

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

ROBERT H. ODELL, JR., et al.,
Plaintiff,
vs.
SYLVIA M. BURWELL, SECRETARY OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, et al.,
Defendant

Case No.: 2:15-cv-1793-RFB-GWF

PLAINTIFF'S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR
LEAVE TO FILE UNDER SEAL

Plaintiffs', through their undersigned counsel, hereby move for leave to file exhibits under seal pursuant to Local Civil Rule 10-5(b). The Court should grant this unopposed motion because the exhibits Plaintiffs intend to file for consideration by the court and in support of Plaintiffs' amended complaint contain a large amount of sensitive personal information about individuals that are not party to this action. Plaintiffs wish to supply the specific claim information relevant to the amended verified complaint to assist the parties and the Court. This information, including decisions, contains sensitive identifiable information of the beneficiaries involved all of whom with the exception of Kenneth L. Baker are not party to this law suit.

In this case, the public interest in access to judicial records is significantly outweighed by the privacy interest of the individuals identified in the claims at issue. Freedman v. Sebelius 672 F. Supp. 2d 54 (Dist. DDC 2009).

CONSENT

Counsel for the Defendant has indicated that he does not oppose the granting of this motion.

1 WHEREFORE Plaintiffs respectfully request the Court grant leave to file
2 under seal exhibits setting forth the outstanding claims and denials by Defendants as referenced
3 in the verified complaint.
