DISCOVERY COMPLETED TO DATE

1
2 Plaintiff, CHRISTOPHER GARDNER, Individually and as heir and as Special
3 Administrator for THE ESTATE OF ELLEN FINNIE GALLUCCI (“Plaintiff”), has produced
4 his first supplement to Rule 26 disclosures to LAS VEGAS METROPOLITAN POLICE
5 DEPARTMENT and SHERIFF JOSEPH LOMBARDO (“Defendants”). Plaintiff has produced
6 written discovery requests (Interrogatories and Requests for Production of Documents) on 7 Defendants. Defendants have answered said requests. Plaintiff has also taken the depositions of 8 several LVMPD officers.

9
10 Defendants have produced their first, second, third and fourth supplements to their Rule
11 26 disclosures. Defendants have also served Plaintiff with their initial written discovery requests
12 and a second set (Interrogatories and Requests for Production of Documents). Plaintiff has 13 responded to Defendant’s both sets.

14
15 The depositions of five (5) individual LVMPD Officers have been taken. Additional 16 depositions of more LVMPD Officers were scheduled; however, those had to be vacated due to 17 conflicts with the schedules of Counsels and the Officers.

18
19 DISCOVERY YET TO BE COMPLETED

20 Plaintiffs will take depositions of several more of the officers involved, which 21 previously had to be cancelled. Both parties will schedule depositions of third-party witnesses.
22 The parties will disclose experts and rebuttal expert reports.

24 REASONS WHY REMAINING DISCOVERY HAS NOT BEEN COMPLETED

25 With a case of this size and complexity, the parties request to extend discovery deadlines
26 to be sure the expert witnesses are disclosed and discovery is completed in a timely manner.
27 Throughout the discovery already completed, additional facts, parties, and witnesses have been
28

1 discovered. Both parties wish to be thorough in their investigations of the extensive
2 documentation on this incident and be sure all the correct information is disclosed. Moreover,
3 there have been delays in discovery concerning deposition transcripts and scheduling
4 depositions. Those delays are more particularly set out herein.

5 Plaintiff filed a Second Amended Complaint naming the officers involved in the 6 incident. Defendants have filed a Motion to Dismiss the Second Amended Complaint. Plaintiff
7 has filed his Opposition, and the parties are waiting to hear the judge's decision.
8

9 PROPOSED EXTENDED DEADLINES

10 Accordingly, it is hereby stipulated and respectfully requested that this Court enter an 11 order as follows:

12 A. Discovery Cut-Off Date:

13 The parties propose that the discovery cut-off date be extended 90 days to Tuesday,
14 June 12, 2018.

15 B. FRCP 26(a)(2) Disclosure of Experts:

16 Disclosure of experts shall proceed according to FRCP Rule 26(a)(2) and LR 26-
17 1(e)(3) as follows: the disclosure of experts and their reports shall occur on or before April 13,
18 2018. The disclosure of rebuttal experts and their reports shall occur on or before May 14, 2018.
19 These deadlines are 60 and 30 days before the proposed discovery cut-off date, respectively.
20

22 C. Dispositive Motions:

23 The parties shall have until July 12, 2018 to file dispositive motions. This is 30 days
24 after the discovery cut-off date, as required by LR 26-1(b)(4).
25

26 ///

27 ///

28

1 D. Motions in Limine:

2 As required by LR 16-3(b), any motions in limine shall be filed and served thirty
3 days prior to the commencement of Trial. Oppositions shall be filed and served and the motion
4 submitted for decision fourteen days thereafter. Reply briefs will be allowed only with leave of 5 the court.

6 E. Pretrial Order:

7 The parties will prepare a Consolidated Pretrial Order on or before August 13, 2018,
8 which is not more than 30 days after the date set for filing dispositive motions in the case, as 9 required by LR 26-1(b)(5). This deadline will be suspended if dispositive motions are timely
10 filed until 30 days after the decision of the dispositive motions or until further order of the 11 Court. The disclosure required by FRCP Rule 26(a)(3), and objections thereto, shall be made in 12 the pretrial order.

13 F. Interim Status Report

14 The parties shall file the interim status report by April 13, 2018, 60 days before the 15 discovery cut-off date, as required by LR 26-3.

16 G. Extensions or Modification of the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order

17 In accordance with LR 26-4, applications to extend any date set by the discovery plan,
18 scheduling order, or other order must, in addition to satisfying the requirements of LR 6-1, be
19 supported by a showing of good cause for the extension. All motions or stipulations to extend a
20 deadline set forth in a discovery plan shall be received by the Court not later than twenty-one
21 (21) days before the expiration of the subject deadline. A request made after the expiration of 22 the subject deadline shall not be granted unless the movant demonstrates that the failure to set
23
25
26
27
28

1 was the result of excusable neglect. Any motion or stipulation to extend a deadline or to reopen
2 discovery shall include:

- 3 (a) A statement specifying the discovery completed;
- 4 (b) A specific description of the discovery that remains to be completed;
- 5 (c) The reasons why the deadline was not satisfied or the remaining discovery was 6 not completed within the time limits set by the discovery plan; and
- 7 (d) A proposed schedule for completing all discovery.

8 The parties recognize that this request is not being made within twenty-one (21) days of the 9 current deadline of January 15, 2018 to disclose expert reports pursuant to LR 26-4; however
10 the parties submit that good cause and excusable neglect exists.

11 LR 26-4 states in relevant part:

12 A motion or stipulation to extend a deadline set forth in a discovery plan must be
13 received by the court no later than 21 days before the expiration of the subject
14 deadline. A request made within 21 days of the subject deadline must be supported
15 by a showing of good cause. A request made after the expiration of the subject
16 deadline will not be granted unless the movant also demonstrates that the failure to 17 act was the result of excusable neglect.

18 In evaluating excusable neglect, the court considers the following factors: (1) the reason for 19 the delay and whether it was in the reasonable control of the moving party, (2) whether the 20 moving party acted in good faith, (3) the length of the delay and its potential impact on the 21 proceedings, and (4) the danger of prejudice to the nonmoving party. See Pioneer Inv. Servs.
22 Co. v. Brunswick Assocs., 507 U.S. 380, 395 S. Ct. 1489, 123 L.Ed.2d 74 (1993).

23 As set out in the prior Stipulation to Extend Discovery at ECF No. 53, depositions of 24 five (5) LVMPD Officers were taken. There was a significant delay, in excess of three (3)
25 months, after the depositions were taken to obtain them from the Court Reporter that recorded
26
27
28

1 the depositions. In addition, when the deposition transcripts were received by the Officers'
2 Counsel, there were significant errors which caused further delay in the Officers' ability to
3 review their transcripts. The Officers required an additional sixty (60) days to review the 4 transcripts to ensure that their testimony was as accurate as possible considering the substantial
5 issues with the transcripts. The parties did not anticipate this type of delay and as such, thus the 6 delay in requesting the extension pertaining to the expert disclosure deadline.
7

8 This request for an extension is made in good faith, jointly by the parties hereto, to allow 9 additional time for the parties to conduct discovery as to the newly named LVMPD Defendants.
10 This request is not timely, however, it is the result of excusable neglect. Trial is not yet set and 11 dispositive motions have not yet been filed. Accordingly, this extension will not delay this case.
12

13 Moreover, since this request is a joint request, neither party will be prejudiced. The 14 extension will allow the parties the necessary time to prosecute and defend this case.
15

16 IT IS SO STIPULATED this 12th day of January, 2018.
