Case No. 2:16-cv-00932-JCM-GWF

ORDER

13 This matter is before the Court on the parties' Proposed Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order
14 (ECF No. 23), filed on August 12, 2016. The parties request a 180-day discovery period, which is to 15 commence following the court's ruling on Defendants' motion to dismiss. The parties are in effect
16 requesting a stay of discovery pending Defendants' motion to dismiss. However, the parties have not 17 set forth the requisite good cause to support a stay of discovery under the case law in this district.
18 Accordingly,

19 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the parties' Proposed Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order
20 (ECF No. 23) is denied. The parties may submit a revised proposed discovery plan and scheduling
21 order that sets forth specific dates for discovery and all related deadlines. If the parties desire to stay
22 discovery pending a decision on Defendants' motion to dismiss, they may file a motion to stay
23 discovery supported by good cause.

24 DATED this 15th day of August, 2016.
