

1 The Court finds these factors are present here. First, the motion for summary judgment is 2 potentially case-dispositive as it challenges all pending claims. Second, the motion for summary
3 judgment can be decided without additional discovery. Third, the Court has taken a preliminary 4 peek at the merits of the motion for summary judgment, which raises arguments regarding 5 jurisdiction, abstention, claim and issue preclusion, and immunity. In reviewing these arguments, 6 the Court believes the motion will be granted.<sup>1</sup>

7 Accordingly, the motion to stay all discovery is hereby GRANTED. In the event that the 8 motion for summary judgment is not granted in full, the parties shall submit a joint status report to 9 the undersigned within 14 days of the issuance of the order resolving the motion for summary
10 judgment. That status report shall indicate what discovery needs to be completed and shall provide a 11 proposed plan for completing it.

12 IT IS SO ORDERED.

27 <sup>1</sup> Conducting this preliminary peek puts the undersigned in an awkward position because the 28 assigned district judge who will decide the motion to dismiss may have a different view of its merits.
See Tradebay, 278 F.R.D. at 603. The undersigned’s “preliminary peek” at the merits of that motion is not intended to prejudice its outcome. See id.
