7	Disclosures Made Pursuant to LR 26-1 and FRCP
8	26(a)(1)

8 In addition to the foregoing, the depositions of Defendants Lorraine Forston,
9 Robert Gunnoe, Dr. Lawrence Sands, Robert Newton, Amy Irani, Susan LaBay-
10 Leverton, Rose Henderson, Jacquelyn Raiche-Curl have been conducted along with 11 former employee Steven Goode. (Mr. Goode’s deposition will continue on April 20 and 12 21.) The depositions of the other individual Defendants and the Plaintiffs are in the 13 process of being scheduled as well as disclosure and ultimately depositions of expert 14 witnesses.

15
16 2. Specific description of discovery that needs to be completed:

17 Plaintiffs and Defendants will retain and disclose expert witnesses, rebuttal expert
18 disclosures, depositions of Plaintiffs and remaining Defendants, deposition of the person(s)
19 most knowledgeable for Defendants, depositions of any remaining percipient witnesses; and 20 additional Interrogatories, Requests for Admission and Requests for Production to Plaintiff
21 and Defendant (as necessary).

22
23 3. The reasons why discovery cannot be completed within the current 24 deadline:

25 Due to the large number of depositions that must occur in this case and handling 26 scheduling conflicts among the parties and their counsel, including several of the 27 individual parties now living out of state, not all depositions will be able to be scheduled
28 within sufficient time to allow for preparation before the current close of discovery

1 deadline. Additionally, the parties have served on each other additional written discovery
 2 that will need to be responded-to and processed prior to some of the remaining depositions
 3 that will need to be completed. It will be beneficial to have completed the remaining
 4 depositions prior to disclosure of experts and prior to determining whether any third-party
 5 witness depositions will need to occur. Additionally, as of Plaintiffs' 22nd supplement to 6 their initial disclosures, they have identified several hundred witnesses and have produced
 7 approximately 21,000 pages of documents. Completing depositions of the parties will be 8 important to further narrow down those witnesses and documents.
 9
