DISTRICT OF NEVADA

---	--	--

On April 3, 2019, the Ninth Circuit reversed and remanded the court’s order entering summary judgment against plaintiff Bank of America, N.A. (“BANA”). Pursuant to the Ninth Circuit’s directive, the court hereby adjudicates this matter consistent with Bank of America, N.A. v. Arlington West Twilight Homeowners Association, 920 F.3d 620 (9th Cir. 2019).

I. Facts

This action arises from a dispute over real property located at 9179 Smugglers Beach Court, Las Vegas, Nevada 89178 (the “property”). (ECF No. 1).

Roy and Michelle Kindard (the “Kindards”) purchased the property on March 26, 2008. (ECF Nos. 1, 26-1). The Kindards financed the purchase with a loan in the amount of $294,956.00 from DHI Mortgage Company, LTD. (“DHI”). (ECF No. 26-1). DHI secured the loan with a deed of trust, which names DHI as the lender, DHI Title of Nevada, Inc. as the trustee, and Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc. (“MERS”) as the beneficiary as nominee for the lender and lender’s successors and assigns. Id. BANA currently holds all beneficial interest in the deed of trust. See (ECF No. 36-2).

James C. Mahan
U.S. District Judge

1 On October 21, 2010, defendant Arlington West Twilight Homeowners Association
2 (“Arlington”), through its agent defendant Alessi & Koenig, LLC (“A&K”), recorded a notice of 3 delinquent assessment lien (“the lien”) against the property for the Kindards’ failure to pay
4 Arlington in the amount of $850.00. (ECF No. 36-3). On January 31, 2011, Arlington recorded a
5 notice of default and election to sell pursuant to the lien, stating that the amount due was $1,807.00
6 as of November 18, 2010. (ECF No. 36-4).

7 In an attempt to exercise its right of redemption, BANA’s predecessor in interest requested
8 from Arlington the superpriority amount of the lien. (ECF No. 36-7). In response, Arlington
9 provided a payoff ledger showing the Kindards’ total amount due from April 2010 to April 2011.
10 Id. The payoff ledger shows an outstanding balance of $765.00 but does not state what portion of 11 the balance constitutes the superpriority portion of the lien. Id. The ledger also does not include 12 charges for maintenance and nuisance abatement. Id. The ledger does state, however, that 13 Arlington’s monthly assessment against the property was $47.00. Id.

14 BANA’s predecessor in interest used Arlington’s ledger to determine that the superpriority 15 amount was $423.00. Id. On May 10, 2011, BANA’s predecessor in interest sent a letter and a 16 check for that amount to Arlington. Id. The letter explained that the check was the sum of nine 17 months of common assessments and intended to pay off the superpriority portion of the lien. Id.
18 Arlington rejected the check without explanation. Id.

19 On August 14, 2012, Arlington recorded a notice of trustee’s sale against the property.
20 (ECF No. 36-6). On September 12, 2012, Arlington sold the property in a nonjudicial foreclosure
21 sale to defendant Thomas Jessup, LLC in exchange for $7,350.00. (ECF No. 36-8). On October 22 2, 2012, Arlington recorded the trustee’s deed upon sale with the Clark County recorder’s office.
23 Id. Thomas Jessup, LLC, Series IV (“Thomas Jessup Series IV”) acquired the property from 24 Thomas Jessup, LLC via quitclaim deed on May 31, 2013. (ECF No. 1).

25 On March 24, 2016, BANA initiated this action, asserting four causes of action: (1) quiet
26 title/declaratory judgment against all defendants; (2) breach of NRS 116.1113 against Arlington
27 and A&K; (3) wrongful foreclosure against Arlington and A&K; and (4) injunctive relief against 28 Thomas Jessup Series IV. (ECF No. 1). On April 15, 2016, Thomas Jessup Series IV filed an

1 answer and cross/counterclaims, asserting two causes of action: (1) quiet title against all parties
2 and (2) declaratory relief against BANA. (ECF No. 11).

3 On January 26, 2017, the court dismissed BANA’s breach of NRS 116.1113 and wrongful
4 foreclosure claims. (ECF No. 45). On March 22, 2017, the court entered summary judgment,
5 holding that the foreclosure sale extinguished the deed of trust. (ECF No. 47). On April 20, 2017,
6 BANA appealed to the Ninth Circuit. (ECF No. 49). On April 3, 2019, the Ninth Circuit reversed
7 and remanded, directing the court to hold that the bank’s tender of $423 satisfied the superpriority
8 portion of the lien. (ECF No. 56). The court now adjudicates this action consistent with the Ninth 9 Circuit’s mandate.

10 II. Legal Standard

11 The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure allow summary judgment when the pleadings, 12 depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any,
13 show that “there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the movant is entitled to a 14 judgment as a matter of law.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(a). A principal purpose of summary judgment is 15 “to isolate and dispose of factually unsupported claims.” Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 16 323–24 (1986).

17 For purposes of summary judgment, disputed factual issues should be construed in favor
18 of the non-moving party. Lujan v. Nat’l Wildlife Fed., 497 U.S. 871, 888 (1990). However, to be 19 entitled to a denial of summary judgment, the nonmoving party must “set forth specific facts 20 showing that there is a genuine issue for trial.” Id.

21 In determining summary judgment, a court applies a burden-shifting analysis. The moving 22 party must first satisfy its initial burden. “When the party moving for summary judgment would 23 bear the burden of proof at trial, it must come forward with evidence which would entitle it to a 24 directed verdict if the evidence went uncontroverted at trial. In such a case, the moving party has 25 the initial burden of establishing the absence of a genuine issue of fact on each issue material to 26 its case.” C.A.R. Transp. Brokerage Co. v. Darden Rests., Inc., 213 F.3d 474, 480 (9th Cir. 2000)
27 (citations omitted).

28

1           By contrast, when the nonmoving party bears the burden of proving the claim or defense,
2 the moving party can meet its burden in two ways: (1) by presenting evidence to negate an essential
3 element of the non-moving party’s case; or (2) by demonstrating that the nonmoving party failed
4 to make a showing sufficient to establish an element essential to that party’s case on which that 5 party will bear the burden of proof at trial. See Celotex Corp., 477 U.S. at 323–24. If the moving 6 party fails to meet its initial burden, summary judgment must be denied and the court need not 7 consider the nonmoving party’s evidence. See Adickes v. S.H. Kress & Co., 398 U.S. 144, 159– 8 60 (1970).

9           If the moving party satisfies its initial burden, the burden then shifts to the opposing party
10 to establish that a genuine issue of material fact exists. See Matsushita Elec. Indus. Co. v. Zenith
11 Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 586 (1986). To establish the existence of a factual dispute, the 12 opposing party need not establish a material issue of fact conclusively in its favor. It is sufficient 13 that “the claimed factual dispute be shown to require a jury or judge to resolve the parties’ differing 14 versions of the truth at trial.” T.W. Elec. Serv., Inc. v. Pac. Elec. Contractors Ass’n, 809 F.2d 626, 15 631 (9th Cir. 1987).

16           In other words, the nonmoving party cannot avoid summary judgment by relying solely on 17 conclusory allegations that are unsupported by factual data. See Taylor v. List, 880 F.2d 1040, 18 1045 (9th Cir. 1989). Instead, the opposition must go beyond the assertions and allegations of the 19 pleadings and set forth specific facts by producing competent evidence that shows a genuine issue
20 for trial. See Celotex, 477 U.S. at 324.

21           At summary judgment, a court’s function is not to weigh the evidence and determine the 22 truth, but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial. See Anderson v. Liberty Lobby,
23 Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 249 (1986). The evidence of the nonmovant is “to be believed, and all 24 justifiable inferences are to be drawn in his favor.” Id. at 255. But if the evidence of the 25 nonmoving party is merely colorable or is not significantly probative, summary judgment may be 26 granted. See id. at 249–50.

1     III. Discussion

2             Under Nevada law, “[a]n action may be brought by any person against another who claims
3 an estate or interest in real property, adverse to the person bringing the action for the purpose of 4 determining such adverse claim.” Nev. Rev. Stat. § 40.010. “A plea to quiet title does not require
5 any particular elements, but each party must plead and prove his or her own claim to the property
6 in question and a plaintiff’s right to relief therefore depends on superiority of title.” Chapman v.
7 Deutsche Bank Nat’l Trust Co., 302 P.3d 1103, 1106 (Nev. 2013) (citations and internal quotation
8 marks omitted). Therefore, a party must show that its claim to the property is superior to all others
9 in order to succeed on a quiet title action. See also Breliant v. Preferred Equities Corp., 918 P.2d 10 314, 318 (Nev. 1996) (“In a quiet title action, the burden of proof rests with the plaintiff to prove 11 good title in himself.”).

12             Section 116.3116(1) of the Nevada Revised Statutes<sup>1</sup> allows an HOA to place a lien on its 13 homeowners’ residences for unpaid assessments and fines. Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.3116(1).
14 Moreover, NRS 116.3116(2) gives priority to that HOA lien over all other encumbrances with 15 limited exceptions—such as “[a] first security interest on the unit recorded before the date on 16 which the assessment sought to be enforced became delinquent.” Nev. Rev. Stat. § 17 116.3116(2)(b).

18             The statute then carves out a partial exception to the subparagraph (2)(b) exception for first 19 security interests. See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.3116(2). In SFR Investments Pool 1 v. U.S. Bank, the 20 Nevada Supreme Court provided the following explanation:

21                     As to first deeds of trust, NRS 116.3116(2) thus splits an HOA lien into two pieces, 22 a superpriority piece and a subpriority piece. The superpriority piece, consisting of 23 the last nine months of unpaid HOA dues and maintenance and nuisance-abatement
24 charges, is “prior to” a first deed of trust. The subpriority piece, consisting of all 25 other HOA fees or assessments, is subordinate to a first deed of trust.

26             334 P.3d 408, 411 (Nev. 2014) (“SFR Investments”).

27             <sup>1</sup> The 2015 Legislature revised Chapter 116 substantially. 2015 Nev. Stat., ch. 266. Except 28 where otherwise indicated, the references in this order to statutes codified in NRS Chapter 116 are to the version of the statutes in effect in 2011–13, when the events giving rise to this litigation occurred.

1 NRS 116.3116 et seq. (“Chapter 116”) permits an HOA to enforce its superpriority lien
2 with a nonjudicial foreclosure sale. Id. at 415. Thus, “NRS 116.3116(2) provides an HOA a true
3 superpriority lien, proper foreclosure of which will extinguish a first deed of trust.” Id. at 419; see 4 also Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.31162(1) (providing that “the association may foreclose its lien by sale” 5 upon compliance with the statutory notice and timing rules).

6 NRS 116.31166(1) provides that when an HOA forecloses on a property pursuant to NRS
7 116.31164, the following recitals in the deed are conclusive proof of the matters recited:

- 8
- 9 (a) Default, the mailing of the notice of delinquent assessment, and the recording of the notice of default and election to sell;
  - 10 (b) The elapsing of the 90 days; and
  - (c) The giving of notice of sale[.]

11 Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.31166(1)(a)–(c).<sup>2</sup> “The ‘conclusive’ recitals concern . . . all statutory 12 prerequisites to a valid HOA lien foreclosure sale.” See Shadow Wood Homeowners Assoc. v. N.Y.
13 Cnty. Bancorp., Inc., 366 P.3d 1105 (Nev. 2016). Nevertheless, courts retain the equitable 14 authority to consider quiet title actions even when an HOA’s foreclosure deed contains statutorily
15 conclusive recitals. See id. at 1112.

16 Here, the parties have provided the recorded notice of delinquent assessment, the recorded
17 notice of default and election to sell, the recorded notice of trustee’s sale, and the recorded trustee’s
18 deed upon sale. See (ECF Nos. 36-3, 36-4, 36-6, 36-8). Further, the recorded trustee’s deed upon

19

20 <sup>2</sup> The statute further provides as follows:

21

22 2. Such a deed containing those recitals is conclusive against the unit’s 23 former owner, his or her heirs and assigns, and all other persons. The receipt for the 24 purchase money contained in such a deed is sufficient to discharge the purchaser from obligation to see to the proper application of the purchase money.

25

26 3. The sale of a unit pursuant to NRS 116.31162, 116.31163 and 116.31164 27 vests in the purchaser the title of the unit’s owner without equity or right of redemption.

28 Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.31166(2)–(3).

1 sale contains the necessary recitals to establish compliance with NRS 116.31162 through NRS
2 116.31164. (ECF No. 36-8); see Shadow Wood, 466 P.3d at 1112. Therefore, pursuant to NRS
3 116.31166 and the recorded foreclosure deed, the foreclosure sale was valid to the extent that it
4 complied with NRS 116.31162 through NRS 116.31164.

5 While NRS 116.3116 accords certain deed recitals conclusive effect, it does not 6 conclusively entitle the buyer at the HOA foreclosure sale to success on a quiet title claim. See
7 Shadow Wood, 366 P.3d at 1112 (rejecting that NRS 116.31166 defeats, as a matter of law, actions
8 to quiet title). Thus, the question remains whether plaintiff has demonstrated sufficient grounds 9 to justify setting aside the foreclosure sale. See id.

10 “When sitting in equity . . . courts must consider the entirety of the circumstances that bear
11 upon the equities. This includes considering the status and actions of all parties involved, including 12 whether an innocent party may be harmed by granting the desired relief.” Id.

13 BANA argues that the foreclosure sale did not extinguish the deed of trust because 14 BANA’s predecessor in interest tendered the superpriority portion of the lien. (ECF No. 36). In 15 light of the Nevada Supreme Court’s holding in Bank of America, N.A. v. SFR Invs. Pool 1, LLC, 16 427 P.3d 113 (Nev. 2018) (“SFR III”), the court agrees.

17 Under NRS 116.31166(1), the holder of a first deed of trust may pay off the superpriority
18 portion of an HOA lien to prevent the foreclosure sale from extinguishing the deed of trust. See 19 Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.31166(1); see also SFR Investments, 334 P.3d at 414 (“But as a junior 20 lienholder, BOA could have paid off the SHHOA lien to avert loss of its security . . .”). The 21 superpriority portion of the lien consists of “the last nine months of unpaid HOA dues and 22 maintenance and nuisance-abatement charges,” while the subpriority piece consists of “all other 23 HOA fees or assessments.” SFR Investments, 334 P.3d at 411; Horizons at Seven Hills
24 Homeowners Association v. Ikon Holdings, LLC, 373 P.3d 66 (Nev. 2016) (“NRS 116.3116(2)
25 . . . is limited to an amount equal to the common expenses assessments due during the nine months 26 before foreclosure”) (emphasis added).

27 In SFR III, the Nevada Supreme Court held that a foreclosure sale did not extinguish a first
28 deed of trust when Bank of America, the holder of the deed of trust, used the HOA’s

1 representations to calculate and tender the sum of nine months of delinquent assessments. SFR
2 III, 427 P.3d at 121. Although the superpriority portion of an HOA lien typically includes 3 maintenance and nuisance abatement charges, the court held that “Bank of America tendered the 4 correct amount to satisfy the superpriority portion of the lien . . . [because] the HOA did not 5 indicate that the property had any charges for maintenance or nuisance abatement.” Id. at 118.

6 The Nevada Supreme Court’s holding in SFR III controls the court’s analysis in this case.
7 Like SFR III, where Bank of America relied on the HOA’s representations to calculate nine months
8 of assessments, BANA’s predecessor in interest relied on Arlington’s ledger to calculate nine
9 months of assessments. See id. at 118; (ECF No. 36-7). Further, Arlington, like the HOA in SFR
10 III, did not indicate that the property had any charges for maintenance or nuisance abatement. See 11 SFR III, 427 P.3d at 118; (ECF No. 36-7). Thus, when BANA’s predecessor in interest sent to 12 Arlington a check for nine months of common assessments, it properly tendered the superpriority 13 portion of the lien.

14 Therefore, the nonjudicial foreclosure sale did not extinguish the deed of trust. See SFR
15 III, 427 P.3d at 121 (“It follows that after a valid tender of the superpriority portion of an HOA
16 lien, a foreclosure sale . . . cannot extinguish the first deed of trust”); see also Bank of America, 17 N.A. v. Arlington West Twilight Homeowners Association, 920 F.3d 620, 623 (9th Cir. 2019).

18 IV. Conclusion

19 In accordance with the Ninth Circuit’s reversal and remand, the court will grant summary 20 judgment on BANA’s quiet title claim. The court will also dismiss all remaining claims as the 21 court has adjudicated all pertinent issues in this case.

22 Accordingly,

23 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that BANA’s motion for 24 summary judgment (ECF No. 36) be, and the same hereby is, GRANTED, consistent with the 25 foregoing.

26 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Arlington’s motion or summary judgment (ECF No. 37)
27 be, and the same hereby is, DENIED.
