3 this Order in accordance with the terms hereof.

4           2.       Any party or non-party producing or filing documents or other materials in this 5 action may designate such materials and the information contained therein subject to this Order 6 by typing or stamping on the front of the document, or on the portion(s) of the document for 7 which confidential treatment is designated, "Confidential."

8           3.       To the extent any motions, briefs, pleadings, deposition transcripts, or other 9 papers to be filed with the Court incorporate documents or information subject to this Order, the 10 party filing such papers shall designate such materials, or portions thereof, as "Confidential," and 11 shall file them with the clerk under seal; provided, however, that a copy of such filing having the 12 confidential information deleted therefrom may be made part of the public record. Any party 13 filing any document under seal must comply with the requirements of the U.S. District Court for 14 the District of Nevada Local Rules.

15           4.       All documents, transcripts, or other materials subject to this Order, and all 16 information derived therefrom (including, but not limited to, all testimony, deposition, or

20 other than solely for the preparation and trial of this action in accordance with the provisions of 21 this Order.

22           5.       Except with the prior written consent of the individual or entity designating a 23 document or portions of a document as "Confidential," or pursuant to prior Order after notice, 24 any document, transcript or pleading given "Confidential" treatment under this Order, and any 25 information contained in, or derived from any such materials (including but not limited to, all 26 deposition testimony that refers, reflects or otherwise discusses any information designated

2 litigation; (c) counsel for the parties, whether retained counsel or in-house counsel and 3 employees of counsel assigned to assist such counsel in the preparation of this litigation; (d) fact

5 to know such information; (e) present or former employees of the producing party in connection
6 with their depositions in this action (provided that no former employees shall be shown 7 documents prepared after the date of his or her departure; and (f) experts specifically retained as

18 them to any person other than those described above in Paragraph 5 and for the purposes
19 specified, and in no event shall such person make any other use of such document or transcript.

20           8. Nothing in this Order shall prevent a party from using at trial any information or 21 materials designated “Confidential.”

22           9. This Order has been agreed to by the parties to facilitate discovery and the 23 production of relevant evidence in this action. Neither the entry of this Order, nor the 24 designation of any information, document, or the like as “Confidential,” nor the failure to make

5 proceedings with any designation made under this Protective Order, the parties shall first try to 6 resolve such dispute in good faith on an informal basis. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the 7 party objecting to the designation may seek appropriate relief from this Court. During the 8 pendency of any challenge to the designation of a document or information, the designated 9 document or information shall continue to be treated as "Confidential" subject to the provisions
10 of this Protective Order.

11 12. Nothing herein shall affect or restrict the rights of any party with respect to its 12 own documents or to the information obtained or developed independently of documents, 13 transcripts and materials afforded confidential treatment pursuant to this Order.

14 13. The Court retains the right to allow disclosure of any subject covered by this 15 stipulation or to modify this stipulation at any time in the interest of justice.
