After being declared a vexatious litigant in his home state of California, pro se plaintiff Cedric Greene moved his litigation to Nevada, where he has filed ten cases¹ just this year. By this case, Greene seeks to expunge a conviction from his California state criminal record.² Magistrate Judge Peggy Leen granted Greene pauper status and screened his complaint.³ She finds that this court lacks jurisdiction over this action because California law requires Greene to file his petition in the superior court for the county in which he was convicted if he wishes to expunge a conviction, and “Greene does not identify any federal or state statute that would authorize this Court to provide the relief he requests.”⁴ She also concludes that venue is not proper in Nevada because Greene, a resident of Los Angeles County, California, seeks relief that “only the Superior Court of that county

3 Discussion

4 “No review is required of a magistrate judge’s report and recommendation unless objections 5 are filed,”⁸ and this district’s Local Rule IB 3-2(b) requires de novo consideration of specific 6 objections only.⁹ Greene concedes the venue issue and argues only that “Civil Rule 102” counsels 7 the court to keep the case in Nevada.¹⁰ The rule he quotes is Federal Rule of Evidence 102, which 8 does nothing to establish either this court’s subject-matter jurisdiction or Nevada as the proper venue 9 for this purely California matter. Having reviewed Magistrate Judge Leen’s findings and 10 recommendation—along with Greene’s objection—de novo, I agree with Judge Leen’s findings and 11 likewise conclude that this court lacks subject-matter jurisdiction over Greene’s lawsuit and that the 12 District of Nevada is an improper venue for this litigation.¹¹ as Objections.”); cf. Carrillo v. Cate, 2009 WL 2575888, at *1 (S.D. Cal. Aug. 17, 2009) (citing Burkey, and nothing that “generalized objections” do not require de novo review).

23 ¹⁰ Doc. 8 at 3.

24 ¹¹ Portions of Greene’s objection are purportedly raised by his unnamed “legal assistant.” See 25 Doc. 8 at 1-3. There is no evidence that Greene’s “legal assistant” has been admitted to practice law, 26 nor has the “legal assistant” made a formal appearance on Greene’s behalf. Because I am dismissing the case on other grounds, I inquire no further into whether Greene’s “legal assistant” has engaged in 27 the unauthorized practice of law in violation of this district’s Local Rule IA 10-7, such that I should refer her to the Nevada Attorney General’s office for potential criminal prosecution. See Guerin v.
Guerin, 993 P.2d 1256, 1258 (Nev. 2000) (citing NRS § 7.285).

Conclusion

Accordingly, with good cause appearing and no reason for delay, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that Magistrate Judge Leen’s report and recommendation [Doc. 4] is ADOPTED in its entirety, Greene’s objections [Doc. 8] are overruled, and this case is DISMISSED with prejudice. The Clerk of Court is instructed to enter judgment accordingly and close this case.
