Attorneys for Defendants

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

9 JAMES E. ROBINSON, PRO SE

10 Plaintiff,

11 vs.

12 DUNGARVIN NEVADA, L.L.C., CHARLOTTE
13 MCCLANAHAN, AND BARBARA JORDAN

14 Defendants

Case No.: 2:16-cv-00902-JAD-PAL

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

15
16 In order to protect the confidentiality of sensitive and confidential information 17 obtained by the parties in connection with this case, the parties hereby agree as follows:

18 1. Any party or non-party may designate as “confidential” (by stamping the 19 relevant page or as otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery 20 which that party or non-party considers in good faith to contain confidential information 21 involving proprietary information, confidential business, financial, health, or personal 22 information subject to protection under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or federal 23 or Nevada law (“Confidential Information”). Where a document or response consists of 24 more than one page, the first page, and each page on which confidential information 25 appears shall be so designated.

26 2. A party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a 27 deposition or in a response to written discovery as “confidential” so indicating in said 28 response or on the record at the deposition and requesting the preparation of a

1 separate transcript of such material. Additionally, a party or non-party may designate in 2 writing, within twenty (20) days after a receipt of said responses or of the deposition
3 transcript for which the designation is proposed, that specific pages of the transcript
4 and/or specific responses be treated as “confidential” information. Any other party may 5 object to such proposal, in writing or on the record. Upon such objection, the parties
6 shall follow the procedures described in paragraph 8 below. After any designation made 7 according to the procedure set forth in this paragraph, the designated documents or 8 information shall be treated according to the designation until the matter is resolved 9 according to the procedures described in paragraph 8 below, and each party shall be 10 responsible for making all previously unmarked copies of the designated material in 11 their possession or control with the specified designation.

12 3. All information produced or exchanged in the course of this case (other 13 than information that is publicly available) shall be used by the party or parties to whom 14 the information is produced solely for the purpose of this case.

15 4. Except with the prior written consent of the parties, or upon order of this 16 Court obtained upon notice to the opposing party, Confidential Information shall not be 17 disclosed to any person other than:

- 18 a. Counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-19 house, corporate, and co-counsel retained for this litigation;
- 20 b. Employees of such counsel;
- 21 c. Individual parties to the lawsuit;
- 22 d. Officers or employees of a party, to the extent deemed necessary 23 for the prosecution or defense of this litigation;
- 24 e. Consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or 25 defense of this litigation, provided each such person shall execute a 26 copy of the Certification annexed to this Order as “Exhibit A” (which 27 shall be retained by counsel to the party so disclosing the 28 Confidential Information and made available for inspection by the

1                   opposing party during the pendency or after the termination of the 2                   action only upon good cause shown and upon order of the Court)
3                   before being shown or given any Confidential Information and 4                   provided that if the party chooses a consultant or expert employed 5                   by Dungarvin, or one of its competitors, the party shall notify the 6                   opposing party, or designating non-party, before disclosing any 7                   Confidential Information to that individual and shall give the 8                   opposing party an opportunity to move for a protective order 9                   preventing or limiting such disclosure;

- 10                   f. Any authors or original recipients of the Confidential Information;
- 11                   g. The Court, Court personnel, and court reporters; and
- 12                   h. Witnesses (other than persons described in paragraph 4(e)). A 13                   witness shall sign the certification before being shown a confidential
14                   document. Confidential Information may be disclosed to a witness 15                   who will not sign the certification only in a deposition at which the 16                   party who designated the Confidential Information is represented or 17                   has been given notice that Confidential Information shall be 18                   designated “Confidential” pursuant to paragraph 2 above.
19                   Witnesses shown confidential information shall not be allowed to 20                   retain copies.

21                   5. Any persons receiving Confidential Information shall not reveal or discuss 22                   such information to or with any person who is not entitled to receive such information, 23                   except as set forth herein.

24                   6. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule, or prior court order, papers 25                   filed with the Court under seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for 26                   leave to file those under seal, and shall be filed consistent with the Court’s electronic 27                   filing procedures in accordance with Local Rule 10-5(b). Notwithstanding any 28                   agreement among the parties, the party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the

1 burden of overcoming the presumption in favor of public access to papers filed in court.
2 Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.2d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006).

3 7. A party may designate as “Confidential” documents or discovery materials 4 produced by a non-party by providing written notice to all parties of the relevant 5 document numbers or other identification within thirty (30) days of receiving such 6 documents or discovery materials. Any party or non-party may voluntarily disclose to 7 others without restriction any information designated by that party or non-party as 8 confidential, although a document may lose its confidential status if it is made public.

9 8. If a party contends that any material is not entitled to confidential 10 treatment, such party may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who 11 designated the material. The party or non-party who designated the material shall have 12 twenty-five (25) days from the receipt of such written notice to apply to the Court for an 13 order designating the material as confidential. The party or non-party seeking the order 14 has the burden of establishing that the document is entitled to protection.

15 9. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as 16 Confidential Information, all documents shall be treated as such and shall be subject to 17 the provisions hereof unless and until one of the following occurs:

- 18 a. The party or non-party claiming the Confidential Information 19 designation withdraws such designation in writing; or 20 b. The party or non-party who claims the material is Confidential 21 Information fails to apply to the Court for an order designating the 22 material confidential within the time period specified above after 23 receipt of a written challenge to such designation; or 24 c. The Court rules the material is not confidential.

25 10. All provisions of this Order restricting the communication or use of 26 Confidential Information shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action, 27 unless otherwise agreed or ordered. Upon conclusion of the litigation, a party in the

28 ///

1 possession of Confidential Information, other than that which is contained in pleadings, 2 correspondence, and deposition transcripts shall either:

- 3 a. Return such documents no later than thirty (30) days after the 4 conclusion of this action to counsel for the party or non-party who 5 provided such information, or 6 b. Destroy such documents within the time period upon consent of the 7 party who provided the information and certify in writing within thirty 8 (30) days that the documents have been destroyed.

9 11. The terms of this Order do not preclude, limit, restrict, or otherwise apply 10 to use of documents at trial.

11 12. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work 12 product protection, or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an inadvertent 13 disclosure of material protected by privilege or work product protection.

14 13. Any witness or other person, firm, or entity from which discovery is sought 15 may be informed of and may obtain the protection of this Order by written advice to the 16 parties' respective counsel or parties representing themselves or by oral advice at the 17 time of any deposition or similar proceeding.

18 SO ORDERED, this 24th day of January, 2017.

EXHIBIT A

CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify my understanding that Confidential Information is being provided to me pursuant to the terms and restrictions of the Stipulated Protective Order in James E. Robinson v. Dungarvin Nevada, LLC, et al., Case No. 2:16-cv-00902-JAD-PAL. I have been given a copy of that Order and I read it. I agree to be bound by the Order. I will not reveal Confidential Information to anyone or use the Confidential Information, except as expressly allowed by the Order. I will maintain all such Confidential Information – including copies, notes, or other transcriptions made therefrom – in a secure manner to prevent unauthorized access to it. No later than thirty (30) days after the conclusion of this action, I will return the Confidential Information – including copies, notes, or other transcriptions made therefrom – to the party who provided me with the Confidential Information. I hereby consent to the personal jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the District of Nevada for the purpose of enforcing the Stipulated Protective Order.
