13   Presently before the court is the parties' stipulation to extend discovery (ECF No. 68), filed

14   on October 12, 2017. In light of the court's recent order granting plaintiff's motion for conditional

15   certification of this Fair Labor Standards Act collective action, the parties request to extend

16   discovery and the trial schedule to allow sufficient time to compile potential opt-in plaintiffs'

17   contact information, to provide notice and opt-in forms to potential plaintiffs, and to allow for 18   subsequent class discovery.

19   Given the case's procedural posture, the court grants the stipulation to the extent it seeks to 20   vacate the calendar call set for October 24, 2017, and the trial set for October 30, 2017. The court

21   denies without prejudice the stipulation to the extent it seeks to continue the discovery and other

22   pre-trial deadlines. While the court realizes that an amended scheduling order is necessary under

23   these circumstances, the court is concerned the lack of dates certain in the parties' proposed

24   discovery plan and scheduling order will lead to confusion and difficulty in tracking discovery

25   deadlines. The parties must meet and confer and file a revised proposed discovery plan and 26   scheduling order that include dates certain for all deadlines.

27   IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the parties' Stipulation and Order for

28   Extension/Modification of Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order (ECF No. 68) is GRANTED in

1   part and is DENIED without prejudice in part as stated in this order.

2   IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the calendar call set for October 24, 2017, and the trial

3   set for October 30, 2017, are VACATED.

4   IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties must meet and confer and file a revised

5   proposed discovery plan and scheduling order by November 7, 2017.
