16 WHEREAS, the United States Attorney for the District of Nevada issued Civil 17 Investigative Demand No. 2014-06 (the CID), served the CID on the Law Offices of Steven 18 Burris on October 24, 2014, and served copies of the CID on other parties to the litigation known
 19 as In re Bracco Diagnostics Litigation, No. A-12-665252-C (Clark Cty., Nev.) (the Bracco 20 Litigation) on October 21, 2014, as part of an investigation by the United States Attorney's 21 Office for the District of Nevada (the USAO) into whether any person or entity submitted false
 22 claims or made false statements in violation of the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. § 3729 et seq., in 23 connection with the operations of Nevada Heart & Vascular Center (Resh) LLP (NH&V); and,

24 WHEREAS, the parties whose attorneys received a copy of the CID, believe that some 25 documents responsive to the CID may contain trade secrets, proprietary financial or commercial 26 material, or other sensitive information which are protected by a Protective Order entered in the 27 Bracco Litigation on May 21, 2013, and supplemented on July 17, 2013 (the Bracco Order); and

28 ///

1           WHEREAS, it is stipulated and agreed that this Protective Order applies to all parties to 2 the Bracco Litigation and the United States of America, including but not limited to the USAO, 3 and sets forth the terms that will govern the disclosure and use of documents responsive to the 4 CID;

5           NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED:

6           1.       This Order shall apply to all documents responsive to the CID that have been 7 designated as CONFIDENTIAL pursuant to paragraph 1 of the Bracco Order by any party to the 8 Bracco Litigation (the Designated Material).

9           2.       Designated Material shall be maintained as confidential and shall not be used or 10 disclosed for any purpose other than conducting the above-described investigation and any 11 related proceeding, except as provided herein or as otherwise may be required by law. In 12 addition, the United States shall handle all documents, whether a document is designated as 13 Designated Material or not, in the manner required by 31 U.S.C. § 3733(i) through (k).

14          3.       If a portion of any pleading, motion, or other document filed with the Court in any 15 related proceeding contains Designated Material, that portion shall be filed and kept under seal 16 until further order of the Court. Testimony at any deposition or other proceeding regarding 17 Designated Material may also be designated as Designated Material by making a statement to 18 that effect on the record at the deposition or other proceeding. Arrangements shall be made with 19 the court reporter taking and transcribing the deposition or other proceeding to bind and label
20 separately those portions of the transcripts containing the Designated Material.

21          4.       In the event of a request by a third party (excluding Congress or an agency of the 22 United States) for disclosure of Designated Material, the United States will protect the 23 Designated Material from disclosure to the fullest extent permitted by law. All parties will be 24 given as much notice as is practicable prior to the disclosure of Designated Material to a third 25 party who requests disclosure under any provision of law.

26          5.       Nothing contained in this Order shall prevent or in any way limit or impair the 27 right of the United States to disclose Designated Material to persons whose assistance is required 28 to conduct the above-described investigation and any related proceeding, including but not

1 limited to employees, agents, consultants, or prospective witnesses; provided, however, that any 2 such person or his/her/its counsel to whom Designated Material is disclosed, excluding 3 employees of the United States, first shall be advised of the terms of this Order and shall be 4 required to execute a written acknowledgment that such person or counsel has read the Order and 5 agrees to be bound by it.

6         6. Nothing contained in this Order shall prevent or in any way limit or impair the 7 right of the United States to disclose to any agency or department of the United States, or any 8 division of any such agency or department, Designated Material relating to any potential 9 violation of law or regulation, or relating to any matter within that agency's jurisdiction, nor shall 10 anything contained in this Order prevent or in any way limit or impair the use of any such 11 Designated Material by an agency in any proceeding relating to any potential violation of law or 12 regulation, or relating to any matter within that agency's jurisdiction; provided, however, that the 13 agency shall maintain the confidentiality of Designated Material consistent with the terms of this 14 Order.

15         7. Nothing contained in this Order shall prevent or in any way limit or impair the 16 right of the United States to provide any document or information to the Congress pursuant to a 17 Congressional request; provided, however, that the United States shall notify the Congressional 18 entity requesting the documents that the Designated Material has been produced pursuant to this 19 Order and shall, if there are no objections interposed by the Congressional entity requesting the 20 documents, use reasonable efforts to notify all parties of the Congressional entity's request and 21 the United States' response thereto.

22         8. Nothing contained in this Order shall preclude the United States from contesting
23 the designation of any document as Designated Material. If the United States intends to contest 24 any document designated as Designated Material, it shall notify the affected party in writing at 25 least ten business days prior to disclosing that document in any public proceeding or publicly
26 filed document. Any party to the Bracco litigation shall have the option to file a petition for a 27 protective order with a court of competent jurisdiction demonstrating that there is good cause to 28 designate the document at issue as Designated Material. If a timely petition for a protective

1 order is filed, the document at issue will be treated as Designated Material until a final, non-2 appealable order has been entered or until the time to appeal an order has expired.

3 9. The fact that documents responsive to the CID are produced shall not be used,
4 offered or argued in any proceeding as a basis or reason why any party to the Bracco Litigation
5 shall be required to provide the same or similar documents to any other agency, as constituting a 6 waiver of any applicable privilege, or as constituting a waiver of the right to object to disclosure
7 of other documents or information. However, the United States shall retain the right to contest 8 the assertion of any such privilege or objection.

9 10. At the close of the above-described investigation, all documents designated 10 Designated Material will be destroyed unless any party to the Bracco Litigation requests their 11 return or they are to be used by any agency of the United States in any action of any kind;
12 provided, however, that the USAO shall have the right to maintain one copy of such documents
13 for its Master Files.
