Case No. 2:15-cv-00906

~~PROPOSED~~
PROTECTIVE ORDER

AS AMENDED, PAGE 5

20 The parties have agreed to the terms of this Protective Order; accordingly, it is 21 ORDERED:

22 1. Scope. All documents produced in the course of discovery, including initial 23 disclosures, all responses to discovery requests, all responses to third-party subpoenas, all 24 deposition testimony and exhibits, other materials which may be subject to restrictions on 25 disclosure for good cause and information derived directly therefrom (hereinafter collectively
26 "document(s)"), shall be subject to this Order concerning confidential information as set forth 27
28

PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 below. This Order is subject to the Local Rules of this District and of the Federal Rules of Civil 2 Procedure on matters of procedure and calculation of time periods.

3 2. Form and Timing of Designation. A party may designate documents as 4 confidential and restricted in disclosure under this Order by placing or affixing the words
5 "CONFIDENTIAL" on the document in a manner that will not interfere with the legibility of the 6 document and that will permit complete removal of the CONFIDENTIAL designation.
7 Documents shall be designated CONFIDENTIAL prior to or at the time of the production or 8 disclosure of the documents. The designation "CONFIDENTIAL" does not mean that the 9 document has any status or protection by statute or otherwise except to the extent and for the 10 purposes of this Order.
11

12 3. Documents Which May be Designated CONFIDENTIAL. Any party may 13 designate documents as CONFIDENTIAL but only after review of the documents by an attorney 14 or a party appearing pro se who has in good faith determined that the documents contain 15 information protected from disclosure by statute or that should be protected from disclosure as 16 confidential personal information, trade secrets, personnel records, or commercial information.
17 The designation shall be made subject to the standards of Rule 11 and the sanctions of Rule 37 of 18 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Information or documents that are available in the public
19 sector may not be designated as CONFIDENTIAL.
20

22 4. Depositions. Deposition testimony shall be deemed CONFIDENTIAL only if 23 designated as such. Such designation shall be specific as to the portions to be designated 24 CONFIDENTIAL. Depositions, in whole or in part, shall be designated on the record as 25 CONFIDENTIAL at the time of the deposition. Deposition testimony so designated shall remain
26 CONFIDENTIAL until fifteen (15) days after delivery of the transcript by the court reporter.
27 Within fifteen (15) days after delivery of the transcript, a designating party may serve a Notice of 28

1 Designation to all parties of record as to specific portions of the transcript to be designated 2 CONFIDENTIAL. Thereafter, those portions so designated shall be protected as 3 CONFIDENTIAL pending objection under the terms of this Order. The failure to serve a Notice
4 of Designation shall waive the CONFIDENTIAL designation made on the record of the 5 deposition.
6

7 5. Protection of Confidential Material.

8 a. General Protections. Documents designated CONFIDENTIAL under this 9 Order shall not be used or disclosed by the parties, counsel for the parties or any other persons
10 identified in ¶ 5.b. for any purpose whatsoever other than to prepare for and to conduct discovery, 11 hearings and trial in this action, including any appeal thereof.
12

13 b. Limited Third-Party Disclosures. The parties and counsel for the parties
14 shall not disclose or permit the disclosure of any CONFIDENTIAL documents to any third 15 person or entity except as set forth in subparagraphs 1-6. Subject to these requirements, the 16 following categories of persons may be allowed to review documents that have been designated 17 CONFIDENTIAL:

18 1. Counsel. Counsel for the parties and employees of counsel who 19 have responsibility for the preparation and trial of the action; 20

21 2. Parties. Parties and employees of a party to this Order, but only 22 to the extent counsel determines that the specifically named individual party or employee's assistance
23 is reasonably necessary to the conduct of the litigation in which the information is disclosed.

24 3. Court Reporters and Recorders. Court reporters and recorders
25 engaged for depositions;

26 4. Contractors. Those persons specifically engaged for the limited 27 purpose of making copies of documents or organizing or processing documents but only after 28

1 each such person has completed the certification contained in Attachment A, Acknowledgment of
2 Understanding and Agreement to Be Bound.

3 5. Consultants and Experts. Consultants, investigators, or experts
4 (hereinafter referred to collectively as "experts") employed by the parties or counsel for the 5 parties to assist in the preparation and trial of this action but only after such persons have 6 completed the certification contained in Attachment A, Acknowledgment of Understanding and 7 Agreement to Be Bound; and

8 6. Others by Consent. Other persons only by written consent of the 9 producing party or upon order of the Court and on such conditions as may be agreed or ordered.
10 All such persons shall execute the certification contained in Attachment A, Acknowledgment of 11 Understanding and Agreement to Be Bound.

12 c. Control of Documents. Counsel for the parties shall make reasonable 13 efforts to prevent unauthorized disclosure of documents designated as CONFIDENTIAL pursuant 14 to the terms of this Order. Counsel shall maintain the originals of the forms signed by persons 15 acknowledging their obligations under this Order for a period of six (6) years from the date of 16 signing.

17 d. Copies. Prior to production to another party, all copies, electronic 18 images, duplicates, extracts, summaries or descriptions (hereinafter referred to collectively as 19 "copies") of documents designated as CONFIDENTIAL under this Order, or any individual 20 portion of such a document, shall be affixed with the designation "CONFIDENTIAL" if the 21 word does not already appear on the copy. All such copies shall thereafter be entitled to the 22 protection of this Order. The term "copies" shall not include indices, electronic databases or lists 23 of documents provided these indices, electronic databases or lists do not contain substantial 24
25
26
27
28

1 portions or images of the text of confidential documents or otherwise disclose the substance of the 2 confidential information contained in those documents.

3 6. Filing CONFIDENTIAL Documents With the Court.

4 a. Filing Party's Confidential Documents. In the event that a party seeks to 5 file, or reference in any filing, a document that the filing party designated as CONFIDENTIAL
6 under this Protective order and the filing party seeks to maintain the confidentiality of such 7 document, the filing party must comply with Local Rule 10-5 for filing the confidential document 8 under seal.

9
10 b. Non-Filing Party's Confidential Documents. In the event that the filing 11 party seeks to file, or reference in any filing, a document that the non-filing party designated as 12 CONFIDENTIAL under this Protective order, the filing party shall first consult with the non-
See order issued concurrently herewith line whether the non-filing party consents to filing the document in whole or 15 in part on the public docket. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement, the filing party shall 16 prepare two versions of the filings, a public and a confidential version. The public version shall 17 contain a redaction of references to CONFIDENTIAL documents and shall be filed with the 18 court. The confidential version shall be a full and complete version of the filing, including any 19 exhibits, and shall be filed with the court provisionally under seal pursuant to Local Rule 10-5 20 indicating that the non-filing party seeks to maintain the confidentiality of the redacted material.

21 The party seeking to maintain the confidential status shall file a motion to seal in accordance with 22 Local Rule 10-5 within three (3) business days of the filing. Failure to file a timely motion to seal
23 could result in the pleading/exhibit being unsealed by the court without further notice or hearing.
24

25 7. No Greater Protection of Specific Documents. No party may withhold 26 information from discovery on the ground that it requires protection greater than that afforded by 27 this Order unless the party moves for an order providing such special protection.
28

1 8. Challenges by a Party to Designation as Confidential. Any CONFIDENTIAL
2 designation is subject to challenge by any party or non- party (hereafter "party"). The following
3 procedure shall apply to any such challenge.

4 a. Objection to Confidentiality. Within thirty (30) days of the receipt of 5 any document designated CONFIDENTIAL or of the refusal to produce a document on the 6 ground of such designation, a party may serve upon the designating party an objection to the 7 designation. The objection shall specify the documents to which the objection is directed and 8 shall set forth the reasons for the objection as to each document or category of documents.
9 CONFIDENTIAL documents to which an objection has been made shall remain
10 CONFIDENTIAL until designated otherwise by waiver, agreement or order of the Court.

11 b. Obligation to Meet and Confer. The objecting party and the party who 12 designated the documents to which objection has been made shall have fifteen (15) days from 13 service of the objection to meet and confer in a good faith effort to resolve the objection by 14 agreement. If agreement is reached confirming or waiving the CONFIDENTIAL designation as to 15 any documents subject to the objection, the designating party shall serve on all parties a notice
16 specifying the documents and the nature of the agreement.

17 c. Obligation to File Motion. If the parties cannot reach agreement as 18 to any documents designated CONFIDENTIAL, for the purpose of discovery, the designating 19 party shall file with the court within thirty (30) days of the service of the objection a motion to 20 retain the CONFIDENTIAL designation. The moving party has the burden to show good cause 21 for the CONFIDENTIAL designation. The failure to file the motion waives the 22 CONFIDENTIAL designation of documents to which an objection was made.

23 9. Court Not Bound By Parties' Designation. Nothing in this Order or any action
24 or agreement of a party under this Order limits the court's power to make orders concerning the 25

1 disclosure of documents produced in discovery, filed with the court, or used during any hearing or 2 at trial.

3 10. Use of Confidential Documents or Information at Hearing or Trial. A party
4 who intends to present or anticipates that another party may present at any hearing or at trial
5 CONFIDENTIAL documents or information derived therefrom shall identify the issue, not the 6 information, in a pre-hearing or pretrial memorandum. The court may thereafter make such orders
7 as are necessary to govern the use of such documents or information at a hearing or trial.
8

9 11. Obligations on Conclusion of Litigation.

10 a. Order Remains in Effect. Unless otherwise agreed or ordered, the terms of 11 this Order shall remain in force as an agreement between the parties after dismissal or entry of 12 final judgment not subject to further appeal. Actions to enforce the terms of the Order after 13 dismissal or entry of final judgment shall be by separate legal action and not by motion for 14 contempt or other relief filed in this action.
15

16 b. Return of CONFIDENTIAL Documents. Within thirty (30) days after 17 dismissal or entry of final judgment not subject to further appeal, the receiving party shall return
18 to the producing party all documents treated as CONFIDENTIAL under this Order, including 19 copies as defined in ¶ 5.d., unless: (1) the document has been offered into evidence or filed 20 without restriction as to disclosure; (2) the parties agree to destruction in lieu of return; or (3) as 21 to documents bearing the notations, summations, or other mental impressions of the receiving 22 party, that party elects to destroy the documents and certifies to the producing party that it has 23 done so.
24

25 Notwithstanding the above requirements to return or destroy documents, counsel
26 may retain attorney work product, including an index which refers or relates to information
27 designated CONFIDENTIAL, so long as that work product does not duplicate verbatim
28

1 substantial portions of the text or images of confidential documents. This work product shall
2 continue to be CONFIDENTIAL under this Order. An attorney may use his or her work product
3 in a subsequent litigation provided that its use does not disclose or use CONFIDENTIAL
4 documents.

5
6 c. Deletion of Documents Filed under Seal from ECF System. Filings with 7 the court under seal shall remain in the ECF system and not be deleted except by order of the 8 court.

9 12. Order Subject to Modification. This Order shall be subject to modification by 10 the court on its own motion or on motion of a party or any other person with standing concerning 11 the subject matter. Motions to modify this Order shall be served and filed in accordance with the 12 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules.

13
14 13. No Prior Judicial Determination. This Order is entered based on the 15 representations and agreements of the parties and for the purpose of facilitating discovery.
16 Nothing herein shall be construed or presented as a judicial determination that any documents or 17 information designated CONFIDENTIAL by counsel or the parties is subject to protection under 18 Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or otherwise until such time as the court may 19 rule on a specific document or issue.

20
21 14. Third Parties. A subpoenaed third party who so elects may avail itself of, and 22 agree to be bound by, the terms and conditions of this Order and thereby become a producing 23 party for purposes of this Order. The parties, in conducting discovery from third parties, shall 24 attach to such discovery requests a copy of this Order so as to apprise such third parties of their 25 rights herein. A third party who elects to become a producing party for purposes of this Order 26 shall provide written notice thereof to the party requesting discovery (the "requesting party").
27 Upon receiving such notice, the requesting party shall notify all other parties to the proceeding
28

1 that the discovery received from the third party is subject to the terms and conditions of this 2 Order.

3 15. Persons Bound. This Order shall take effect when entered and shall be binding
4 upon all counsel and their law firms, the parties, and persons made subject to this Order by its 5 terms.

6
7 IT IS SO ORDERED.

Case No. 2:15-cv-00906

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF
UNDERSTANDING AND AGREEMENT
TO BE BOUND

10 The undersigned hereby acknowledges that he/she has read the Confidentiality Order
11 dated _____ in the above-captioned case and attached hereto, understands 12 the terms thereof, and agrees to be bound by its terms. The undersigned submits to the 13 jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the District of Nevada in matters relating to the 14 Confidentiality Order and understands that the terms of the Confidentiality Order obligate
15 him/her to use documents designated CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the Order solely for 16 the purposes of the above-captioned case, and not to disclose any such documents or information
17 derived directly therefrom to any other person, firm or concern. The undersigned acknowledges 18 that violation of the Confidentiality Order may result in penalties for contempt of court or for 19 other relief under the protective order agreement.
