In re:	Case No. 2:16-cv-00588-JCM
JOSEPH A. SCALIA, II,	ORDER
Plaintiff,
v.
UNITED STATES TRUSTEE, Defendant.

Presently before the court is the matter of Scalia v. U.S. Trustee, case number 2:16-cv-00588-JCM.

On January 4, 2017, the court ordered appellant Joseph Scalia II to show cause, within ten (10) days, as to why instant appeal should not be dismissed for his failure to timely file the required documents and comply with the applicable rules. (ECF No. 6). Further, the court held that appellant's failure to timely comply with the order to show cause would result in dismissal of the instant appeal. (ECF No. 6).

To date, appellant has yet to comply with the court's January 4th order to show cause, and the deadline to do so has since passed. Thus, pursuant to the January 4th order, the court will dismiss the instant appeal.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the instant appeal, Scalia v. U.S. Trustee, case number 2:16-cv-00588-JCM, be, and the same hereby is, DISMISSED.

The clerk is instructed to close the case accordingly.

DATED THIS 17th day of January 2017.
