1 To expedite the flow of discovery, facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes over 2 confidentiality, adequately protect material claimed to be confidential, and ensure protection is afforded
3 only to material so designated, it is, pursuant to the Court's authority under FED. R. CIV. P. 26(c), 4 ORDERED this Protective Order shall govern the disclosure, handling and disposition of documents in 5 this litigation as follows:

6 1. Application.

7 1.1 This Protective Order shall govern any document, information or other material 8 that is designated as containing “Confidential Information” as defined herein, and is produced in 9 connection with this litigation by any person or entity (the “producing party”), whether in response to a 10 discovery request, subpoena or otherwise, to any other person or entity (the “receiving party”) 11 regardless of whether the person or entity producing or receiving such information is a party to this 12 litigation.

13 2. Definitions.

14 2.1 Confidential Information. “Confidential Information” shall mean and include, 15 without limitation, any non-public information that concerns or relates to the following areas:
16 confidential proprietary information, trade secrets, practices and procedures, personal financial 17 information, commercial, financial, pricing, budgeting, and/or accounting information, information
18 about existing and potential customers, marketing studies, performance projections, business strategies, 19 decisions and/or negotiations, personnel compensation, evaluations and other employment information, 20 and confidential proprietary information about affiliates, parents, subsidiaries and third-parties with 21 whom the parties to this action have or have had business relationships.

22 2.2 Documents. As used herein, the term “documents” includes all writings, 23 records, files, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, e-mails, video tapes, audio tapes, compact discs,

1           3.3       Interrogatory Answers. If a party answering an interrogatory or other discovery
2 demand believes that its answer contains Confidential Information, it shall state so in the interrogatory
3 response, and that portion of the response will be entitled to the protections of this order.

4           3.4       Inspection of Documents. In the event a party elects to produce files and 5 records for inspection and the requesting party elects to inspect them, no designation of Confidential
6 Information needs to be made in advance of the inspection. For purposes of such inspection, all material
7 produced shall be considered as Confidential Information. If the inspecting party selects specified
8 documents to be copied, the producing party shall designate Confidential Information in accordance 9 with subparagraph 3.2 at the time the copies are produced.

10          3.5       Deposition Transcripts. The party asserting confidentiality shall state on the 11 record the portions it deems confidential. The failure to designate testimony on the record as 12 confidential shall be a waiver unless the designating party notifies all other parties and files a motion to 13 designate the testimony as confidential within 5 days of the notification.

14          3.6       Inadvertent Failure to Designate. Inadvertent failure to identify documents or 15 things as "Confidential" pursuant to this Protective Order shall not constitute a waiver of any otherwise 16 valid claim for protection, provided that the provisions of this paragraph are satisfied. If the 17 designating party discovers that information should have but was not designated "Confidential" or of 18 the designating party receives notice that would enable the designated party to learn that it has disclosed
19 such information, the designating party must immediately notify all other parties. In such event, within 20 thirty (30) days of notifying all other parties, the designating parties must also provide copies of the 21 "Confidential" information designated in accordance with this Protective Order. After receipt of such 22 re-designated information, the "Confidential" information shall be treated as required by this Protective 23 Order, and the receiving party(ies) shall promptly, and in no event more than fourteen (14) calendar
24 days from the receipt of the re-designated information, return to the designated party all previously
25 produced copies of the same unlegended documents or things. The designating party and the parties
26 may agree to alternative means. The receiving party(ies) shall receive no liability, under this Protective 27 Order or otherwise, for any disclosure of information contained in unlegended documents or things
28

1 occurring before the receiving party was placed on notice of the designating party's claims of 2 confidentiality.

3 4. Designations by Another Party.

4 4.1 Notification of Designation. If a party other than the producing party believes 5 that a producing party has produced a document that contains or constitutes Confidential Information of 6 the non-producing party, the non-producing party may designate the document as Confidential
7 Information by so notifying all parties in writing within fourteen (14) days of service of the document.

8 4.2 Return of Documents; Non-disclosure. Whenever a party other than the 9 producing party designates a document produced by a producing party as Confidential Information in 10 accordance with subparagraph 4.1, each party receiving the document shall either add the Confidential
11 Information designation in accordance with subparagraph 3.2 or substitute a copy of the document
12 bearing such designation for each copy of the document produced by the producing party. Each party 13 shall destroy all undesignated copies of the document or return those copies to the producing party, at 14 the direction of the producing party. No party shall disclose a produced document to any person, other 15 than the persons authorized to receive Confidential Information under subparagraph 7.1, until after the 16 expiration of the fourteen (14) day designation period specified in subparagraph 4.1. If during the 17 fourteen (14) day designation period a party discloses a produced document to a person authorized to 18 receive Confidential Information under subparagraph 7.1, and that document is subsequently designated 19 as Confidential Information in accordance with subparagraph 4.1, the disclosing party shall cause all 20 copies of the document to be destroyed or returned to the producing party, at the direction of the 21 producing party. The party may thereafter disclose a copy of the document that has been marked as 22 Confidential Information by the designating party, in accordance with subparagraphs 3.2 and 7.1.

1           5.           Objections to Designations. Any party objecting to a designation of Confidential
2 Information, including objections to portions of designations of multi-page documents, shall notify the 3 designating party and all other parties of the objection in writing up to and through trial of the matter.
4 This notice must specifically identify each document that the objecting party in good faith believes
5 should not be designated as Confidential Information and provide a brief statement of the grounds for 6 such belief. In accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure governing discovery disputes, the 7 objecting and the designating parties thereafter shall confer within ten (10) days after the date of such 8 objection in an attempt to resolve their differences. If the parties are unable to resolve their differences,
9 the objecting party shall have twenty one (21) days after the conference concludes to file with the Court
10 a motion to remove the Confidential Information. If an objection is served within forty-two (42) days
11 of trial, the objecting party must file its motion to remove the Confidential Information designation
12 within half of the remaining time before trial, and the meet-and-confer period shall be shortened
13 accordingly. Where a party authored, created, owns, or controls a document, information or other 14 material that another party designates as Confidential Information, the party that authored, created, 15 owns, or controls the Confidential Information may so inform the objecting party and thereafter shall 16 also be considered a designating party for purposes of this paragraph.

17           All documents, information and other materials initially designated as Confidential Information
18 shall be treated as such in accordance with this Protective Order unless and until the Court rules
19 otherwise, except for deposition transcripts and exhibits initially considered as containing Confidential
20 Information under subparagraph 3.5, which will lose their confidential status after twenty-one (21) days
21 unless so designated as Confidential Information. If the Court rules that a designation should not be 22 maintained as to a particular document, the producing party shall, upon written request by a party, 23 provide that party a copy of that document without the designation described in subparagraph 3.2.

1 If an objecting party elects not to make such a motion with respect to documents within twenty 2 one (21) days after the conference, information or other materials to which an objection has been made,
3 the objection shall be deemed withdrawn. The designating party shall have twenty one (21) days to 4 respond to the objecting party's motion. If no response is filed by the designating party within twenty 5 one (21) days, the designating party shall be deemed to have consented to the objecting party's motion
6 pursuant to LR 7-2(d).

7 6. Custody. All Confidential Information and any and all copies, extracts and summaries 8 thereof, including memoranda relating thereto, shall be retained by the receiving party in the custody of 9 counsel of record, or by persons to whom disclosure is authorized under subparagraph 7.1.

10 7. Handling Prior to Trial.

11 Information, in the form of the Declaration attached hereto as Exhibit A, that he or she has received a

1           7.2       Unauthorized Disclosures. All persons receiving Confidential Information
2 under the terms of this Protective Order are under the jurisdiction of the state courts and U.S. federal 3 courts located in Nevada for all matters arising from the improper disclosure or use of such information.

1           10.       No Implied Waivers. This Protective Order shall not be interpreted as a waiver of the 2 right to object, under applicable law, to the furnishing of information in response to discovery requests
3 or to object to a requested inspection of documents or facilities. Parties producing Confidential
4 Information in this litigation are doing so only pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order. The taking
