on April 10, 15, and 16, 2015, or in the order I issued on May 1, 2015. These restrictions do not apply to new status quo violations, if any, that did not exist before May 1, 2015.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendants, their officers, agents, employees, and members, and all persons acting in concert or participation with them, shall immediately take all reasonable steps within their power to prevent the aforesaid actions and to refrain from continuing the aforesaid actions, if commenced.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the ten thousand dollar ($10,000) bond posted by Allegiant as security for the Temporary Restraining Order shall serve as security for this Preliminary Injunction. The amount is appropriate because the evidence indicates that Teamsters will suffer only minimal, if any, damage by the issuance of this preliminary injunction.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this injunction has no bearing on the parties' respective rights to engage in economic self-help once the parties exhaust the Railway Labor Act's major dispute resolution procedures.

DATED this 7th day of May.

ANDREW P. GORDON
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
