

1 significant harm. The Ninth Circuit has held that there is a presumption of public access to judicial 2 files and records, and that parties seeking to maintain the confidentiality of documents attached to 3 nondispositive motions must show good cause exists to overcome the presumption of public access.
4 See Kamakana 447 F.3d at 1179. Parties seeking to maintain the secrecy of documents attached to 5 dispositive motions must show compelling reasons sufficient to overcome the presumption of public
6 access. Id. at 1180. All motions to seal must address the applicable standard and explain why
7 that standard has been met. The fact that a court has entered a blanket stipulated protective order 8 and that a party has designated a document as confidential pursuant to that protective order does not,
9 standing alone, establish sufficient grounds to seal a filed document. See Foltz v. State Farm Mut.
10 Auto. Ins. Co., 331 F.3d 1122, 1133 (9th Cir. 2003); see also Beckman Indus., Inc. v. Int'l Ins. Co., 11 966 F.2d 470, 476 (9th Cir. 1992).

12 If the sole ground for a motion to seal is that the opposing party (or non-party) has designated 13 a document as subject to protection pursuant to the stipulated protective order, the movant must 14 notify the opposing party (or non-party) at least seven days prior to filing the designated document.
15 The designating party must then make a good faith determination if the relevant standard for sealing
16 is met. To the extent the designating party does not believe the relevant standard for sealing can be 17 met, it shall indicate that the document may be filed publicly no later than four days after receiving 18 notice of the intended filing. To the extent the designating party believes the relevant standard for 19 sealing can be met, it shall provide a declaration supporting that assertion no later than four days 20 after receiving notice of the intended filing. The filing party shall then attach that declaration to its 21 motion to seal the designated material. If the designating party fails to provide such a declaration
22 in support of the motion to seal, the filing party shall file a motion to seal so indicating and the Court
23 may order the document filed in the public record.<sup>1</sup>

24 IT IS ORDERED that counsel shall comply with the requirements of Local Rule IA 10-5, 25

26 <sup>1</sup> In the event of an emergency motion, the above procedures shall not apply. Instead, the 27 movant shall file a motion to seal and the designating party shall file a declaration in support of that 28 motion to seal within three days of its filing. If the designating party fails to timely file such a declaration, the Court may order the document filed in the public record.

1 the Ninth Circuit's decision in Kamakana, 447 F.3d 1172, and the procedures outlined above, with 2 respect to any documents filed under seal. To the extent any aspect of the stipulated protective order
3 may conflict with this order or Local Rule IA 10-5, that aspect of the stipulated protective order is 4 hereby superseded with this order.

5 IT IS SO ORDERED.
