UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

PNC BANK, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION,

Plaintiff,

v.

MAO AND ZHANG LV LLC, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:15-CV-1164-KJD-VCF

ORDER

Presently before the Court is Defendant Mao and Zhang LV, LLC’s Motion to Stay (#38). Though the time for doing so has passed, no response in opposition has been filed. Having read and considered the motion and good cause being found, the motion will be granted. Also, before the Court is Plaintiff’s Motion for Status Conference (#34).

The Nevada Supreme Court recently held that “the Due Process Clause of the United States and Nevada Constitutions are not implicated in an HOA’s nonjudicial foreclosure of a superpriority lien.” Saticoy Bay v. Wells Fargo, 388 P.3d 970, 975 (Nev. 2017). However, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals considered the same issue in Bourne Valley Ct. Trust v. Wells Fargo Bank, 832 F.3d 1154, 1160 (9th Cir. 2016) and came to the opposite conclusion: “Nevada Revised Statutes section 116.3116’s “opt-in” notice scheme facially violated mortgage lenders’ constitutional due process

1 rights.”<sup>1</sup> Parties in both Bourne Valley and Saticoy Bay have indicated they will file petitions for
2 certiorari in the United States Supreme Court, leaving the constitutionality of portions of Nevada’s
3 non-judicial foreclosure statute in question. In fact, the Nevada Supreme Court has stayed issuance of 4 remittitur until June 21, 2017, to allow time for Defendants to seek certiorari. Saticoy Bay, Nev. S.
5 Ct. Case No. 68630, Doc. No. 17-04543 (Feb. 8, 2017). Additionally, the United States Supreme
6 Court extended the deadline for the Bourne Valley cert petition to April 3, 2017. Case No. 16A753
7 (Feb 24, 2017).

8 The issues the parties in this case have raised implicate Bourne Valley and Saticoy Bay. To 9 save the parties from the need to invest resources in discovery surrounding commercial
10 reasonableness of the sale including any fraud, unfairness or oppression, before the United States
11 Supreme Court has ruled on the petitions for certiorari review in these cases, the Court grants
12 Defendants unopposed motion to stay this case.

13 A district court has the inherent power to stay cases to control its docket and promote the 14 efficient use of judicial resources. Landis v. North Am. Co., 299 U.S. 248, 254-55 (1936);
15 Dependable Highway Exp., Inc., v. Navigators Ins. Co., 498 F.3d 1059, 1066 (9th Cir. 2007). When 16 determining whether a stay is appropriate pending the resolution of another case – often called a
17 “Landis stay” – the district court must weigh: (1) the possible damage that may result from a stay, (2)
18 any “hardship or inequity” that a party may suffer if required to go forward, and (3) “and the orderly
19 course of justice measured in terms of the simplifying or complicating of issues, proof, and questions
20 of law” that a stay will engender. Lockyer v. Mirant Corp., 398 F.3d 1098, 1110 (9th Cir. 2005).
21 Weighing these considerations, the Court finds that a Landis stay is appropriate.

22 1. A stay will promote the orderly course of justice.

23 At the center of this case is an HOA-foreclosure sale under NRS Chapter 116 and the

25 <sup>1</sup>The “opt-in” notice scheme was in effect on the date of the Foreclosure Sale, November 1, 2013. The 2015
26 Legislature substantially revised Chapter 116. 2015 Nev. Stat., ch. 266. However, this court looks at the statute in effect on the day of the sale.

1 competing arguments that the foreclosure sale either extinguished the mortgagor's security interest or
2 had no legal effect because the statutory scheme violates due process and the takings clause. The
3 United States Supreme Court's consideration of petitions for certiorari in Bourne Valley and Saticoy
4 Bay has the potential to be dispositive of this case or major discrete issues presented by it. The 5 jurisprudence in this area of unique Nevada law continues to evolve causing parties in the scores of 6 foreclosure-challenge actions pending to file new motions or supplement the ones that they already 7 have pending, resulting in "docket-clogging entries and an impossible-to-follow chain of briefs in 8 which arguments are abandoned and replaced." Nationstar Mortg., LLC v. Springs at Spanish Trail
9 Assoc., 2017 WL 752775, *2 (D. Nev. February 27, 2017). Staying this case pending the Supreme 10 Court's disposition of the petitions for certiorari in Bourne Valley and Saticoy Bay will permit the 11 parties to evaluate, and the Court to consider, viability of the claims under the most complete
12 precedent. This will simplify and streamline the proceedings and promote the efficient use of the 13 parties' and the court's resources.

14 2. Hardship and inequity

15 Both parties equally face hardship or inequity if the Court resolves the claims or 16 issues before the petitions for certiorari have been decided. A stay will prevent unnecessary briefing
17 and premature expenditures of time, attorney's fees, and resources. While this is one of the few cases
18 in which multiple supplemental briefs have not been filed, the prospect of that occurrence is greater 19 than not while the petitions are pending.

20 3. Damage from a stay

21 The only potential damage that may result from a stay is that the parties will have to wait
22 longer for resolution of this case. But a delay would also result from any rebriefing or supplemental
23 briefing that may be necessitated if the Supreme Court grants certiorari and resolves this circuit-state
24 split. It is not clear that a stay pending the Supreme Court's disposition of the petitions for certiorari
25 will ultimately lengthen the life of this case. The Court finds minimal any possible damage that this 26 stay may cause.

4. The length of the stay is reasonable.

Finally, a stay of this case pending the disposition of the petitions for certiorari in Bourne Valley and Saticoy Bay is expected to be reasonably short. The petition in Bourne Valley is due April 3, 2017, and the petition in Saticoy Bay is due April 25, 2017. Because the length of this stay is directly tied to the petition proceedings in those cases, it is reasonably brief, and not indefinite.

5. Summary

Therefore, the Court orders this action stayed. Once the United States Supreme Court proceedings in Bourne Valley and Saticoy Bay have concluded, either party may move to lift the stay.

Conclusion

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Defendant Mao and Zhang LV, LLC's Motion to Stay (#38) GRANTED;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion for Status Conference (#34) DENIED as moot.

DATED this 31st day of March 2017.
