10 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

11 ROBERT JACKSON

12 Plaintiff,

13 v.

14 STATE OF NEVADA, et al.,

15 Defendant(s).
 16

Case No.: 2:16-CV-00995-APG-NJK

STIPULATION AND ORDER TO EXTEND TIME TO CONFER ON APPROPRIATE
 INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

(FOURTH REQUEST)

17 Plaintiff Robert Jackson ("Mr. Jackson"), by and through his undersigned counsel,
 18 and remaining Defendants Jennifer Nash and Brian Williams (in their official capacities),
 19 ("Defendants"), by and through their undersigned counsel, hereby stipulate and agree to 20 extend the time to confer about the appropriate injunctive relief, as ordered in the Order
 21 (1) Granting in Part Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment and (2) Granting in Part
 22 Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment ("Order"). (ECF No. 104) The Court entered the 23 Parties' Stipulation and Order to Extend Time to Confer on Appropriate Relief on 24 December 20, 2019 (ECF No. 108), the Stipulation and Order to Extend Time to Confer on 25 Appropriate Injunctive Relief (Second Request) on January 24, 2020 (ECF No. 114), and 26 Stipulation and Order to Extend Time to Confer on Appropriate Injunctive Relief (Third 27 Request) on March 10, 2020 (ECF No. 117).
 28

1 Since this Court extended the time to confer about injunctive relief on March 10,
2 2020, prison staff have begun to implement a temporary vegan menu for Plaintiff at High
3 Desert State Prison approved by a certified dietician and provided Plaintiff with nutritional
4 information concerning the temporary menu. As of the date of this filing, the temporary
5 vegan diet for Mr. Jackson has been implemented. Prison staff continue to work toward a
6 more permanent vegan menu for Mr. Jackson, with new vegan food items. That permanent 7 vegan option will be implemented as soon as possible, with the next fiscal quarter, which 8 begins in July of 2020, being the target date.

9 Counsel for the parties were able to have a meet and confer regarding the injunctive
10 relief and timeline on Tuesday, May 12, 2020. In addition, counsel have been exchanging 11 emails since that date in continued meet and confer discussions. Mr. Jackson's counsel was 12 also able to have an attorney-client phone call on or about Tuesday, May 19, 2020 about 13 the scope of the injunction and the recent implementation of the certified vegan diet.
14 Defendants' counsel also participated in a phone conference on Tuesday, May 19, 2020 with 15 relevant NDOC staff in order to discuss the groundwork for implementing the more 16 permanent vegan diet for Mr. Jackson.

17 The parties in good faith believe that providing additional time for the parties to 18 continue to meet and confer on the scope of Mr. Jackson's vegan diet will hopefully result
19 in the resolution of the injunctive relief portion of this lawsuit. The ongoing complications
20 associated with coronavirus and staffing changes at the Office of the Attorney General have 21 caused delays. The parties need additional time to finalize plans concerning the permanent 22 vegan menu, to complete the mediation process, and allow Mr. Jackson sufficient time to 23 consider the sufficiency of the permanent vegan menu. Counsel for the parties are 24 optimistic and believe that, with additional time and discussion, an agreement may be met.
25 The parties anticipate that this will be the final request for an extension.

26 In addition to the continued discussions regarding the scope of injunctive relief, the 27 parties have participated in an ongoing Ninth Circuit mediation proceeding in an effort to 28

1 resolve this matter. The parties are hopeful that the continued mediation efforts at the
2 Ninth Circuit would resolve the remaining aspects of this case.

3 Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that the current deadlines set forth in 4 the Order be extended approximately sixty (60) days as follows:

5 Deadline for the parties to confer about the appropriate injunctive relief: July 7,
6 2020;

7 Deadline for Jackson to submit a brief with the proposed relief in the event parties
8 cannot agree: July 28, 2020;

9 Deadline for remaining Defendants to submit their response: August 18, 2020.
