

1 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

2 DISTRICT OF NEVADA

3 CHRISTOPHER EDWARD FERGUSON,

Case No.: 2:16-cv-01525-APG-NJK

4 Plaintiff

Order

5 v.

6 CHAD BAKER, et al.,

7 Defendants

8 The only remaining claims in this case are plaintiff Christopher Ferguson’s claims against 9 defendant Fast Tow, Inc. More than 30 days have passed since the Ninth Circuit denied
10 Ferguson’s petition for writ of mandamus. ECF No. 169. Consequently, I order Ferguson to 11 indicate how he intends to proceed as to his remaining claims.

12 I THEREFORE ORDER that, by March 18, 2022, plaintiff Christopher Ferguson shall 13 file one of the following: a notice of voluntary dismissal under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
14 41(a)(1), a proposed pretrial order under Local Rules 16-3(b) and 16-4, a motion for entry of 15 clerk’s default under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55(a), or a proposed alternate plan for 16 resolution of his remaining claims against Fast Tow, Inc. Failure to respond to this order will 17 result in dismissal of the remaining claims.

18 DATED this 28th day of February, 2021.
