/or alteration(s) to this Order as may be appropriate, and/or resolve 28

1 any dispute(s) arising out of or concerning the use, production and/or disclosure of Confidential
2 Information as provided under this Order.
