settlement but final approval is needed the City of North Las Vegas City Council.

The stay period will commence the day following the entry of this Court’s order in this regard. The parties further stipulate that, in the event that the City of North Las Vegas City Council does not approve the settlement (which is not anticipated), the parties will submit a revised scheduling order, accounting for a 45-day extension of time and the time spent negotiating the settlement.

The parties wish to avoid any unnecessary litigation costs that could arise in conjunction with litigating this matter before the Court, which would make the current settlement untenable. For these reasons, the parties request that this Court enter its order staying this case for forty-five (45) days.
