UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Freddie Tucker, et al.,

Plaintiffs

v.

South Shore Villas Homeowners Association, et al.,

Defendants

2:15-cv-00961-JAD-NJK

Order Certifying That In Forma Pauperis Status Should not Continue on Appeal

10 Pro se plaintiffs Freddie Tucker and Ida Hanson sued defendants—for the fifth time—to 11 challenge the sale of Tucker’s home at a 2012 foreclosure sale. On January 10, 2017, I granted
12 defendants’ dismissal motion and declared plaintiffs vexatious litigants as to any future claim arising 13 from the foreclosure sale against defendants and those in privity with them. After I denied plaintiffs’
14 motion to reconsider my dismissal order, they appealed the order to the Ninth Circuit. The Ninth
15 Circuit has referred the case to me for the limited purpose of determining whether in forma pauperis
16 status should continue on appeal or whether the appeal is frivolous or taken in bad faith. For the 17 reasons set forth in my dismissal order and my order denying plaintiffs’ motion to reconsider, I
18 HEREBY CERTIFY that the appeal is frivolous and taken in bad faith and that in forma pauperis
19 status should not continue on appeal.
