UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

THOMAS WALKER, et al.,	)
Plaintiffs,	)	Case No. 2:14-cv-01475-JAD-NJK
vs.	)	ORDER DENYING MOTION TO COMPEL
NORTH LAS VEGAS POLICE DEPT., et al.,	)	(Docket No. 24)
Defendants.	)

16 Pending before the Court is Plaintiffs’ Motion to Compel. Docket No. 24. The Court finds the 17 motion to have a threshold defect that requires that it be DENIED without prejudice as discussed more
18 fully below.

19 The Court’s initial inquiry regarding a motion to compel is whether the movant made adequate
20 meet and confer efforts. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 37(a)(2)(B) requires that a “party bringing a
21 motion to compel discovery must include with the motion a certification that the movant has in good
22 faith conferred or attempted to confer with the nonresponsive party.” Similarly, Local Rule 26-7(b)
23 provides that “[d]iscovery motions will not be considered unless a statement of the movant is attached
24 thereto certifying that, after personal consultation and sincere effort to do so, the parties have not been
25 able to resolve the matter without Court action.”

26 Judges in this District have previously held that “personal consultation” means the movant must 27 “personally engage in two-way communication with the nonresponding party to meaningfully discuss 28 each contested discovery dispute in a genuine effort to avoid judicial intervention.” ShuffleMaster, Inc.

1 v. Progressive Games, Inc., 170 F.R.D. 166, 171 (D. Nev. 1996). The consultation obligation
2 “promote[s] a frank exchange between counsel to resolve issues by agreement or to at least narrow and
3 focus matters in controversy before judicial resolution is sought.” Nevada Power v. Monsanto, 151
4 F.R.D. 118, 120 (D.Nev.1993). To meet this obligation, parties must “treat the informal negotiation
5 process as a substitute for, and not simply a formal prerequisite to, judicial review of discovery
6 disputes.” Id. This is done when the parties “present to each other the merits of their respective
7 positions with the same candor, specificity, and support during the informal negotiations as during the
8 briefing of discovery motions.” Id. To ensure that parties comply with these requirements, movants
9 must file certifications that “accurately and specifically convey to the court who, where, how, and when
10 the respective parties attempted to personally resolve the discovery dispute.” ShuffleMaster, 170 F.R.D.
11 at 170 (emphasis added). The Court may look beyond the certification made to determine whether a
12 sufficient meet-and-confer actually took place. See, e.g., F.D.I.C. v. 26 Flamingo, LLC, 2013 WL
13 2558219, *1 (D. Nev. June 10, 2013) (quoting De Leon v. CIT Small Business Lending Corp., 2013 WL
14 1907786 (D. Nev. May 7, 2013)).

15 The Court has reviewed the pending certification of counsel. Docket No. 24-1. That 16 certification appears to provide only a description of written communications to opposing counsel,
17 which are not sufficient to satisfy the “personal consultation” requirement. See ShuffleMaster, 170
18 F.R.D. at 172 (exchange of letters does not satisfy meet and confer requirements). Accordingly, the 19 motion to compel is hereby DENIED without prejudice.

20 IT IS SO ORDERED.

21 DATED: September 2, 2015.
