v.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Billy Cepero,

Petitioner

Brian Williams, et al.,

Respondents

2:14-cv-01397-JAD-PAL

Order [ECF Nos. 26, 27]

I dismissed this action with prejudice because it was untimely, and I declined to issue a certificate of appealability.¹ Now petitioner Billy Cepero asks me to reconsider my dismissal,² and he moves for an extension of time to file a petition for a certificate of appealability.³ I deny the time-extension motion for two reasons: (1) Cepero has not yet filed a notice of appeal, and
(2) I already declined to issue a certificate of appealability. If Cepero wants to appeal my decision, he needs to ask the court of appeals for a certificate of appealability, not me.

I also deny Cepero's motion for reconsideration because he has not demonstrated new evidence, fraud, or a mistake by the court. Cepero merely repeats the same arguments that I already considered and rejected. His contentions are more appropriate for appellate review than a motion for reconsideration.⁴

It is unclear whether Cepero is represented by counsel because Cepero filed his most recent motions pro se. The court will send a copy of this order to Cepero at the address he has given in another civil action.
