17 (NAS) by and through their attorneys of record, stipulate to the following Protective Order:

18 To expedite the flow of discovery, facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes over 19 confidentiality, adequately protect material claimed to be confidential, and ensure protection is 20 afforded only to material so designated, it is, pursuant to the Court's authority under Federal Rules of 21 Civil Procedure 26(c), ORDERED this Protective Order shall govern the disclosure, handling and 22 disposition of documents in this litigation as follows:

23 . . .
24 . . .
25 . . .
26 . . .
27 . . .

1 1. Application.

2 1.1 This Protective Order shall govern any document, information or other material 3 that is designated as containing "Confidential Information" as defined herein, and is produced in 4 connection with this litigation by any person or entity (the "producing party"), whether in response to 5 a discovery request, subpoena or otherwise, to any other person or entity (the "receiving party") 6 regardless of whether the person or entity producing or receiving such information is a party to this 7 litigation.

8 2. Definitions.

9 2.1 Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" shall mean and include, 10 without limitation, any non-public information that concerns or relates to the following areas: 11 confidential proprietary information, trade secrets, practices and procedures, personal financial 12 information, commercial, financial, pricing, budgeting, and/or accounting information, information 13 about existing and potential customers, marketing studies, performance projections, business 14 strategies, decisions and/or negotiations, personnel compensation, evaluations and other employment 15 information, and confidential proprietary information about affiliates, parents, subsidiaries and third-16 parties with whom the parties to this action have or have had business relationships.

17 2.2 Documents. As used herein, the term "documents" includes all writings, 18 records, files, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, e-mails, video tapes, audio tapes, compact discs, 19 electronic messages, other data compilations from which information can be obtained and other 20 tangible things subject to production under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

21 3. Initial Designation.

22 3.1 Good Faith Claims. Claims of confidentiality will be made only with respect to 23 documents, other tangible things and information that the asserting party has a good faith belief are 24 within the definition set forth in subparagraph 2.1 of this Protective Order. Objections to such claims 25 made pursuant to paragraph 5, below, shall also be made only in good faith.

26 3.2 Produced Documents. A party producing documents that it believes constitute 27 or contain Confidential Information shall state that the material is being produced under this 28 Protective Order by describing the documents or materials to be treated as confidential in writing, by

1 page or bates number wherever possible and/or shall produce copies bearing a label that contains or 2 includes language substantially identical to the following:

3 CONFIDENTIAL

4 This label shall be affixed in a manner that does not obliterate or obscure the contents of the 5 copies. If any person or party makes copies of documents designated as containing Confidential
6 Information, the copying person or party shall mark each such copy as containing Confidential
7 Information in the same form as the Confidentiality notice on the original document.

8 A party producing documents that are stored on electronic, magnetic, optical or other non-paper
9 media, such as compact discs, DVD's, video tapes and audio tapes (collectively, "data storage 10 devices") shall designate the data storage device as containing Confidential Information, by affixing a 11 label or stamp to the data storage device in the manner described above at the time copies of such data 12 storage devices are produced. If the receiving party or other persons or entities to whom disclosure is 13 authorized pursuant to subparagraph 7.1 make a copy of any data storage device designated by the 14 producing party as containing Confidential Information, the receiving party or other authorized person 15 shall mark each such copy as containing Confidential Information in the same form as the 16 confidentiality notice on the original data storage device produced. If the receiving party or other 17 authorized person prints out or otherwise makes copies of the documents or information stored on 18 such data storage device, the receiving party or other authorized person shall mark each page so 19 copied with the label or stamp specified in subparagraph 3.2.

20 3.3 Interrogatory Answers. If a party answering an interrogatory or other discovery
21 demand believes that its answer contains Confidential Information, it shall state so in the interrogatory 22 response, and that portion of the response will be entitled to the protections of this order.

23 3.4 Inspection of Documents. In the event a party elects to produce files and 24 records for inspection and the requesting party elects to inspect them, no designation of Confidential 25 Information needs to be made in advance of the inspection. For purposes of such inspection, all 26 material produced shall be considered as Confidential Information. If the inspecting party selects 27 specified documents to be copied, the producing party shall designate Confidential Information in 28 accordance with subparagraph 3.2 at the time the copies are produced.

1 3.5 Deposition Transcripts. The party asserting confidentiality shall state on the 2 record the portions it deems confidential. The failure to designate testimony on the record as 3 confidential shall be a waiver unless the designating party notifies all other parties and files a motion 4 to designate the testimony as confidential within 5 days of the notification.

5 3.6 Inadvertent Failure to Designate. Inadvertent failure to identify documents or 6 things as "Confidential" pursuant to this Protective Order shall not constitute a waiver of any 7 otherwise valid claim for protection, provided that the provisions of this paragraph are satisfied. If the 8 designating party discovers that information should have but was not designated "Confidential" or of 9 the designating party receives notice that would enable the designated party to learn that it has 10 disclosed such information, the designating party must immediately notify all other parties. In such 11 event, within thirty (30) days of notifying all other parties, the designating parties must also provide 12 copies of the "Confidential" information designated in accordance with this Protective Order. After 13 receipt of such re-designated information, the "Confidential" information shall be treated as required 14 by this Protective Order, and the receiving party(ies) shall promptly, and in no event more than 15 fourteen (14) calendar days from the receipt of the re-designated information, return to the designated 16 party all previously produced copies of the same unlegended documents or things. The designating 17 party and the parties may agree to alternative means. The receiving party(ies) shall receive no 18 liability, under this Protective Order or otherwise, for any disclosure of information contained in 19 unlegended documents or things occurring before the receiving party was placed on notice of the 20 designating party's claims of confidentiality.

21 4. Designations by Another Party.

22 4.1 Notification of Designation. If a party other than the producing party believes 23 that a producing party has produced a document that contains or constitutes Confidential Information 24 of the non-producing party, the non-producing party may designate the document as Confidential 25 Information by so notifying all parties in writing within fourteen (14) days of service of the document.

26 4.2 Return of Documents; Non-disclosure. Whenever a party other than the 27 producing party designates a document produced by a producing party as Confidential Information in 28 accordance with subparagraph 4.1, each party receiving the document shall either add the Confidential

1 Information designation in accordance with subparagraph 3.2 or substitute a copy of the document
2 bearing such designation for each copy of the document produced by the producing party. Each party 3 shall destroy all undesignated copies of the document or return those copies to the producing party, at 4 the direction of the producing party. No party shall disclose a produced document to any person, other 5 than the persons authorized to receive Confidential Information under subparagraph 7.1, until after the 6 expiration of the fourteen (14) day designation period specified in subparagraph 4.1. If during the 7 fourteen (14) day designation period a party discloses a produced document to a person authorized to 8 receive Confidential Information under subparagraph 7.1, and that document is subsequently 9 designated as Confidential Information in accordance with subparagraph 4.1, the disclosing party shall 10 cause all copies of the document to be destroyed or returned to the producing party, at the direction of 11 the producing party. The party may thereafter disclose a copy of the document that has been marked 12 as Confidential Information by the designating party, in accordance with subparagraphs 3.2 and 7.1.

13 5. Objections to Designations. Any party objecting to a designation of Confidential 14 Information, including objections to portions of designations of multi-page documents, shall notify the 15 designating party and all other parties of the objection in writing up to and through trial of the matter.
16 This notice must specifically identify each document that the objecting party in good faith believes 17 should not be designated as Confidential Information and provide a brief statement of the grounds for 18 such belief. In accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure governing discovery disputes, 19 the objecting and the designating parties thereafter shall confer within ten (10) days after the date of 20 such objection in an attempt to resolve their differences. If the parties are unable to resolve their 21 differences, the objecting party shall have twenty one (21) days after the conference concludes to file 22 with the Court a motion to remove the Confidential Information. If an objection is served within 23 forty-two (42) days of trial, the objecting party must file its motion to remove the Confidential
24 Information designation within half of the remaining time before trial, and the meet-and-confer period 25 shall be shortened accordingly. Where a party authored, created, owns, or controls a document, 26 information or other material that another party designates as Confidential Information, the party that 27 authored, created, owns, or controls the Confidential Information may so inform the objecting party 28 and thereafter shall also be considered a designating party for purposes of this paragraph.

1 All documents, information and other materials initially designated as Confidential Information
2 shall be treated as such in accordance with this Protective Order unless and until the Court rules 3 otherwise, except for deposition transcripts and exhibits initially considered as containing 4 Confidential Information under subparagraph 3.5, which will lose their confidential status after 5 twenty-one (21) days unless so designated as Confidential Information. If the Court rules that a 6 designation should not be maintained as to a particular document, the producing party shall, upon 7 written request by a party, provide that party a copy of that document without the designation 8 described in subparagraph 3.2.

9 If an objecting party elects not to make such a motion with respect to documents within twenty 10 one (21) days after the conference, information or other materials to which an objection has been 11 made, the objection shall be deemed withdrawn. The designating party shall have twenty one (21) 12 days to respond to the objecting party's motion. If no response is filed by the designating party within 13 twenty one (21) days, the designating party shall be deemed to have consented to the objecting party's 14 motion pursuant to LR 7-2(d)..

15 6. Custody. All Confidential Information and any and all copies, extracts and summaries 16 thereof, including memoranda relating thereto, shall be retained by the receiving party in the custody 17 of counsel of record, or by persons to whom disclosure is authorized under subparagraph 7.1.

18 7. Handling Prior to Trial.

19 7.1 Authorized Disclosures. Confidential Information shall be disclosed by the 20 receiving party only to the following persons:

- 21 a. Counsel for the parties in this litigation, including their associates, clerks, 22 paralegals, and secretarial personnel;
- 23 b. Qualified persons taking testimony in this litigation involving such 24 Confidential Information, and necessary stenographic, videotape and 25 clerical personnel;
- 26 c. Experts and their staff who are retained by counsel as expert witnesses for 27 a party in this litigation;

- 1 d. Experts and their staff who are consulted by counsel for a party in this 2 litigation;
- 3 e. Parties to this litigation, limited to the named party and, if that party is a 4 corporate entity, a limited number of employees of the corporate entity 5 and its insurers;
- 6 f. Designated in-house counsel and a limited number of assistants, 7 administrative or otherwise;
- 8 g. Outside vendors employed by counsel for copying, scanning and general 9 handling of documents;
- 10 h. Any person of whom testimony is taken regarding the Confidential 11 Information, except that such person may only be shown Confidential 12 Information during his/her testimony, and may not retain a copy of such 13 Confidential Information; and
- 14 i. This Court and this Court's staff, subject to the Court's processes for filing 15 materials under seal.

16 Such disclosures are authorized only to the extent necessary to investigate, prosecute, or 17 defend the litigation.

18 Confidential Information may not be disclosed to persons under subparagraphs (c) or (d) until 19 the receiving party has obtained a written acknowledgment from the person receiving Confidential
20 Information, in the form of the Declaration attached hereto as Exhibit A, that he or she has received a 21 copy of this Protective Order and has agreed to be bound by it. A party who discloses Confidential 22 Information in accordance with subparagraph 7.1 shall retain the written acknowledgment from each 23 person receiving Confidential Information, shall maintain a list of all persons to whom a receiving 24 party has disclosed Confidential Information and identify what documents have been disclosed, and 25 shall furnish the written acknowledgments and disclosure list to opposing counsel as follows: (i) for a 26 person under subparagraph (c), within thirty (30) days after the person signs the Declaration; and (ii) 27 for a person under subparagraph (d), within thirty (30) days after the matter is finally concluded.
28

1 Disclosure of Confidential Information to this Court, including judicial staff, shall be made in 2 accordance with subparagraph 7.4 of this Protective Order.

3 7.2 Unauthorized Disclosures. All persons receiving Confidential Information 4 under the terms of this Protective Order are under the jurisdiction of the state courts and U.S. federal 5 courts located in Nevada for all matters arising from the improper disclosure or use of such 6 information. If Confidential Information is disclosed to any person other than in the manner
7 authorized by this Protective Order, the party or person responsible for the disclosure, and any other 8 party or person who is subject to this Protective Order and learns of such disclosure, shall immediately 9 bring such disclosure to the attention of the designating party. Without prejudice to other rights and 10 remedies of the designating party, the responsible party or person shall make every effort to obtain 11 and return the Confidential Information and to prevent further disclosure on its own part or on the part 12 of the person who was the unauthorized recipient of such information.

13 See order issued concurrently herewith.

15
16
17
18
19 8. Care in Storage. Any person in possession of Confidential Information produced by 20 another party shall exercise reasonable and appropriate care with regard to the storage, custody, 21 copying, and use of such information to ensure that the confidential and sensitive nature of same is 22 maintained.

23 9. Handling During Trial. Confidential Information that is subject to this Order may be 24 marked and used as trial exhibits by either party, subject to terms and conditions as imposed by the 25 Court upon application by any party.

26 10. No Implied Waivers. This Protective Order shall not be interpreted as a waiver of the 27 right to object, under applicable law, to the furnishing of information in response to discovery requests 28 or to object to a requested inspection of documents or facilities. Parties producing Confidential

1 Information in this litigation are doing so only pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order. The 2 taking of any action in accordance with the provisions of this Protective Order shall not be interpreted 3 as a waiver of any claim or position or defense in this action, or any other actions.

4 11. No Admission. The designation of any item as Confidential Information shall not be 5 construed as an admission that such material, or any testimony concerning such material, would be 6 admissible in evidence in this litigation or in any other proceeding.

7 12. Inadvertent Disclosure. Nothing in this Protective Order abridges applicable law
8 concerning inadvertent disclosure of a document that the Disclosing Party believes contains attorney-9 client communications, attorney work product, or otherwise privileged information. If a party 10 inadvertently discloses documents or information subject to a claim of privilege or work product 11 protection, such disclosure will not waive otherwise applicable claims of privilege or work product 12 protection under applicable law. Upon discovery by the Receiving Party, or receipt of written notice 13 from the Disclosing Party identifying privileged or protected Documents that were inadvertently 14 produced, the receiving party shall within seven (7) business days either: (a) return or certify the 15 destruction of all such documents, all copies, and any work product or portions of any work product 16 containing or reflecting the contents of the subject materials; or (b) after attempting to resolve any 17 dispute with opposing counsel informally, file a motion to challenge the assertion of privilege and 18 tender the subject documents for in camera review with the motion. The moving party shall do 19 nothing to compromise the privilege claim until the Court rules on said motion and the opportunity for 20 appellate review is exhausted or the issue is otherwise resolved.

21 13. Parties' Own Documents. This Protective Order shall in no way restrict the parties in 22 their use of their own documents and information, and nothing in this Protective Order shall preclude 23 any party from voluntarily disclosing its own documents or information to any party or nonparty.

24 14. Motion by Third Party to Compel Production of Confidential Information. If any 25 third party subpoenas Confidential Information from a party to this action or moves to compel a party 26 to this action to produce any such information, such party shall immediately notify the parties who 27 originally produced and/or designated such information that a subpoena has been served or a motion 28 has been made in order to allow the parties who originally produced and/or designated such

1 information the opportunity to seek a protective order or oppose the motion or application. If, within 2 thirty (30) days after receiving notice of a subpoena seeking Confidential Information from a 3 receiving party, the party who originally produced and/or designated such information fails to move
4 for a protective order, the party subject to the subpoena may produce said information. In addition, if a 5 party is ordered to produce Confidential Information covered by this Protective Order, then notice 6 and, if available, a copy of the order compelling disclosure shall immediately be given the parties who 7 originally produced and/or designated such information. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be 8 construed as requiring the party who is ordered to produce such Confidential Information to challenge 9 or appeal any order requiring the production of such information or to subject himself/herself to any 10 penalty for non-compliance with any legal process or seek any relief from the Court.

11 15. No Effect on Other Rights. This Protective Order shall in no way abrogate or 12 diminish any pre-existing contractual, statutory, or other legal obligations or rights of any party with 13 respect to Confidential Information.

14 16. Modification. In the event any party hereto seeks a Court order to modify the terms of 15 this Protective Order, or seeks a protective order which incorporates the terms and conditions of this 16 Protective Order said party shall make such request by written stipulation or noticed motion to all 17 parties that must be served and filed in accordance with local court rules.

18 17. Handling Upon Conclusion of Litigation. All parties, counsel, and persons to whom 19 disclosure was made agree to return all Confidential Information to the designating party within thirty 20 (30) days of the conclusion of litigation between the parties, including final appellate action or the 21 expiration of time to appeal or seek further review. In addition, counsel shall certify in writing that all 22 such Confidential Information have been returned. Counsel for each party also shall contact each 23 person to whom that party has provided a copy of any Confidential Information and request the 24 documents be returned. In lieu of returning Confidential Information, the person or party in possession 25 of such information may elect to destroy it. If the person or party in possession of Confidential 26 Information elects to destroy it rather than return it, that person or party must notify the designating 27 party in writing of the destruction of the information within ninety (90) days of the conclusion of 28

1 litigation between the parties, including final appellate action or the expiration of time to appeal or 2 seek further review.

3 18. Survival of the Terms of this Protective Order. Even after the termination of this 4 litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this Protective Order shall remain in effect until 5 a Designating Party otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs.
