ABDUL HOWARD,

Plaintiff,

v.

BONNIE POLLEY, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:15-cv-1458-APG-VCF

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST
PEGGY MARTINEZ

(ECF No. 23)

10 I previously granted in part plaintiff Abdul Howard's motion for default judgment against 11 defendant Peggy Martinez. ECF No. 27. I granted judgment as to liability, but deferred awarding 12 damages or injunctive relief until I held a hearing at which Mr. Howard could prove up his 13 damages and request for appropriate relief. I held that hearing on May 4, 2018.

14 Mr. Howard proved that he did not receive sufficient calories while he was observing 15 Ramadan in 2015, and that he suffered as a result. He offered exhibits (his personal grievance 16 forms) stating that he received approximately 1300 calories per day. See Hearing Exh. 1. He 17 contends the "state and federal guidelines is (sic) 2800 calories to (sic) day." Id. However, he 18 offers nothing to support those numbers, and the USDA recommends 2200 calories for a 19 sedentary male age 41-60.¹ No evidence was presented that the proper calorie amount could not 20 have been provided. Although Mr. Howard believes Ms. Martinez, as kitchen manager, has 21 sufficient authority to ensure he receives sufficient calories, no evidence was presented to confirm 22 or deny that allegation. I will enter an affirmative injunction ordering Ms. Martinez to provide 23 Mr. Howard sufficient calories during Ramadan 2018. It is unclear whether she has authority to make that happen. But if Mr. Howard believes she has violated my order, he can file a motion for contempt. Accordingly, I enter the following award.

Presumably, Mr. Howard is sedentary (defined as "a lifestyle that includes only the light physical activity associated with typical day-to-day life") as he is in detention in the Clark County Detention Center.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Mr. Howard is awarded $900.00 against defendant Peggy Martinez for the damages Mr. Howard suffered when deprived of sufficient calories during Ramadan 2015.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Ms. Martinez shall, to the extent of her authority, provide Mr. Howard with sufficient food for 2200 calories per day during Ramadan 2018.

DATED this 21st day of May, 2018.
