Order Staying Case Pending
Issuance of Mandate in *Bourne Valley
Court Trust v. Wells Fargo Bank* and Denying Pending Motions without Prejudice

10 As I noted in Freedom Mortgage v. Las Vegas Development Group,¹ in the years
11 following Las Vegas's real estate crash, lenders and investors were at odds over the legal effect
12 of a homeowners association's (HOA's) nonjudicial foreclosure of a superpriority lien on a 13 lender's first trust deed. The Nevada Supreme Court settled the debate in SFR Investments Pool
14 1, LLC v. U.S. Bank, holding that "NRS 116.3116(2) gives an HOA a true superpriority lien, 15 proper foreclosure of which will extinguish a first deed of trust."² The SFR decision made 16 winners out of the investors who purchased foreclosure properties in HOA sales and losers of the 17 lenders who gambled on the opposite result, elected not to satisfy the HOA liens to prevent 18 foreclosure, and thus saw their interests wiped out by sales that often yielded a small fraction of 19 the loan balance.

20 But last Friday in a reversal of fortune, two members of a Ninth Circuit panel held in 21 Bourne Valley Court Trust v. Wells Fargo Bank that Chapter 116's nonjudicial foreclosure 22 scheme "facially violated mortgage lenders' constitutional due process rights" before it was

6 canon of constitutional avoidance.⁶ In an August 15, 2016, emergency motion to stay publication

27 ⁷ The bank has already filed a notice of supplemental authority, ECF No. 42, which I will

1 Discussion

2 A district court has the inherent power to stay cases to control its docket and promote the 3 efficient use of judicial resources.⁸ When determining whether a stay is appropriate pending the 4 resolution of another case—often called a “Landis stay”—the district court must weigh: (1) the 5 possible damage that may result from a stay, (2) any “hardship or inequity” that a party may 6 suffer if required to go forward, (3) “and the orderly course of justice measured in terms of the 7 simplifying or complicating of issues, proof, and questions of law” that a stay will engender.⁹
8 After weighing these considerations, I find that a Landis stay is appropriate here. I address these 9 considerations in reverse order.

10 A. A stay will promote the orderly course of justice.

11 At the center of this case is an HOA-foreclosure sale under NRS Chapter 116 and the 12 competing arguments that the foreclosure sale either extinguished the bank’s security interest
13 under the SFR holding or had no legal effect because the statutory scheme violates due process.
14 The Bourne Valley opinion and any modification of that opinion have the potential to be 15 dispositive of this case or at least of discrete issues that it presents. As the jurisprudence in this 16 area of unique Nevada law continues to evolve, the parties file new motions or move to 17 supplement the ones that they already have pending, often resulting in docket-clogging entries
18 and an impossible-to-follow chain of briefs in which arguments are abandoned and replaced. I
19 alone have dozens of cases challenging HOA foreclosures, with scores of dispositive motions
20 pending—many of which raise the very issue decided by the Bourne Valley majority. Staying 21 this case pending the mandate in Bourne Valley and denying the pending motions with leave to 22 file new motions when the stay is lifted will permit the parties to evaluate—and me to 23 consider—the viability of the claims under the most complete precedent. This will simplify and 24 streamline the proceedings and promote the efficient use of the parties’ and the court’s resources.

26 ⁸ Landis v. North American Co., 299 U.S. 248, 254–55 (1936); Dependable Highway Exp., Inc.
27 v. Navigators Ins. Co., 498 F.3d 1059, 1066 (9th Cir. 2007).

28 ⁹ Lockyer v. Mirant Corp., 398 F.3d 1098, 1110 (9th Cir. 2005).

1 B. Hardship and inequity

2 Both parties face the prospect of hardship if I resolve the claims or issues in this case
3 before the Ninth Circuit issues the mandate in Bourne Valley. A stay will prevent unnecessary 4 briefing and the expenditures of time, attorney’s fees, and resources that could be wasted—or at 5 least prematurely spent—should the panel or the en banc court issue a subsequent opinion.

6 C. Damage from a stay

7 The only potential damage that may result from a stay is that the parties will have to wait 8 longer for resolution of this case and any motions that they have filed or intend to file in the 9 future. But a delay would also result from any rebriefing or supplemental briefing that may be 10 necessitated if the panel or the en banc court rehears the matter. So it is not clear to me that a 11 stay pending the Bourne Valley mandate will ultimately lengthen the life of this case. I thus find 12 that any possible damage that a stay may cause the parties is minimal.

13 D. The length of the stay is reasonable.

14 Finally, I note that the stay pending the mandate in this case is expected to be reasonably
15 short. The 14-day clock is running on post-opinion petitions.¹⁰ Absent court order, the mandate
16 must issue seven days after the deadline for a petition expires or, if a petition is filed, seven days
17 after the petition is resolved.¹¹ Accordingly, the length of this stay is directly tied to the Ninth
18 Circuit’s issuance of its mandate in Bourne Valley, it is reasonably brief, and it is not indefinite.

19 Conclusion

20 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that this case is administratively STAYED. Once the 21 Ninth Circuit issues the mandate in Bourne Valley Court Trust v. Wells Fargo Bank, case number
22 15-15233 (2:13-cv-649-PMP-NJK), any party may move to lift the stay. Until that time, all 23 proceedings in this action are stayed.
