UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

AMANDA LEA SEXTON and TONEY
ANTHONEY WHITE,

Plaintiffs,

v.

COUNTY OF CLARK NEVADA et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:16-cv-00734-RFB-VCF

ORDER

Pro se plaintiffs Amanda Lea Sexton and Toney Anthony White, who are pretrial detainees in the custody of the Clark County Detention Center (“CCDC”), have jointly submitted a second amended civil rights complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (ECF No. 13) and have submitted two motions to permit correspondence between plaintiffs (ECF No. 8, 17), a motion for sua sponte review of the amended complaint (ECF No. 10), two applications to proceed in forma pauperis (ECF No. 12, 16), a motion for reconsideration (ECF No. 14), a motion for an extension of time (ECF No. 18), three motions to seal (ECF No. 19, 20, 22), an amended motion for sua sponte review of second amended complaint (ECF No. 25), and a motion to strike applications to proceed in forma pauperis (ECF No. 28). Plaintiff White has paid the full filing fee for this action. (ECF No. 27).

I. SEVERANCE OF CASES

Plaintiffs White and Sexton have filed a joint pro se second amended civil rights complaint. (ECF No. 13). Generally, persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they

1 assert “any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative with respect to or arising
2 out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences” and
3 “any question of law or fact common to all plaintiffs will arise in the action.” Fed. R. Civ.
4 P. 20(a)(1)(A)-(B). Despite this, “the court may at any time, on just terms, add or drop a
5 party . . . [and] may also sever any claim against a party.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 21.

6 The Court finds that, even if the plaintiffs in this action are properly joined, the
7 Court has found that management of pro se multi-plaintiff inmate litigation presents
8 significant burdens to both the parties and the Court. Although pro se litigants have the 9 right to plead and conduct their own cases personally, they have no authority to 10 represent anyone other than themselves. See 28 U.S.C. § 1654; Cato v. United States,
11 70 F.3d 1103, 1105 n.1 (9th Cir. 1995); C.E. Pope Equity Trust v. United States, 818
12 F.2d 696, 697 (9th Cir. 1987). Thus, during the pendency of this case, each individual
13 Plaintiff would be required to sign and submit any individual motions or notices related
14 to their own individual claims in the action. Additionally, each Plaintiff would be required
15 to individually sign any joint motions or notices filed on behalf of both Plaintiffs. Based 16 on the motions to permit joint correspondence between the two inmates, it appears that 17 Plaintiffs will have limited opportunities to discuss case strategy, share discovery, or 18 even provide each other with copies of the motions and notices that they file with the
19 Court because the CDC prohibits inmate-to-inmate mail communications absent
20 exceptions that Plaintiffs do not qualify for. (See ECF No. 8 at 2). Moreover, if 21 convicted, Plaintiffs will most likely be incarcerated at different facilities and would have 22 a difficult time proceeding jointly. Accordingly, the Court severs the cases in light of 23 judicial economy and maintaining efficient control over the Court’s docket.

24 II. IN FORMA PAUPERIS APPLICATIONS

25 Each Plaintiff filed an application to proceed in forma pauperis. (ECF No. 12, 26 16). On September 2, 2016, Plaintiff White paid the full $400 filing fee for this action.
27 (ECF No. 27). Plaintiffs then filed a motion to strike the applications to proceed in forma
28 pauperis because they had paid the full filing fee for this action. (ECF No. 28).

1 In light of the Court's decision to sever this case, the Court denies Plaintiff
2 White's application to proceed in forma pauperis (ECF No. 12) as moot, denies the
3 motion to strike the applications to proceed in forma pauperis (ECF No. 28) as moot,
4 denies the motion for reconsideration about the applications to proceed in forma
5 pauperis (ECF No. 14) as moot, and denies the motion for an extension of time to file
6 applications to proceed in forma pauperis (ECF No. 18) as moot.

7 The Clerk of the Court shall deny Plaintiff Sexton's application to proceed in
8 forma pauperis (ECF No. 16) as moot in this case, but shall docket it as a pending,
9 active motion in the newly severed case.

10 III. MISCELLANEOUS MOTIONS

11 Plaintiffs have filed two motions to permit correspondence for legal purposes
12 between themselves while incarcerated at the CCDC. (ECF No. 8, 17). According to 13 Plaintiffs, the CCDC prohibits inmate-to-inmate mail communications absent exceptions
14 that Plaintiffs do not qualify for. (ECF No. 8 at 2). The Court denies these motions
15 because each Plaintiff must proceed on his or her case individually.

16 Plaintiff White has filed three motions to seal documents. (ECF No. 19, 20, 22).
17 Plaintiff White seeks to seal "sensitive documents" related to his case and notes that
18 Defendants have the originals. (ECF No. 19 at 1; ECF No. 20 at 1; ECF No. 22 at 1).
19 Plaintiff wants to file these documents with the Court in order to prevent loss,
20 destruction, damage, or seizure by Defendants. (Id.) The documents are various kites
21 filed by Plaintiff to Defendants. (ECF No. 19-1, 20-1, 22-1). The Court denies the 22 motions to seal because Plaintiff has neither established a compelling reason or good
23 cause for sealing these documents. See Ctr. for Auto Safety v. Chrysler Grp., LLC, 809
24 F.3d 1092, 1096-99 (9th Cir. 2016).

25 IV. SCREENING OF SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT

26 The Court denies as moot Plaintiffs' motion for the Court to review the first
27 amended complaint because the operative complaint is the second amended complaint.
28 (ECF No. 10). The Court denies as moot Plaintiffs' motion for the Court to review the

1 second amended complaint because the Court will screen the second amended
2 complaint in a separate order. (ECF No. 25). The Court shall issue a screening order
3 on the second amended complaint in the instant case and severed case.

4 V. CONCLUSION

5 For the foregoing reasons, it is ordered that the motion to strike the applications
6 to proceed in forma pauperis (ECF No. 28) is denied as moot.

7 It is further ordered that Plaintiff White's application to proceed in forma pauperis
8 (ECF No. 12) is denied as moot.

9 It is further ordered that the motion for reconsideration (ECF No. 14) is denied as 10 moot.

11 It is further ordered that the motion for extension of time (ECF No. 18) is denied
12 as moot.

13 It is further ordered that the motions to have the Court review the first and second
14 amended complaints (ECF No. 10, 25) are denied as moot.

15 It is further ordered that the motions to permit correspondence (ECF No. 8, 17)
16 are denied.

17 It is further ordered that the motions to seal documents (ECF No. 19, 20, 22) are 18 denied.

19 It is further ordered that the claims of Plaintiffs Amanda Lea Sexton and Toney
20 Anthony White are severed from each other.

21 It is further ordered that Plaintiff Toney Anthony White shall proceed as the sole
22 plaintiff in the instant case, 2:16-cv-00734-RFB-VCF.

23 It is further ordered that the Clerk of the Court is directed to:

- 24 1. Open a separate civil action for Plaintiff Amanda Lea Sexton;
- 25 2. Assign Plaintiff Sexton's action to the district judge and magistrate judge 26 to whom the instant case is assigned and make appropriate adjustments in the 27 assignment of civil cases for such assignment;
- 28 3. File and docket a copy of this order in Plaintiff Sexton's new case;

4. File and docket Plaintiff Sexton's application to proceed in forma pauperis (ECF No. 16) in her new case and designate the application as an active, pending motion;

5. Deny as moot Plaintiff Sexton's application to proceed in forma pauperis (ECF No. 16) in the instant case.

6. Place a copy of the second amended complaint (ECF No. 13), submitted on June 7, 2016, in Plaintiff Sexton's newly severed case; and

7. Send Plaintiff Sexton an inmate advisory letter bearing her new case name and case number.

It is further ordered that the Court will issue separate screening orders on the second amended complaint in the instant case and in Plaintiff Sexton's severed case.

DATED THIS 29th day of September 2016.
