18 Pursuant to Local Rule IA 6-1, the parties respectfully request that this Court extend by 19 eight days the due date to file a proposed joint pretrial order. More specifically, and for the 20 reasons set forth below, the parties request that the due date of January 4, 2018 be extended to 21 January 12, 2018. This is the first request to extend such due date.

22 The current due date of January 4, 2018 for the proposed joint pretrial order was set in 23 connection with a rescheduling of the settlement conference in this matter. See ECF No. 77. The 24 parties devoted time and attention to preparation of settlement statements, as well as attendance
25 at the December 5, 2017 settlement conference. Defendant’s counsel has also had to devote time 26 and attention to other matters, and he has been out of the office at times for personal reasons.
27 Defense counsel has a hearing in another matter on January 3, 2018, and has some additional 28 upcoming days out of the office for personal reasons. An extension of eight days, from January

1 4, 2018 to January 12, 2018, should allow Defendant's counsel sufficient time to prepare 2 Defendant's sections of the proposed joint pretrial order and finalize such document with 3 Plaintiff's counsel.

4 Based on the foregoing, the parties respectfully request that the Court extend for eight 5 days the due date to file a proposed joint pretrial order, i.e., from January 4, 2018 to January 12, 6 2018.

7 Respectfully submitted this 27th day of December 2017.
