Doc. 21 Sanders v. Williams et al. 1 2 3 4 5 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT 6 DISTRICT OF NEVADA 7 8 DEBARON SANDERS, 9 Petitioner, 2:14-cv-01966-JCM-NJK 10 VS. ORDER 11 BRIAN WILLIAMS, SR., et al., 12 Respondents. 13 14 15 In this habeas corpus action, brought pro se by Nevada prisoner Debaron Sanders, the 16 respondents filed a motion to dismiss (ECF No. 13) on December 2, 2015, asserting that Sanders' habeas 17 petition was untimely filed, and is therefore barred by the statute of limitations, and that one claim in 18 his petition fails to state a claim cognizable in this federal habeas corpus action. Sanders is due to 19 respond to the motion to dismiss by January 19, 2016. See Order entered November 18, 2015 (ECF No. 20 12). 21 On December 16, 2015, Sanders filed motions requesting that the time for him to respond 22 to the motion to dismiss be extended (ECF No. 19) and requesting appointment of counsel (ECF 23 No. 20). Respondents did not respond to those motions. 24 In light of the severity of Sanders' convictions, the length of the prison sentences he is serving, 25 the complexity of his case -- particularly, at this point, the complexity of the issues raised by the statute 26 of limitations defense -- and his apparent lack of sophistication regarding the law, and considering the information provided with Sanders' application to proceed in forma pauperis (ECF No. 1), the court will grant Sanders' motion for appointment of counsel (ECF No. 20).

The court will also grant Sanders' motion for an extension of time for the response to the motion to dismiss (ECF No. 19), and will suspend that response until after counsel appears for Sanders.

Therefore, the Federal Public Defender for the District of Nevada (FPD) will be appointed to represent Sanders in this case. If the FPD is unable to represent Sanders, due to a conflict of interest or other reason, then alternate counsel will be located and appointed. In either case, counsel will represent petitioner in all federal-court proceedings relating to this matter, unless allowed to withdraw.

IT IS ORDERED that petitioner's motion for appointment of counsel (ECF No. 20) is GRANTED. The Federal Public Defender for the District of Nevada (FPD) is appointed to represent petitioner.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the clerk of the court shall electronically serve on the FPD a copy of this order, together with a copy of the petition for writ of habeas corpus (ECF No. 6). The FPD shall have 30 days from the date of entry of this order to file a notice of appearance, or to indicate to the court its inability to represent the petitioner in these proceedings.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that petitioner's motion for extension of time to respond to the motion to dismiss (ECF No. 19) is GRANTED. Petitioner's response to the motion to dismiss is suspended, pending the appointment of counsel to represent him. After counsel has appeared for petitioner, the court will set a new deadline for petitioner to respond to the motion to dismiss.

Dated January 25, 2016.
