Tagle v. State of Nevada et al

Doc. 207

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

I. INTRODUCTION & RELEVANT FACTS

As this Court is aware, this case is a pro se civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. ECF No. 37. Plaintiff, Victor Tagle (Plaintiff), is an inmate in the custody of the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC). Id. He is currently housed at the Saguaro Correctional Center (SCC) in Eloy, Arizona. ECF No. 171 at 1.

In his request at ECF No. 189, which is filled will all sorts of unnecessary obscenities, Plaintiff alleges that correctional officers at SCC spray use excessive force upon inmates and that SCC medical staff are deliberately indifferent to his serious medical needs. In order to properly respond to Plaintiff's allegations, Defendant has again sought records from SCC. Defendant has also sought declarations from SCC staff. Unfortunately, counsel has not yet received the relevant records, nor have SCC staff returned the executed declarations. Therefore, Defendant respectfully requests an additional two weeks to respond to Plaintiff's request. Specifically, Defendant requests that this Court order that he be permitted to file his response on or before June 21, 2018.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

District courts have inherent power to control their dockets. Hamilton Copper & Steel Corp. v. Primary Steel, Inc., 898 F.2d 1428, 1429 (9th Cir. 1990); Oliva v. Sullivan, 958 F.2d 272, 273 (9th Cir. 1992). FED. R. CIV. P. 6(b)(1) governs enlargements of time and provides as follows:

When an act may or must be done within a specified time, the court may, for good cause, extend the time: (A) with or without motion or notice if the court acts, or if a request is made, before the original time or its extension expires; or (B) on motion made after the time has expired if the party failed to act because of excusable neglect.

"The proper procedure, when additional time for any purpose is needed, is to present to the Court a timely request for an extension before the time fixed has expired (i.e., a request presented before the time then fixed for the purpose in question has expired)." Canup v. Miss. Valley Barge Line Co., 31 F.R.D. 282, 283 (D.Pa. 1962). The Canup Court explained that "the practicalities of life" (such as an attorney's "conflicting professional engagements" or personal commitments such as vacations, family activities, illnesses, or death) often necessitate an enlargement of time to comply with a court deadline. Id. Extensions of time "usually are granted upon a showing of good cause, if timely made."

Creedon v. Taubman, 8 F.R.D. 268, 269 (D.Ohio 1947). The good cause standard considers a party's diligence in seeking the continuance or extension. Johnson v. Mammoth Recreations, Inc., 975 F.2d 604, 609 (9th Cir. 1992).

III. DISCUSSION

Good cause exists to enlarge the time for Defendant to file his response to Plaintiff's request at ECF No. 189. Defendant seeks two additional weeks to file his response, and he is moving the Court for this enlargement prior to the expiration of the original deadline. Furthermore, Defendant needs additional time to respond to the affidavit, so that he can properly substantiate his arguments against granting Plaintiff the relief he seeks. Finally, this short extension will not unfairly prejudice Plaintiff.

This extension is also necessary based on the volumes of meritless, redundant, and barely comprehensible documents Plaintiff files. For example, today, June 7, 2018, Plaintiff filed six (6) documents in this case alone: "Affidavit in Support of the Case!" at ECF No. 193; "Affidavit in Regard Hardcastle's Skulduggeries [sic]" at ECF No. 194; "Answer to Racketeer Hardcastle's Opposition – (ECF No. 176) & Motion for Discovery & Protection!" at ECF No. 195; "Motion to Request, [sic] Order of Injunction" at ECF No. 196; and "Affidavit[] and Motion to be Removed from Saguaro!" at ECF No. 197; and "Affidavit!" at ECF No. 198. Since the beginning of this year, Plaintiff has filed no less than thirteen (13) affidavits (many of which were filed on the same day), eight (8) requests to be transferred, five (5) discovery motions (two (2) of which were filed on the same day), and two (2) requests for authorities to investigate. Just by virtue of the number of Plaintiff's filings in this case, this Court must enlarge the time for Defendant to respond.

IV. CONCLUSION Based on the foregoing, Defendant respectfully requests this Court grant his Motion for Enlargement of Time and allow him to file his response to Plaintiff's request for authorities to investigate at ECF No. 189 on or before June 21, 2018.
