21 Plaintiff Microsoft Corporation (“Microsoft”) and Defendants Julianna Pak, an individual
 22 doing business as ibenevolo and ibenevolo.com; Julianna Pak, an individual; and Mark Pak, an
 23 individual (collectively “Defendants”) have reached a settlement in this matter, and thus Microsoft
 24 requests that the Settlement Conference scheduled for 1:00 p.m. on February 24, 2017, be taken
 25 off calendar. In support of its request, Microsoft states as follows:

26 1. On or about January 4, 2017, the parties agreed to the terms of a settlement but 27 required time to draft and execute settlement documents. A further Settlement Conference, which 28 was then scheduled to take place on January 6, 2017, was continued until February 3, 2017, and it

1 was later continued to February 24, 2017 at 1:00 p.m. Settlement documents were drafted and 2 circulated, but Defendants' counsel was unable to obtain signatures from Defendants prior to 3 moving to withdraw as their counsel, as it was difficult for him to reach them.

4 2. On Friday, February 17, 2017, Microsoft's counsel's received signed settlement
5 documents from Defendants, and Microsoft's counsel is now obtaining Microsoft's signatures on 6 the documents.

7 3. As part of the settlement, the parties must submit two documents to the Court, a
8 Stipulated Permanent Injunction and a Consent Judgment, and request that the Court enter them.
9 Microsoft plans to submit these documents as soon as possible.

10 4. Within fourteen days of entry of the Stipulated Permanent Injunction and Consent
11 Judgment, Microsoft intends to seek dismissal of this action.

12 5. Therefore, Microsoft requests that the Settlement Conference that is currently 13 scheduled for Friday, February 24, 2017 at 1:00 p.m. be taken off calendar.<sup>1</sup>

14 6. Microsoft has informed Defendants that it would request to have the Settlement
15 Conference taken off calendar in light of their execution of the settlement documents.

16 WHEREFORE, Microsoft requests that the Court enter an order taking the Settlement
17 Conference that is currently scheduled for Friday, February 24, 2017 at 1:00 p.m. off calendar.
