16 Plaintiffs,

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

17 v.

18 CERTAIN UNDERWRITER'S AT LLOYD'S
 LONDON SUBSCRIBING TO POLICY NO.
 19 HAH15-0632,

20 Defendant.

 22 In order to protect the confidentiality of confidential information obtained by the parties in 23 connection with this case, the parties hereby agree as follows:

- 24 1. Any party or non-party may designate as "confidential" (by stamping the relevant page or 25 document as otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which that party or non-26 party considers in good faith to contain information involving trade secrets, or confidential business or 27 financial information, subject to protection under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or Nevada law
 28 ("Confidential Information"). Where a document or response consists of more than one page, the first

1 page and each page on which confidential information appears shall be so designated.

2           2.       A party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or in 3 response to written discovery as "confidential" by so indicating in said response or on the record at the 4 deposition and requesting the preparation of a separate transcript of such material. Additionally a party or 5 non-party may designate in writing, within twenty (20) days after receipt of said responses or of the 6 deposition transcript for which the designation is proposed, that specific pages of the transcript and/or 7 specific responses be treated as "confidential" information. Any other party may object to such proposal, 8 in writing or on the record. Upon such objection, the parties shall follow the procedures described in 9 paragraph 8 below. After any designation made according to the procedure set forth in this paragraph, the 10 designated documents or information shall be treated according to the designation until the matter is 11 resolved according to the procedures described in paragraph 8 below, and counsel for all parties shall be 12 responsible for making all previously unmarked copies of the designated material in their possession or 13 control with the specified designation.

14           3.       All Confidential Information produced or exchanged in the course of this case (other than 15 information that is publicly available) shall be used by the party or parties to whom the information is 16 produced solely for the purpose of this case.

17           4.       Except with the prior written consent of other parties, or upon prior order of this Court
18 obtained upon notice to opposing counsel, Confidential Information shall not be disclosed to any person 19 other than:

- 20                   a.       counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-house counsel and 21                               co-counsel retained for this litigation;
- 22                   b.       employees of such counsel;
- 23                   c.       individual defendants, any officer or employee of a party, to the extent deemed 24                               necessary by Counsel for the prosecution or defense of this litigation;
- 25                   d.       consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of this 26                               litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification
27                               annexed to this Order as Exhibit "A" (which shall be retained by counsel to the 28                               party so disclosing the Confidential Information.

- 1 e. any authors or recipients of the Confidential Information;
2 f. the Court, Court personnel, and court reporters; and 3 g. witnesses (other than persons described in paragraph 4(e)). A witness shall sign the 4 Certification before being shown a confidential document. Confidential
5 Information may be disclosed to a witness who will not sign the Certification only 6 in a deposition at which the party who designated the Confidential Information is 7 represented or has been given notice that Confidential Information shall be 8 disclosed at such deposition. Witnesses shown Confidential Information shall not 9 be allowed to retain copies.

10 5. Any persons receiving Confidential Information shall not reveal or discuss such 11 information to or with any person who is not entitled to receive such information, except as set forth 12 herein.

13 6. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule or prior court order, papers filed with the court 14 under seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for leave to file those documents under 15 seal, and shall be filed consistent with the court's electronic filing procedures in accordance with Local 16 Rule 10-5. Notwithstanding any agreement among the parties, the party seeking to file a paper under seal 17 bears the burden of overcoming the presumption in favor of public access to papers filed in court.

19 7. A party may designate as "Confidential" documents or discovery materials produced by a 20 non-party by providing written notice to all parties of the relevant document numbers or other 21 identification within thirty (30) days after receiving such documents or discovery materials. Any party or 22 non-party may voluntarily disclose to others without restriction any information designated by that party
23 or non-party as confidential, although a document may lose its confidential status if it is made public.

24 8. If a party contends that any material is not entitled to confidential treatment, such party
25 may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who designated the material. The party or 26 non-party who designated the material shall have twenty-five (25) days from the receipt of such written 27 notice to apply to the Court for an order designating the material as confidential. The party or non-party 28 seeking the order has the burden of establishing that the document is entitled to protection.

1           9.    Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as Confidential Information, all
2 documents designated as Confidential shall be treated as such and shall be subject to the provisions
3 hereof unless and until one of the following occurs:

- 4           a.    the party or non-party who claims that the material is Confidential Information 5                withdraws such designation in writing; or
- 6           b.    the party or non-party who claims that the material is Confidential Information 7                fails to apply to the Court for an order designating the material confidential within 8                the time period specified above after receipt of a written challenge to such 9                designation; or
- 10          c.    the Court rules the material is not confidential.

11           10.   All provisions of this Order restricting the communication or use of Confidential
12 Information shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action, unless otherwise agreed or 13 ordered. Upon conclusion of the litigation, a party in the possession of Confidential Information, other 14 than that which is contained in pleadings, correspondence, and deposition transcripts, shall either (a)
15 return such documents no later than thirty (30) days after conclusion of this action to counsel for the 16 party or non-party who provided such information, or (b) destroy such documents within the time period 17 upon consent of the party who provided the information and certify in writing within thirty (30) days that 18 the documents have been destroyed.

19           11.    The terms of this Order do not preclude, limit, restrict, or otherwise apply to the use of 20 documents at trial.

21           12.    Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work product
22 protection, or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an inadvertent disclosure of material 23 protected by privilege or work product protection.
