UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

RANDY JOHNSON,

Plaintiff(s),

v.

JAMES COX, et al.,

Defendant(s).

Case No. 2:14-CV-1326 JCM (NJK)

ORDER

Presently before the court are Magistrate Judge Koppe’s amended report and recommendation that defendants’ motion to strike the amended complaint be granted in part. (ECF No. 56). Pro se plaintiff Randy Johnson filed an objection (ECF No. 65), and defendants filed a response to the objection. (ECF No. 66).

I. Background

On August 12, 2015, plaintiff filed a second amended complaint that did not comply with instructions provided by the court. (ECF No. 23). The court again ordered plaintiff to file a second amended complaint that corrected the names of two defendants but to make no additional changes. (See ECF No. 30) (“Hence, the second amended complaint must be identical to the amended complaint except for the corrections to those two names. The second amended complaint must also be complete in itself, and should not refer back to any previous complaints or otherwise fail to properly plead each claim that is before the court”). The court further warned that the failure to comply “may result in the Court ordering the case to proceed under the previously-screened amended complaint.” Id.

Thereafter, plaintiff filed another purported second amended complaint that again failed to comply with the court’s instructions. (ECF No. 36). The court once again struck that second

1 amended complaint and provided guidance to plaintiff on how he could comply with the court's
2 order: "The Court hereby INSTRUCTS the Clerk's Office to mail Plaintiff a copy of his first
3 amended complaint. (Docket No. 5). Plaintiff is instructed to write on the first page of that
4 document the words "Second Amended Complaint," and to change the names of the two relevant
5 defendants throughout that document. Plaintiff shall otherwise make no changes to the document.
6 Plaintiff shall then file the Second Amended Complaint no later than December 4, 2015". (ECF
7 No. 39 at 1). The court again warned plaintiff of the consequences for non-compliance: "This is
8 Plaintiff's final chance to comply. The failure to comply with this order will result in the case
9 moving forward based on the first amended complaint." Id.

10 Plaintiff filed another second amended complaint. (ECF No. 40). This filing prompted 11 defendants to file a motion to strike that second amended complaint for failing to adhere to the 12 court's instructions. (ECF No. 49). That is the motion currently before the court.

13 II. Legal Standard

14 This court "may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations
15 made by the magistrate." 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Where a party timely objects to a magistrate 16 judge's report and recommendation, the court is required to "make a de novo determination of 17 those portions of the [report and recommendation] to which objection is made." 28 U.S.C. §
18 636(b)(1). Where a party fails to object, however, the court is not required to conduct "any review
19 at all . . . of any issue that is not the subject of an objection." Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 149
20 (1985).

21 III. Discussion

22 In her report and recommendation, Magistrate Judge Koppe found that this case should proceed
23 based the claims in the amended complaint that were deemed sufficiently pled to survive screening
24 but dismiss the claims against the misidentified defendants. (ECF No. 56). Plaintiff's objection
25 states that he did not understand the full meaning of the court's instructions. (ECF No. 66).
26 Furthermore, plaintiff claims that because of his pro se status and time spent in administrative 27 segregation, adoption of the report would be unduly prejudicial. (Id.) In their response, defendants
28 urge the court to adopt the magistrate judge's recommendation. (ECF No. 66).

1 The court agrees with Magistrate Judge Koppe's thorough analysis of the issues put forth in
2 defendants' motion to strike plaintiff's second amended complaint. The court provided plaintiff
3 three chances to comply with court orders and went so far as to outline the steps plaintiff could
4 take to ensure compliance. Plaintiff was unable or unwilling to do so. As the magistrate judge
5 noted, in plaintiff's most recent attempt, certain aspects of that pleading are similar to the amended
6 complaint, but plaintiff also made significant changes to his allegations. (ECF No. 40). Therefore,
7 after reviewing Magistrate Judge Koppe's report, plaintiff's objections, the defendants' responses,
8 and the underlying briefs de novo, the court adopts the report and recommendation in full.

9 IV. Conclusion

10 Accordingly,

11 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the report and 12 recommendation of Magistrate Judge Koppe, (ECF No. 56), are ADOPTED in their entirety.

13 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that that the case proceed based on the claims alleged in the 14 amended complaint (ECF No. 5) except that the claims against defendants James Baca and Bill
15 Donat (previously misidentified as "Isidro Baca" and "B. Donae") be dismissed.

16 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defendants' motion to strike (ECF No. 49) is GRANTED in 17 part, consistent with the foregoing.

18 DATED August 2, 2016.
