25) MOTION TO EXTEND
26) DISPOSITIVE MOTION
27) DEADLINE
28) (First Request)

29 Defendant, Delta Air Lines, Inc. ("Delta"), hereby moves this Court for an order 30 extending the dispositive motion deadline until 30 days after both of the following 31 events have occurred: (1) the Court has ruled on Delta's Motion to Enforce Settlement 32 Agreement (ECF No. 57) (the "Motion to Enforce") and (2) if the Court denies the 33 Motion to Enforce, a ruling has been made on Delta's Motion to Dismiss Second 34 Amended Complaint (ECF No. 40) (the "Motion to Dismiss"). This is the first 35 requested extension of this deadline.

36 This Motion is made and based on the pleadings and papers on file herein, 37 together with the following Memorandum of Points and Authorities.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 The present dispositive motion deadline in this case is October 5, 2016. On May 3 25, 2016, Delta filed its Motion to Dismiss, which if granted, would dispose of most, 4 but not all, of the Plaintiffs' claims.

5 Delta contends that it reached a settlement of this case on September 1, but last 6 week, learned that one or more of the Plaintiffs have reneged on the agreement to settle.
7 Consequently, Delta filed the Motion to Enforce on September 21.

8 Delta should not have to bear the cost of preparing dispositive motions as to five 9 Plaintiffs, only to have the Court eventually find that the parties have an enforceable 10 settlement agreement, making the motions moot. Even if the Court were to ultimately 11 deny the Motion to Enforce, it would be more efficient to delay the filing of dispositive
12 motions until after the Court has ruled on the Motion to Dismiss.

13 For example, Delta has moved to dismiss the ADA claims of Plaintiff, James 14 Malcolm, based on his failure to state plausible claims for relief under the standards set 15 forth in Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662 (2009), and Bell Atlantic Corporation v.
16 Twombly, 550 U.S. 544 (2007). Even if the Court were to find that these claims are not 17 subject to dismissal under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6), Delta believes there are undisputed 18 facts which would entitle Delta to summary judgment on these claims as a matter of 19 law. However, Delta should not be required to undertake the expense of moving for 20 summary judgment on claims which may end up being dismissed by the Court pursuant 21 to the Motion to Dismiss. Delta believes it would be more economical for all concerned 22 if, to the extent necessary, summary judgment motions are filed only with respect to 23 claims which are still pending after the Motion to Dismiss has been decided.

24 The foregoing constitutes good cause pursuant to LR IA 6-1(a) to extend the 25 dispositive motion deadline. There is also excusable neglect under the foregoing rule 26 for Delta's failure to bring this Motion within 21 days of the current dispositive motion 27 deadline per LR 26-4, as Delta did not realize until last week that at least one of the
