(First Request)

Defendants.

18 Bank of America, N.A., and Dignified Transition Solutions move for the court to continue 19 the April 16, 2015, hearing on its order to show cause [ECF No. 51]. Defendants also move for 20 expedited relief because the court cannot decide this motion prior to April 16 if it considers it on the 21 normal schedule under LR 7-2.

22 April 16 presents a scheduling conflict because Ariel Stern, one of the lawyers for the 23 defendants, is scheduled to appear for an oral argument in San Francisco before the Ninth Circuit on 24 that date. The oral argument is set in Closson v. Bank of America, Case No. 13-15317. Apart from 25 the appellate argument on April 16, defendants' counsel are scheduled for out-of-state business travel
26 between April 29, 2015 and May 7, 2015.

27 Given the conflict with April 16 and April 29 through May 7, defendants request that the 28 court continue the hearing to the week of April 20, or for a date after May 7.
